

the duty and office of rhetoric is to apply reason to imagination for the better moving of the will ... The office of rhetoric is to fill the imagination to second reason and not to oppress it.

Poetic ARGUMENT

STUDIES IN MODERN POETRY

This book is a defence of reason against the "moralistic" and "absolutist" principles of the Defense of Reason; it is closer to the "unreality" offered more recently

ers. As I intend to show, it grows argumentative by the demands of itself, setting tasks that can be accomplished only by a strenuous logic. The book is contentious and aggressive because modern poetry is defiantly problematic in its means and ends. It is one version of the dilemma: poetic thinking demands a play of reason, which must call forth and subvert

Poetic Argument Studies In Modern Poetry

Garry L. Hagberg

Poetic Argument Studies In Modern Poetry:

Poetic Argument Jonathan Kertzer, 1988 Poetic Argument studies argument as both a theme and a technique of poetry Jonathan Kertzer considers how poets argue for rather than merely assert their truths In a theoretical essay and detailed analysis of the works of five poets Marianne Moore Edward Thomas Dylan Thomas T S Eliot and Wallace Stevens Kertzer explores the workings of lyrical imagination Poetic Argument Jonathan Kertzer, 1989-10-01 Beginning with an essay on the history and theory of poetic argument he traces its patterns through Romantic and Modernist literature He divides his subject into three areas the paradoxes of reason language and argument Poetic Argument surveys the writings of the five poets in light of what has to be proved and identifies the characteristic styles of proof for each For example in the chapter on Marianne Moore Kertzer studies two expressions of poetic argument The first regards poetry as a waking dream combining the powers of sleep and calculation The second derived from Imagism treats poetry as a special way of seeing Kertzer suggests that the combination of these two elements produces Moore's characteristically intricate but inconclusive forms of argument Thinking Poetry Peter Nicholls, Peter Boxall, 2016-03-16 This collection brings together some of the most prominent critics of contemporary poetry and some of the most significant poets working in the English language today to offer a critical assessment of the nature and function of poetic thought Working at once with questions of form literary theory and philosophy this volume gives an extraordinarily diverse original and mobile account of the kind of thinking that poetry can do The conviction that moves through the collection as a whole is that poetry is not an addition to thought nor a vehicle to express a given idea nor an ornamental language in which thinking might find itself couched Rather all the essays suggest that poetry itself thinks in ways that other forms of expression cannot thus making new intellectual political and cultural formulations possible This book was originally published as a special issue of Textual Practice Rhetoric and Poetics in Antiquity Jeffrey Walker, 2000 In reply to traditional rhetorical histories which tend to view rhetoric as in essence an art of practical civic oratory Rhetoric and Poetics in Antiquity argues in four extended multi chapter essays that epideictic and poetic eloquence was central even fundamental to the rhetorical tradition in antiquity This volume also offers a revised rhetorical conception of epideictic and poetic discourse BOOK JACKET Wittgenstein on Aesthetic Understanding Garry L. Hagberg, 2017-05-22 This book investigates the significance of Wittgenstein's philosophy for aesthetic understanding Focusing on the aesthetic elements of Wittgenstein's philosophical work the authors explore connections to contemporary currents in aesthetic thinking and the illuminating power of Wittgenstein's philosophy when considered in connection with the interpretation of specific works of literature music and the arts Taken together the chapters presented here show what aesthetic understanding consists of and the ways we achieve it how it might be articulated and why it is important At a time of strong renewal of interest in Wittgenstein's contributions to the philosophy of mind and language this book offers insight into the connections between philosophical psychological and linguistic issues and the understanding of the arts New Definitions of Lyric Mark Jeffreys,1998 This volume traces the modern critical and performance history of this play one of Shakespeare s most loved and most performed comedies The essay focus on such modern concerns as feminism deconstruction textual theory and queer theory All in All (More or Less) Walter Jost,2025-01-07 This book reinvents aspects of the rhetorical tradition as part of a philosophical pluralism oriented to All in Allness Its chapters unfold some of the ethical and intellectual responsibilities philosophy and rhetoric share their commitments toward literature broadly conceived the limited authority of their interpretations and the kinds of judgments they issue in Part One drawing chiefly on Ludwig Wittgenstein and Richard McKeon leverages a central line of argument regarding Rationality in the pragmatism of Robert Brandom Part Two pivots to specific instances of the range of rhetorical argument found in surprising places and in sophisticated arrangements The book as a whole culminates in Part Three where the author demonstrates how ordinary language criticism fruitfully bears on cultural models film drama novels poetry belonging to American Low

Shelley and the Apprehension of Life Ross Wilson,2013-08-15 This book establishes Percy Bysshe Shelley s view of poetry as living melody and sets it within the wider context of Romantic era thought Philosophy of Literature Severin Schroeder,2011-07-11 Philosophy of Literature presents six newly commissioned essays from international scholars that address some of the key issues relating to the philosophy of literature a thriving and increasingly influential branch of aesthetics Features a half dozen newly commissioned articles from leading scholars in the field of philosophy of literature Focuses on a branch of aesthetics that has not received the attention it deserves Includes a reading on the historical relationship between philosophy and literature with recent developments and projections for the future Contributors include Peter Lamarque University of York Peter Kivy Rutgers University USA and Stein Haugom Olsen University of Bergen Norway

Science in Modern Poetry John Holmes,2012-01-01 Over the last thirty years more and more critics and scholars have come to recognize the significant influence of science on literature This collection of essays focuses specifically on what poets in the twentieth and twenty first centuries have made of modern scientific developments In these twelve essays leading experts on modern poetry literature and science explore how poets have used scientific language in their poems how poetry can offer new perspectives on science and how the two cultures can and have come together in the work of poets from Britain Ireland America and Australia The Poetry of Clare, Hopkins, Thomas, and Gurney Andrew

Hodgson,2019-12-31 This book attends to four poets John Clare Gerard Manley Hopkins Edward Thomas and Ivor Gurney whose poems are remarkable for their personal directness and distinctiveness It shows how their writing conveys a potentially individual quality of feeling perception and experience each poet responds with unusual commitment to the Romantic idea of art as personal expression The book looks closely at the vitality and intricacy of the poets language the personal candour of their subject matter and their sense obdurate but persuasive of their own strangeness As it traces the tact and imagination with which each of the four writers realises the possibilities of individualism in lyric it affirms the vibrancy of their contributions to nineteenth and twentieth century poetry Literature in the Making Nancy Glazener,2016 In the eighteenth century literature meant learned writings by the twentieth century literature had come to be identified with imaginative aesthetically significant works and academic literary studies had developed special protocols for interpreting and valuing literary texts Literature in the Making examines what happened in between how literature came to be more precisely specified and valued how it was organized into genres canons and national traditions and how it became the basis for departments of modern languages and literatures in research universities Modern literature the version of literature familiar today was an international invention but it was forged when literary cultures traditions and publishing industries were mainly organized nationally Literature in the Making examines modern literature s coalescence and institutionalization in the United States considered as an instructive instance of a phenomenon that was going global Since modern literature initially offered a way to formulate the value of legacy texts by authors such as Homer Cervantes and Shakespeare however the development of literature and literary culture in the U S was fundamentally transnational Literature in the Making argues that Shakespeare studies one of the richest tracts of nineteenth century U S literary culture was a key domain in which literature came to be valued both for fuelling modern projects and for safeguarding values and practices that modernity put at risk a foundational paradox that continues to shape literary studies and literary culture Bringing together the histories of literature s competing conceptualizations its print infrastructure its changing status in higher education and its life in public culture during the long nineteenth century Literature in the Making offers a robust account of how and why literature mattered then and matters now By highlighting the lively collaboration between academics and non academics that prevailed before the ascendancy of the research university starkly divided experts from amateurs Literature in the Making also opens new possibilities for envisioning how academics might partner with the reading public Questions of Possibility: Contemporary Poetry and Poetic Form David Caplan,2006-09-26 Questions of Possibility examines the particular forms that contemporary

American poets favor and those they neglect The poets choices reveal both their ambitions and their limitations the new possibilities they discover and the traditions they find unimaginable By means of close attention to the sestina ghazal love sonnet ballad and heroic couplet this study advances a new understanding of contemporary American poetry Rather than pitting closed verse against open and traditional poetry against experimental Questions of Possibility explores how poets associated with different movements inspire and inform each other s work Discussing a range of authors from Charles Bernstein Derek Walcott and Marilyn Hacker to Agha Shahid Ali David Caplan treats these poets as contemporaries who share the language not as partisans assigned to rival camps The most interesting contemporary poetry crosses the boundaries that literary criticism draws synthesizing diverse influences and establishing surprising affinities In a series of lively readings Caplan charts the diverse characteristics and accomplishments of modern poetry from the gay and lesbian love sonnet to the currently popular sestina

The Apocalypse in English Renaissance Thought and Literature C. A. Patrides, Joseph Anthony Wittreich, 1984 This remarkable collection of original essays by a distinguished group of American and English scholars explores attitudes toward apocalyptic thought and the Book of Revelation as they were reflected over many centuries in theological discourse political activity and artistic and literary endeavors

The Rebellion of Forms in Modern Persian Poetry Farshad Sonboldel, 2024-02-08 An analysis of the aesthetic cultural and political aspects of alternative poetic movements and individual poets in three periods the Constitutional Revolution 1900 1920 the post constitutional era 1920 1940 and the ascendancy of modernism 1940 1960 Farshad Sonboldel shines new light on the history of modern Persian poetry by re imagining the roles that the aesthetic experimentations of alternative poets played in different phases of the literary revolution in modern Persian poetry Dominant narratives portray modern Persian poetry as a gradual rational and moderate change in the classical regime of aesthetics as well as a response to and reflection of cultural and socio political changes within Iranian society They also disregard the significance of radical experiments by alternative poets and undervalue the part they played in the initiation and progress of the so called literary revolution These mainstream narratives minimize the socio political engagement of literary works with the direct reflection of the social reality and thus neglect the way many alternative poems struggle with socio political issues through deconstructing the old and constructing new aesthetic systems Each chapter of The Rebellion of Forms in Modern Persian Poetry is centred around poems chosen for their potential to showcase notable experiments of pioneer movements and individuals in each given period Examining the formal and thematic aspects of these poems this book reformulates the story of modern Persian poetry and unravels the relationship between radical aesthetic changes in the practice of poetry and resistance against political and cultural domination in society

Science, Literature and Rhetoric in Early Modern England David Burchell, 2017-03-02 These essays throw new light on the complex relations between science literature and rhetoric as avenues to discovery in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries Scholars from a variety of disciplinary backgrounds examine the agency of early modern poets playwrights essayists philosophers natural philosophers and artists in remaking their culture and reforming ideas about human understanding Analyzing the ways in which the works of such diverse writers as Shakespeare Bacon Hobbes Milton Cavendish Boyle Pope and Behn related to contemporary epistemological debates these essays move us toward a better understanding of interactions between the sciences and the humanities during a seminal phase in the emergence of modern Western thought

Convergence of East-West Poetics Zhanghui

Yang,2024-07-23 The present book examines William Carlos Williams's negotiation with cultural modes and systems of the Chinese landscape tradition in his landscape writing Focusing on Williams's landscape modes of landscape without infused emotions the book builds a linkage between their interactions with Chinese landscape aesthetics and shows how these conversations helped shape Williams's cross cultural landscape poetics The exploration of Williams's experiment with the Chinese serene interplay of self and landscape the interfusion of scene and emotion an idea of seeing from the perspective of Wang Guowei's theory of jingjie and the poetic space of frustration and completion in the context of space and human geography expand the understanding of a cross cultural landscape tradition developed by Williams through bringing into focus the convergence of East West poetics
