Ancient myth in modern poetry Lillian Feder, 1973

Gods and Mortals Nina Kossman, 2001-03-22

For centuries poets have looked into the mirror of classical myth to show us the many ways our emotional lives are still reflected in the ancient stories of heroism hubris transformation and loss that myths so eloquently tell Now in Gods and Mortals Modern Poems on Classical Myths we have the first anthology to gather the great 20th century myth inspired poems from around the world Perhaps it is because the myths echo the structure of our unconscious that every new generation of poets finds them a source of inspiration and self recognition says Nina Kossman in her introduction to this marvelous collection Indeed from Valery Yeats Lawrence Rilke Akhmatova and Auden writing in the first half of the century to such contemporary poets as Lucille Clifton Derek Walcott Rita Dove Wislawa Szymborska and Mark Strand the material of Greek myth has elicited a poetry of remarkably high achievement And by organizing the poems first into broad categories such as Heroes Lovers Trespassers and secondly around particular mythological figures such as Persephone Orpheus or Narcissus readers are treated to a fascinating spectrum of poems on the same subject For example the section on Odysseus includes poems by Cavafy W S Merwin Gregory Corso Gabriel Zaid Louise Gluck Wallace Stevens and many others Thus we are allowed to see the familiar Greek hero refracted through the eyes and sharply varying stylistic approaches of a wide range of poets from around the world Here then is a collection of extraordinary poems that testifies to and amply rewards our ongoing fascination with classical myth

Orpheus Charles Segal, 1989 This volume surveys the literary treatment of the Orpheus myth as the myth of the essence of poetry the ability to encounter the fullest possible intensity of beauty and sorrow and to transform them into song The first half of the book concentrates on the ancient literary tradition from the myth's Greek origins through the influential poetic versions of Ovid and Virgil and its treatment by other Latin authors such as Horace and Seneca Later chapters focus on the continuities of the myth in modern literature including the poetry of H D Rukeyser Rich Ashbery and especially Rilke The author's leitmotif throughout is the relation of poetry to art love and death the three points of the Orphic triangle Through close readings of individual texts he shows how various versions of the myth oscillate between a poetry of transcendence that asserts its power over the necessities of nature including the ultimate necessity death and a poetry that celebrates its immersion in the stream of life

Myth and the Sacred in the Poetry of Guillevic Stella Harvey, 2023-11-20 The sacred occupies a central place in the poetry of Guillevic who described himself as a mat rialiste religieux This study informed by anthropological and psychoanalytical thought examines the evolution of this aspect of his oeuvre from Terraqu 1942 through to the poet's last works and focuses in particular on the relation between the sacred and the mother figure A semiotic approach is used for close textual analysis of key poems Guillevic's poetic endeavour is conceived as an archaeological quest whereby the presence of the archaic within the domain of the real is disclosed and mythical patterns emerge The re enactment of the cosmogony the performance of ritual and the process of mourning all crucial to poetic creativity itself are identified as motivating forces through which the poet seeks reparation of the mother This study will be of interest to undergraduate and postgraduate students as well as to teachers of French literature and will provide a useful introduction to those who may be unfamiliar with the unique voice of this major 20th century poet

Symbol and Myth in Ancient Poetry Herbert Musurillo, 1961 Myth Thomas Sanfilip, 1984 Ezra Pound, Nature and Myth William Pratt, 2002 The ten short essays of this volume consider the use of classical antiquity and nature in the writing of Ezra Pound Much of Pound's poetry is described particularly the Cantos One essay reproduces Pound's essay European Paideuma other topics include imagery in Pound and Catullus Pindar and the Sublime Robert L. Fowler, 2022-01-13 Pindar the Theban eagle as Thomas Gray famously called him has often been taken as the archetype of the sublime poet soaring into the heavens on wings of language and inspired by visions of eternity In this much anticipated new study Robert Fowler asks in what ways the concept of the sublime can still guide a reading of the greatest of the Greek lyric poets Working with ancient and modern treatments of the topic especially the poetry and writings of Friedrich Hölderlin 1770-1843 arguably Pindar's greatest modern reader he develops the case for an aesthetic appreciation of Pindar's odes as literature Building on recent trends in criticism he shifts the focus away from the first performance and the orality of Greek culture to reception and the experience of Pindar's odes as text This change of emphasis yields a fresh discussion of many facets of Pindar's astonishing art including the relation of the poems to their occasions performativity the poet's persona his imagery and his myths Consideration of Pindar's views on divinity transcendence time and the limits of language reveals him to be not only a great writer but a great thinker
