Recollections Of A World War 2 B17 Bomb:

Shot at and Missed Jack R. Myers, 2005-02-01 In this riveting narrative Jack R Myers recounts his experiences as a B 17 bombardier during World War II Commissioned a second lieutenant in 1944 at age twenty Myers began flying missions with the 2nd Bomb Group U S Fifteenth Air Force He learned firsthand the exhilaration and terror of being shot at and missed Based in Italy the Fifteenth Air Force flew strategic bombing raids over southern Germany Austria Hungary Rumania and Czechoslovakia Less celebrated than the Eighth Air Force which flew out of England the Fifteenth nevertheless was pivotal in dismantling the German industrial complex Myers offers an insider's view of these missions over southern and central Europe The reader goes with him into the highly exposed Plexiglas nose of the Flying Fortress flying with him through the flak filled skies of Europe and peering with him through his Norden bombsight at Axis targets On average a heavy bomber crewman survived only sixteen bombing missions Myers survived his allotted thirty five missions before being honorably discharged in 1945

Forgotten Fifteenth Barrett Tillman, 2014-06-02 November 1943 May 1945 The U S Army Air Forces waged an unprecedentedly dogged and violent campaign against Hitler's vital oil production and industrial plants on the Third Reich's southern flank Flying from southern Italy far from the limelight enjoyed by the Eighth Air Force in England the Fifteenth Air Force engaged in high risk missions spanning most of the European continent The story of the Fifteenth Air Force deserves a prideful place in the annals of American gallantry In his new book Forgotten Fifteenth The Daring Airmen Who Crippled Hitler's War Machine Tillman brings into focus a seldom seen multinational cast of characters including pilots from Axis nations Romania Hungary and Bulgaria and many more remarkable individuals They were the first generation of fliers few of them professionals to conduct a strategic bombing campaign against a major industrial nation They suffered steady attrition and occasionally spectacular losses In so doing they contributed to the end of the most destructive war in history Forgotten Fifteenth is the first ever detailed account of the Fifteenth Air Force in World War II and the brave men that the history books have abandoned until now Tillman proves this book is a must read for military history enthusiasts veterans and current servicemen 390th Bomb Group, 1994 The 390th Bombardment Group H contained the 568th 570th and 571st squadrons WWII Bombardiers Philip A. St. John, 1998 Includes history of various bomb groups pictures and biographies of bombardiers and history of the development of bombing equipment Flying against Fate S. P.

MacKenzie, 2017-08-04 During World War II Allied casualty rates in the air were high Of the roughly 125 000 who served as aircrew with Bomber Command 59 423 were killed or missing and presumed killed a fatality rate of 45 5% With odds like that it would be no surprise if there were as few atheists in cockpits as there were in foxholes and indeed many airmen faced their dangerous missions with beliefs and rituals ranging from the traditional to the outlandish Military historian S P MacKenzie considers this phenomenon in Flying against Fate a pioneering study of the important role that superstition played in combat flier morale among the Allies in World War II Mining a wealth of documents as well as a trove of published and unpublished memoirs and diaries MacKenzie examines the myriad forms combat fliers superstitions assumed from jinxes to premonitions Most commonly airmen carried amulets or talismans lucky boots or a stuffed toy a coin whose year numbers added up to thirteen counterintuitively a boomerang Some performed rituals or avoided other acts e g having a photo taken before a flight Whatever seemed to work was worth sticking with and a heightened risk often meant an upsurge in superstitious thought and behavior MacKenzie delves into behavior analysis studies to help explain the psychology behind much of the behavior he documents not slighting the large cohort of crew members and commanders who demurred He also looks into the ways in which superstitious behavior was tolerated or even encouraged by those in command who saw it as a means of buttressing morale The first in depth exploration of just how varied and deeply felt superstitious beliefs were to tens of thousands of combat fliers Flying against Fate expands our understanding of a major aspect of the psychology of war in the air and of World War II Reddo's Raiders James J. Redmond,2004 Love Blows Wind Into Time is inspired by life and people that make a difference in the lives of others It can be a thought an idea or something unexpected that creates a unique situation in our lives but love remains the strongest factor So many times as we go through life ups and downs we forget that love has carried us through it all If we can look closely at our lives we might find that love allowed something beautiful to happen in spite of our challenges and triumphs Staying Alive Carl Fyler,1995 Flypast ,2008 99th Bomb Group ,1998 The 99th Bomb Group contained the 346th 347th 348th and the 416th squadrons 8th AF News ,1991 58th Bomb Wing ,1999-06 This comprehensive history covers the 58th Bomb Wing from its activation in June of 1943 through World War II With service biographies and special stories from the men who served this is a wonderful addition to the library of anyone interested in World War II The Making of the Atom Bomb Victoria Sherrow,2000 Discusses various topics connected to the production of the atom bomb including the development of nuclear energy work on atomic weapons at the Los Alamos and other sites and the decision to use the first atomic bomb during World War II Wings of Tru Love Kenneth Cleveland Drinnon,2011 Wings of Tru Love author Kenneth C Drinnon joined theUnited States Army Air Force in 1943 and served in theEuropean Theater as a B17 ball turret gunner with the 8thAir Force 487th Heavy Bomb Group and 838th Squadron He fl ew thirty four aerial combat missions form October 22 1944 to February 28 1945 over Nazi Germany and attainedthe rank of Staff Sergeant before being discharged in 1945 There were several notable bombing missions includingthe synthetic oil refi neries at Merseberg Germany andseveral against transportation facilities in support of theArmy ground forces during the Battle of the Bulge butthe one most remembered by aviators of the 487th BombGroup was December 24 1944 when General FrederickW Castle was killed while leading a two thousand planebomber mission for the Eight Air Force and piloting thelead plane of the 487th Bomb Group Both the 487th BombGroup and the Luftwaffe suffered many casualties duringan aerial gun battle Video Source Book ,2006 A guide to programs currently available on video in the areas of movies entertainment general interest education sports recreation fine arts health science business industry children juvenile how to instruction Survival: Self & Country, Wwii Bruce Galvin Craig, 2011-10-28 The adventurous true stories of a WWII Navigator on a B24 Liberator Bomber flying from England on missions over Germany The book follows the author's military training through twenty transfers and his inventive efforts to get a commission and join the Air Corps Each time a decision was made some of his comrades went one way and others were sent to the infantry There is barracks humor tricks they played on each other and on superior officers In addition to Chapter indexes there are indexes of his 13 near death experiences and of his 18 missions over Germany listing cities and targets to be destroyed Interspersed with his story in bold type is a report of what was happening in other theaters of the war Excellent review of little known events and strategies Air Force Gunners Turner Publishing, 1994 History of the airforce gunners from early days through World War II and later American Ex-prisoners of War, 1988 Poet Flyer E. John Knapp, 2009 Memories from the Out House Mouse, 2002 The following are the combined personal diaries of the last World War II combat flight crew of the Boeing B 17 F Flying Fortress named Out House Mouse Each of these diaries has been transcribed from the original or from a first generation copy of the original provided to me by the crewmember or his immediate family My father was 1Lt E J Joe Harvey the pilot on this crew and it was the transcription of his diary that began this project Lt Harvey's notes were hand printed in block capital letters and an effort has been made to retain that personality in this transcription For each combat mission Lt Harvey also included carefully cut and folded newspaper accounts which have also been transcribed and where possible the source newspaper identified An effort has been made to duplicate the newsprint type column size and position as much as possible to retain the look of his original diary From his diary I learned the names of the other members of his crew and their hometown at that time Using that information I've been able to locate all the members of the crew or their family Six others have provided me with copies of their diary for which I am most grateful and I have included transcriptions of these diaries in this combined record Because Lt Harvey provided an entry for every day even when not flying and because his diary covers the greatest period of time from the first of January through the middle of June 1945 his diary provides the date stamp and serves as the basis for all of the other records This combined chronological record includes the seven available records of all 9 members of this last combat crew of the Out House Mouse Thus this record includes the diary of 2Lt Phil Darby the co pilot provided by Mr Darby the diary of 2Lt Marty Raber the bombardier who actually sent me his original diary and his scrapbook for my use in preparing this book the diary of 2Lt Paul Katz the navigator for the crew provided by his wife Joan Katz the diary of S Sgt Niel C Jorgenson the crew's flight engineer which has been provided by his daughter Ms Susan Lunt who also provided the computer scans of the photographs of the flight crew and their signatures at the beginning of this book The remaining records are the Mission Sheets of the ball turret gunner S Sgt George H Odenwaller and the diary of the tail gunner S Sgt Walter M Limberger Both of these gentlemen provided me with a hand written reproduction of their diary The last record of course is that of Lt Harvey from which all of this has grown Following the entries of the pilot and co pilot the entries from the other five diaries are arranged in a nose to tail order of that crewmember s position aboard the Out House Mouse Each of these records is separated from the others by a break line with each contributing member identified In addition the individual contributions also use a different type font A sincere effort has been made to replicate the handwriting and format the diarist used in each of the original records For example while most of the diary authors established a format for reporting the specific important facts of their missions and recorded these facts in hand printed letters Paul Katz wrote his diary in long hand using a narrative style and addressed it to his wife Joan Consequently for Lt Katz I chose a script font to replicate the transcription of his diary Mission days are preceded by a small pilot s wing prior to the diary date and conclude with the transcription of the newspaper account or accounts that Lt Harvey had so carefully cut folded and pasted into his diary Photographs from these articles have been electronically scanned and reproduced here
