Recollections of a Newspaperman Frank A. Leach, Though his career hit heights far beyond his work as a California journalist Frank Leach always thought of himself as a newspaperman Emigrating to the Golden State with his family as a boy he saw it grow into an important center of business and agriculture Along the way he became superintendent of the U S Mint in San Francisco During his tenure the devastating 1906 earthquake and subsequent fires destroyed much of the City by the Bay leaving the nation stunned Leach and his men saved the old San Francisco Mint building and the bullion that then backed the nation s currency Leach s description of the earthquake and the catastrophe that followed are by a newspaperman with a front row seat Later moving to the nation s capitol he met with President Teddy Roosevelt and President Taft For the first time this long out of print volume is available as an affordable well formatted book for e readers and smartphones Be sure to LOOK INSIDE by clicking the cover above or download a sample California Pioneer Register and Index, 1542-1848 Hubert Howe Bancroft, 2009-06 This compilation of genealogical and biographical sketches is extracted from the first five volumes of Bancroft s seven volume History of California Consists of a complete register of pioneers alphabetically arranged listing all known information of importance about them Annual Publication of the Historical Society of Southern California , 1918 American Book Publishing Record Cumulative, 1950-1977: Title index R.R. Bowker Company. Department of Bibliography, 1978 Thrown Among Strangers Douglas Monroy, 1990 Every California schoolchild s first interaction with history begins with the missions and Indians It is the pastoralist image of course and it is a lasting one Children in elementary school hear how Father Serra and the priests brought civilization to the groveling lizard and acorn eating Indians of such communities as Yang na now Los Angeles So edified by history many of those children drag their parents to as many missions as they can Then there is the other side of the missions one that a mural decorating a savings and loan office in the San Fernando Valley first showed to me as a child On it a kindly priest holds a large cross over a kneeling Indian For some reason though the padre apparently aims not to bless the Indian but rather to bludgeon him with the emblem of Christianity This portrait too clings to the memory capturing the critical view of the missionization of California s indigenous inhabitants I carried the two childhood images with me both when I went to libraries as I researched the missions and when I revisited several missions thirty years after those family trips In this work I proceed neither to debunk nor to reconcile these contrary notions of the missions and Indians but to present a new and I hope deeper understanding of the complex interaction of the two antithetical cultures Publications of the Historical Society of Southern California, 1921 Russian emigré recollections life in Russia and California oral history transcript 1979-1983 Olga Chapovitsky Morgan, Vera Alesksandrova Elischer, Richard A.
