Reclaiming Theodicy M. Stoeber, 2005-09-15 In Reclaiming Theodicy Michael Stoeber explores various themes of theodicy theology that defends God in the face of evil by creatively developing a distinction between transformative and destructive suffering. Emphasising the importance of human compassion and illustrating various spiritual experiences of God that are healing, the book proposes a narrative of life within which one might understand suffering in relation to a personal God of ultimate power and love and suggests basic principles toward developing a politics of compassion. African Women Legends and the Spirituality of Resistance Musa W. Dube, Telesia K. Musili, Sylvia Owusu-Ansah, 2024-03-11 This volume focuses on African indigenous women legends and their potential to serve as midwives for gender empowerment and for contributing towards African feminist theories. It considers the intersection of gender and spirituality in subverting patriarchy, colonialism, anthropocentrism, and capitalism, as well as elevating African women to the social space of speaking as empowered subjects with public influence. The chapters examine historical cultural and religious African women legends who became champions of liberation and their approach to social justice. The authors suggest that their stories of resistance hold great potential for building justice-loving Earth Communities. This book will be of interest to scholars of religion, gender studies, indigenous studies, African studies, African indigenous knowledges, postcolonial studies, among others. Spirituality across Disciplines: Research and Practice: Marian de Souza, Jane Bone, Jacqueline Watson, 2016-06-29 This book collects multiple disciplinary voices which explore current research and perspectives to discuss how spirituality is understood, interpreted, and applied in a range of contexts. It addresses spirituality in combination with such topics as Christian mysticism, childhood and adolescent education, midwifery, and sustainability. It links spirituality to a variety of disciplines including cognitive neuroscience, sociology, and psychology. Finally, it discusses the application of spirituality within the context of social work, teaching, health care, and occupational therapy. A final chapter provides an analytical discussion of the different voices that appear in the book and offers a holistic description of spirituality which has the potential to bring some unity to the meaning, expression, and practice of spirituality across a variety of disciplines, as well as across cultural, religious, and secular worldviews. A strength of the book is that each chapter is characterized by a fearless confronting of oppositional perspectives and use of the latest research in addressing them. The book takes the difficult topic of spirituality into almost every nook and cranny of personal and professional life. There is a persistent grasping of the contentiousness of the topic together with addressing counter positions and utilizing updated research across a range of fields in doing this. The opening and closing chapters serve as book ends that keep the whole volume together. Terence Lovat, The University of Newcastle, Australia. The interdisciplinary nature of the work is by far the strongest aspect of this volume. It has the potential to contribute to a dialogue between different professions and disciplines. This prospective publication promises to promote a more holistic approach to the study of spirituality. This volume takes into consideration a wide variety of issues. The way the editors have structured the sequence of chapters contributes to facilitate any possible dialogue between the different areas. Adrian Mario
