Poetic Abstract:

Wallace Stevens and the Aesthetics of Abstraction Edward Ragg, 2010-07-15 Edward Ragg's study was the first to examine the role of abstraction throughout the work of Wallace Stevens. By tracing the poet's interest in abstraction from Harmonium through to his later works, Ragg argues that Stevens only fully appreciated and refined this interest within his later career. Ragg's detailed close readings highlight the poet's absorption of late nineteenth century and early twentieth century painting as well as the examples of philosophers and other poets' work. Wallace Stevens and the Aesthetics of Abstraction will appeal to those studying Stevens as well as anyone interested in the relations between poetry and painting. This valuable study embraces revealing philosophical and artistic perspectives analyzing Stevens' place within and resistance to Modernist debates concerning literature, painting, representation and the imagination. Wallace Stevens and Poetic Theory

B J Leggett, 2017-11-01 Leggett traces the effect of several important theoretical works on the poetry and prose of Stevens during a period in which he was formulating an aesthetic between 1942 and 1954. The author offers new readings of a number of poems and passages and clarifies certain controversial conceptions developed by Stevens such as the supreme fiction, the relation of the new poet to tradition and the psychologies of creativity. Chinese Poetic Modernisms Paul Manfredi, Christopher Lupke, 2019-05-15 This volume of fourteen essays explores Chinese poetic modernism in all its facets from its origins in the 1920s through 21st century manifestations. Modernism in the plural reflects the complexity of the ideas and forms which can be associated with this literary historical term. The volume's contributors take a variety of focus points from literary groups such as 9 Leaves or Bamboo Hat to individuals such as modernist sonneteer Feng Zhi or Taiwan experimentalist Xia Yu Hsia Y and Hong Kong modernist Leung Ping Kwan to non biographically oriented chapters concerning modernist language poetry and visual art among other issues. Collectively the volume endeavors to present as complete a picture of modernist practice in Chinese poetry as possible.

Wallace Stevens and the Realities of Poetic Language Stefan Holander, 2008-02-19 This study examines Wallace Stevens' ideas and practice of poetic language with a focus on the 1930s, an era in which Stevens persistently thematized a keenly felt pressure for the possible social involvement and political utility of poetic language. The argument suggests how mutually implicated elements of his poetry such as diction, prosody and metaphor are relied on to signify or enact aesthetic closure both in the negative terms of expressive impotence and unethical isolation and the positive ones of imaginative and linguistic change. In this respect the study deals closely with the epistemologically and ethically fraught issue of the ambiguous and volatile role of non semantic elements and linguistic difficulty in Stevens' language. Assuming that these facets are not exclusive to this period but receive a very clear and therefore instructive formulation in it the discussion outlines some of Stevens most central tropes for poetic creativity at this stage of his career suggesting ways in which they came to form part of his later discourse on poetic functionality when polemical concepts for the imagination such as evasion and escapism became central Stevens prosody is discussed from within an eclectic analytical framework in which cumulative rhythmic is complemented by traditional metrics as a way of doing justice to his rich varied and cognitively volatile use of verse language The expressive potency of prosodic patterning is understood both as an effect of its resistance to semantic interpretation and by assuming a formal drive to interpret them in relation to the semantic and metaphoric staging of individual poems A poem in turn is understood both as a strategic stylistically deviant response to the challenges of a particular historical moment and as an attempt to communicate through creating a sense of linguistic resistance and otherness Symbolist Aesthetics and Early Abstract Art Dee Reynolds,1995-03-30 This innovative analysis of the role of imagination as a central concept in both literary and art criticism studies works by Rimbaud Mallarmé Kandinsky and Mondrian Formal Matters in Contemporary Latino Poetry F. Aldama,2016-01-26 Today's Latino poetry scene is incredibly vibrant With original interviews this is the first meditation on the thematic features of such poetry Looking at how Julia Alvarez Rhina Espaillat Rafael Campo and C Dale Young use structures such as meter rhyme and line break this study identifies a poetics of formalist Latino poetry

Abstraction in Modernism and Modernity Jeff Wallace,2023-04-30 Explores abstraction as a keyword in aesthetic modernism and in critical thinking since Marx Metaphor and the Poetry of Williams, Pound, and Stevens Suzanne Juhasz,1974 The Narratological Analysis of Lyric Poetry Peter Hühn,Jens Kiefer,2005 This study offers a fresh approach to the theory and practice of poetry criticism from a narratological perspective Arguing that lyric poems share basic constituents of narration with prose fiction namely temporal sequentiality of events and verbal mediation the authors propose the transgeneric application of narratology to the poetic genre with the aim of utilizing the sophisticated framework of narratological categories for a more precise and complex modeling of the poetic text On this basis the study provides a new impetus to the neglected field of poetic theory as well as to methodology The practical value of such an approach is then demonstrated by detailed model analyses of canonical English poems from all major periods between the 16th and the 20th centuries The comparative discussion of these analyses draws general conclusions about the specifics of narrative structures in lyric poetry in contrast to prose fiction Thinking Poetry Peter Nicholls,Peter Boxall,2016-03-16 This collection brings together some of the most prominent critics of contemporary poetry and some of the most significant poets working in the English language today to offer a critical assessment of the nature and function of poetic thought Working at once with questions of form literary theory and philosophy this volume gives an extraordinarily diverse original and mobile account of the kind of thinking that poetry can do The conviction that moves through the collection as a whole is that poetry is not an addition to thought nor a vehicle to express a given idea nor an ornamental language in which thinking might find itself couched Rather all the essays suggest that poetry itself thinks in ways that other forms of expression cannot thus making new intellectual political and cultural formulations possible This book was originally published as a special issue of Textual Practice

Unexpected Affinities Lisa Goldfarb, 2018-05-30 The book studies the impact of Stevensian and Valeryan poetics and symbolist poetics more broadly on a range of Anglo American poets in untypical fashion Pairing poets who are not usually studied in their relation to one another reveals mutuality and dissimilitude Chapter I looks at Stevens and Valery from the vantage point of the senses as opposed to the more usual lens of their similar cerebral or philosophical temperaments Although critics have largely and justifiably seen Stevens and Eliot in oppositional terms Stevens proclaims them dead opposites Lisa Goldfarb asks what happens when we look at them from the vantage point of their mutual interest in creating a musical poetics Auden is principally known for his distaste for the symbolists and their magical poetics yet he reserves special praise for Valery and considers him as his poetic mentor Chapter III studies their poetics side by side With Stevens and Auden's mutual appreciation of Valery as a starting point Chapter IV turns to a closer comparative study of Auden and Stevens two poets who have traditionally been seen as operating in distinct poetic spheres While Elizabeth Bishop famously eludes categorization in terms of poetic school or affiliation a fifth chapter addresses her poetic music in relation to French symbolist poetics one of the many poetic schools she admired A sixth and final chapter examines Stevens' musical legacy in large part derived from the symbolists and addresses the work of a range of modern and contemporary poets with a final section devoted to the work of contemporary poet Susan Howe

Literary History and Avant-Garde Poetics in the Antipodes A. J. Carruthers, 2024-03-05 Avant garde poetry in the Antipodes causes all sorts of trouble for literary history It is an avant garde that seems to arrive too late and yet right on time In 1897 Christopher Brennan made his own version of Un Coup de Dés the same year Mallarmé published it in Cosmopolis In the 1940s the same period avant gardism was declared dead or fatally injured due to the Ern Malley affair Harry Hooton began writing a significant body of experimental poetry From the 1950s to the 1970s Australian Dada emerged belatedly through figures like Jas H Duke Tristan Tzara had previously sung Aboriginal songs at the Cabaret Voltaire in 1916 First Nations and Migrant poets then began reinventing avant garde poetry in the twentieth and early twenty first centuries This book maintains that such a confounding literary history poses a distinct challenge to the theories of the avant gardes we have become accustomed to and changes our perspective of avant garde time

Modernism and Poetic Inspiration J. Rasula, 2009-06-08 The sites of inspiration documented in this book range from nineteenth century linguistic theory to postmodern strategies of conceptual writing encompassing well known instances of modernist poetics Mallarmé Pound Olson alongside obscure but revealing figures like Otto Nebel and Henri Martin Barzun

(Re)Searching the Digital Bauhaus Thomas Binder, Jonas Löwgren, Lone Malmberg, 2008-10-08 The intent of this chapter is to outline a distinctive way of thinking about issues of technology and society that has characterized many Nordic approaches to the topic One of the characteristics of this approach has been the recognition of the worth of human labour

Technology is not seen as an alien force but something which is itself a product of human labour and it can be designed and utilized in ways which augment human skills and expertise rather than degrading them What is particularly striking at least to this author in this approach is that we are presented not simply with a vision of how things could be better in our society but with concrete exemplars of how we can build such a better world It is in recognition of this fact that I have chosen the title of this chapter as it emphasizes that while the tradition of Utopian literature is the lineation of a supposedly idea world which exists no place u topos in Greek these visions can be an inspiration for quite practical activities on the ground as steps towards their realization As Wilde notes in the quote above this is a never ending quest as with each achievement we recognize that there are further bridges to cross and places to be visited

Thought and Poetry John Koethe,2022-03-24 Addressing objective and subjective views of the self and the world in philosophy and poetry this collection brings together a chronology of John Koethe s thoughts on the connections between the two forms and makes a significant contribution to unsettling the oppositions that separate them The essays traverse the philosophical conception of the self in modern poetry and locate connections between poets including William Wordsworth Wallace Stevens and John Ashbery alongside philosophers including Kant Schopenhauer and Wittgenstein Koethe pays special attention to romantic poetry and notions of the sublime which he maps onto subjective individual experience and the objective perspective on the natural world Koethe further explores this theme in a new essay on romanticism and the sublime in relation to the mind body problem Using an associative and impressionistic style to write philosophically about poetry Koethe defends his own approach that such writing cannot and should not aim for the rigor of philosophical argumentation

The New York School Poets and the Neo-Avant-Garde Mark Silverberg,2016-02-17 New York City was the site of a remarkable cultural and artistic renaissance during the 1950s and 60s In the first monograph to treat all five major poets of the New York School John Ashbery Barbara Guest Kenneth Koch Frank O Hara and James Schuyler Mark Silverberg examines this rich period of cross fertilization between the arts Silverberg uses the term neo avant garde to describe New York School Poetry Pop Art Conceptual Art Happenings and other movements intended to revive and revise the achievements of the historical avant garde while remaining keenly aware of the new problems facing avant gardists in the age of late capitalism Silverberg highlights the family resemblances among the New York School poets identifying the aesthetic concerns and ideological assumptions they shared with one another and with artists from the visual and performing arts A unique feature of the book is Silverberg s annotated catalogue of collaborative works by the five poets and other artists To comprehend the coherence of the New York School Silverberg demonstrates one must understand their shared commitment to a reconceptualized idea of the avant garde specific to the United States in the 1950s and 60s when the adversary culture of the Beats was being appropriated and repackaged as popular culture Silverberg s detailed analysis of the strategies the New York School poets used to confront the problem of appropriation tells us much about the politics of taste and gender during the period and suggests new ways of understanding succeeding generations of artists and poets

Abstraction in Post-War British Literature 1945-1980 Natalie Ferris, 2022 Abstraction in Post War British Literature explores the ways in which writers and thinkers responded to non representational art in the decades following the Second World War By offering a chronological overview of the period in Britain it questions how abstraction came to be discovered absorbed and reimagined in literature
