Recollections of a Scientist Norman N. Greenwood, 2012-04-25
Recollections of a Scientist 1 Boyhood and Youth in Australia 1925 1948 This illustrated book is the first volume of the Memoirs of a distinguished internationally renowned scientist Professor Norman N Greenwood FRS It gives a lively and intimate account of his boyhood and youth in Australia during the nineteen thirties and forties and is divided into thirteen chapters It is a personal account rather than a formal history and describes in refreshing detail his richly diverse experiences Chapter 1 explains how he came to be born in Melbourne although both of his parents as well as his elder sister and younger brother were all born in Northern England his father Professor John Neill Greenwood had just been appointed as the first Professor of Metallurgy in an Australian University The scene is further set by a brief account of the extraordinary events that led up to the founding of the University of Melbourne following the Victorian Gold Rush of the mid nineteenth century and its subsequent development into one of the major Universities of the then British Empire The young family settled in Mont Albert one of the developing eastern suburbs of the expanding metropolis but unfortunately his parents separated soon afterwards and subsequently divorced The children moved with their mother to the neighbouring suburb of Surrey Hills and one of her sisters came out from England to help with the growing family Norman goes on to describe the various schools he attended and has some perceptive comments on his teachers the ethos of the schools and the gradual changes that have occurred in the approach to education in Victoria over the years since the nineteen thirties Initially vacations were spent at a country cottage being built by his father at Kinglake in the densely wooded hills to the north of Melbourne and Norman evokes a childhood view of the exotic plants and animals of the bush the deep secluded tree fern gullies and tumbling mountain streams His father was one of the main protagonists for the development of the Kinglake National Park which he had helped to found Tragically much of the Park was engulfed by the enormous bush fires the worst in Australia s history that wiped out the little township of Kinglake with great loss of life in February 2009 Other holidays were spent on the beaches of Port Phillip Bay or on the cooler slopes of the Dandenong Ranges to the east Norman and his younger brother Eric always known in his youth as Peter or Nipper loved roaming in the Olinda State Forest and Sherwood Forest where the tall mountain ash eucalyptus trees towered above the dense undergrowth of tree ferns and other plants Bush animals abounded as did the raucous cockatoos and multicoloured parrots The great prize however was to sight a lyre bird performing his stately dance and singing his amazing repertoire of all the other birds songs and even the man mad sounds of car horns chain saws and steam engines For the three years 1939 40 41 Norman attended University High School near the city centre and adjacent to the grounds of the University itself It was a remarkable school with an excellent academic reputation but also known for fostering of musical talent and for its prowess in sport Norman joined the School Orchestra as second flute and they gave concerts in the Melbourne Town Hall and occasionally on the State broadcasting station 3LO He also edited the School Magazine The Record perhaps an early portent of his later prolific output of scientific research papers reviews monographs and textbooks In the summer vacation of January 1940 during which Norman had his fifteenth birthday he went on and extended 1300 mile concert party tour of twenty eight country towns in Western Victoria and over the border into South Australia The trip was organised by the Young Australia League YAL and took the form of a White Minstrels Review of thirty boys with songs i Kipling Interviews and Recollections Harold Orel,1983-06-18 Recollections of Sixty Years in the Shoe Trade Joel C. Career Construction Jacobus Gideon (Kobus) Maree, 2020-06-29 This book sets out to provide context for innovating counseling for self and career construction It gives readers insight into the theory underlying an innovative integrative qualitative quantitative approach to career counseling Three key ideas recur throughout the book First the idea of not dispensing advice to people instead enabling them to advise themselves Second the idea of listening for instead of to people's stories to help them choose and construct careers and themselves and shape their career identities Third the idea of helping people connect what they know about themselves consciously with what they are aware of subconsciously The book confronts some of the main challenges posed by Work 4.0 on the workplace but also foreshadows the imminent advent of Work 5.0 It endeavors to promote career counselors ability to help people thrive at a time when many speculate that work itself is at risk occupational contexts no longer hold workers in the way they used to and the coronavirus pandemic is disrupting the workplace

Origins and Development of Recollection Simona Ghetti, Patricia J. Bauer, 2012-03-01 The ability to remember unique personal events is at the core of what we consider to be memory How does the vivid experience of reinstatement of our past emerge What is the contribution of this experience to our life histories These questions have intrigued psychologists neuroscientists and philosophers for decades and are the subject of this volume In recent years the science of memory has made extraordinary progress in the conceptualization and assessment of different forms of memory Instead of thinking of memory as a monolithic construct memory is now thought of in terms of dissociable classes of constructs Within declarative memory the type of memory that one can consciously access we make distinctions between the constructs of recollection and episodic memory and the constructs of familiarity and semantic memory respectively

Contributors to this volume discuss new methods to assess these types of memory in studies that refine our understanding of the functions necessary for conscious and vivid recollection. The work has led to substantial increases in our understanding of the building blocks of recollection and its developmental course. The volume also addresses the exciting new research on the neural basis of recollection. Never before has the connection between brain and function been so close. Contributors review neuroimaging studies of the healthy brain and neuropsychological investigations of patients with brain damage that reveal the specific brain structures involved in the ability to recollect. These brain structures undergo important developmental change during childhood and adolescence leading to questions and answers of how the relationship between brain and function unfolds during the course of infancy, childhood and adolescence. Gift to the Church and World John C.

Cavadini, Donald Wallenfäng, 2021-03-22 Few books in theology have faced the twentieth century with all its horrors and yet convincingly revoiced the redemptive Christian antidote that compels us to reawaken to our true identity as beloved children of God. Joseph Ratzinger's 1968 masterpiece Introduction to Christianity is one of those rare books. On the fiftieth anniversary of this classic book's publication, English speaking scholars from around the globe gathered at the University of Notre Dame to celebrate Ratzinger's lasting influence on the world of Christian theology. Bishops, priests and lay men and women set their hands to the trowel of tribute honoring the theological legacy of Joseph Ratzinger and the pivotal role he has played in the recent history of the Catholic Church from his early days as a parish priest and university professor all the way to his election to the Chair of Saint Peter as Pope Benedict XVI. Readers of this collection Gift to the Church and World will enjoy the beautiful variety of essays penned by notable scholars that decorate the timeless insights of Ratzinger's theological genius. Thematic topics include an overview and context of Ratzinger's work, fundamental theology, philosophical theology, dogmatic theology, spiritual theology and pedagogy. Altogether, readers will deepen their appreciation and understanding of the theological contributions of Joseph Ratzinger to the mission field of the New Evangelization today. With contributions from Catherine R. Cavadini, Leonard J. DeLorenzo, Patrick X. Gardner, Robert P. Imbelli, Jennifer Newsome, Martin Aaron Pidel, Francesca Murphy, Anthony J. Pagliarini, Timothy P. O'Malley, Cyril O'Regan, Tracey Rowland, Richard Schenk, H.C. Anthony C. Sciglitano Jr., Clemens Sedmak, Rudolf Voderholzer. The Youth's Companion and Counsellor William Chambers, 1858
