Recolonization and Resistance John S. Saul, 1993 A widely respected commentator on South African affairs offers an important analysis of revolution and counter revolution in the countries of Southern Africa today Saul's previous works on Africa include Socialist Ideology and the Struggle for Southern Africa and The Two Edged Sword The Struggle for Liberation in Namibia and Its Legacy with Colin Leys Insurgency and Counterinsurgency in South Africa Daniel L. Douek, 2020 Probes the underbelly of early post apartheid South Africa and the destabilization and assassination campaign unleashed as white rule ended Historical Dictionary of Angola W. Martin James, 2011-05-05 The second edition of the Historical Dictionary of Angola is a thorough examination of Angola It includes a chronology bibliography maps appendixes and over 600 cross referenced dictionary entries This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Angola Norway and National Liberation in Southern Africa Tore Linné Eriksen, Nordiska Afrikainstitutet, 2000 This book documents and analyses the involvement of Norway in the liberation struggle in Southern Africa Apart from focussing on the formulation of official policies and the extensive cooperation with the liberation movements in the field of humanitarian assistance mainly based on the Ministry of Foreign Affairs records the study highlights the popular involvement and commitment to the struggle Separate chapters are concerned with the churches trade unions and solidarity movements such as the Norwegian Council for Southern Africa and the Namibia Committee The book also includes a case study on the battle for sanctions The Study forms part of the Nordic Africa Institute's research and documentation project National Liberation in Southern Africa The Role of the Nordic Countries Sweden and National Liberation in Southern Africa: Formation of a popular opinion (1950-1970) Tor Sellström, 1999 In 1969 the Swedish parliament endorsed a policy of direct assistance to the liberation movements in Southern Africa Sweden thus became the first Western country to enter into a relationship with organizations that elsewhere in the West were shunned as Communist or terrorist This book the first in a two volume study on Sweden the regional struggles for majority rule national independence traces the background to the relationship Presenting the actors factors behind the support to MPLA of Angola FRELIMO of Mozambique SWAPO of Namibia ZANU ZAPU of Zimbabwe ANC of South Africa it addresses the question why Sweden established close relations with the very movements that eventually would assume state power in their respective countries The second volume later this year will discuss how the support was expressed covering the period from 1970 until the democratic elections in South Africa in 1994 The State Against the Peasantry Merle L. Bowen, 2000 Bowen refuses to treat the peasantry as a homogeneous mass The Pitfalls of Liberal Democracy and Late Nationalism in South Africa M. Muiu, 2008-12-08 This book compares African and Afrikaner nationalisms to demonstrate that the transition from apartheid to liberal democracy in South Africa was a neo colonial settlement that left the economy and the military and security sectors under the control of the white minority while increasing wide socioeconomic disparities between rich and poor Marxisms

in the 21st Century Michelle Williams, Vishwas Satgar, 2013-12-01 The current resurgence of Marxism is based on new sources of inspiration and creativity from movements that seek democratic egalitarian and ecological alternatives to capitalism The Marxism of many of these movements is neither dogmatic nor prescriptive but rather open searching utopian It revolves around four primary factors the importance of democracy for an emancipatory project the ecological limits of capitalism the crisis of global capitalism and the learning of lessons from the failures of Marxist inspired experiments Marxisms in the Twenty First Century challenges vanguardist Marxism featured in South Africa and beyond Featuring leading thinkers from the Left the book offers provocative ideas on interpreting our current world and serves as an excellent introduction to new ways of thinking about Marxism to students and scholars in the field Many anti capitalist traditions and themes including democracy globalisation feminism critique and ecology inform and shape the contributions in this volume

Cuba, Africa, and Apartheid's End Isaac Saney, 2023-01-09 Cuba Africa and Apartheid's End Africa's Children Return examines the history and impressive dimensions of the Cuban Revolution's solidarity with Africa Cuba's role in the southern African national liberation and anti colonial struggle was the largest and most consequential manifestation of the island's commitment to Africa A key moment was the 1987 1988 battle of Cuito Cuanavale which involved Cuba and Angola on one side and South Africa and its allies on the other Cuito Cuanavale contributed the end of apartheid and has assumed legendary status within the Cuban Revolution and the southern African liberation movement Globalization and the Southern African Economies Mats Lundahl, 2004 Focuses on the place of Southern Africa in the globalized economy Identifies the overall economic trends in the African continent and the responses required and actual to the impact of an increasingly interdependent world economy Southern Africa Report, 1993 Decolonisation David Boucher, Ayesha Omar, Christopher Allsobrook, Camilla Boisen, Ndumiso Dladla, Sule Emmanuel Egya, Michael Elliott, Steven Friedman, Amber Murrey, Paul Patton, Chris Saunders, Ian S Spears, 2023-10 Multidisciplinary scholars showcase their search for decolonial strategies from within their disciplinary focus covering ideas such as the different layers at which colonialism operates strategies for a decolonisation that does not recolonise and the importance of preserving and publishing in indigenous languages Decolonisation explores questions of justice injustice and inhumanity that have geographically and intellectually shaped the course of history through overlapping colonial decolonial and postcolonial eras This multidisciplinary collection uses the lenses of history philosophy literature and education to examine aspects of colonialism and decolonisation and their revolutionary and evolutionary manifestations which contributors argue occurred simultaneously in the historical and epistemological record The problems that come into focus have a kaleidoscopic effect on how we come to understand fraught issues from the invention of blacks to the formulation of the ideology of trusteeship and the obligations to lower civilisations Decolonisation brings together an internationally renowned group of scholars to showcase their search for decolonial strategies within their disciplinary focus covering ideas such as the different layers at which colonialism operates strategies for a decolonisation that does not recolonise and the importance of preserving and publishing in indigenous languages This is a much needed book for students and scholars in the field of decolonisation history philosophy and pedagogy The introductory offers a clear and concise primer to this complex subject covering colonialism imperialism decoloniality and the various actors involved Publisher's description The South African Communist Party Thomas Stanley Kolasa, 2016-01-11 Since the collapse of communism in Eastern Europe in the early 1990s communist parties are widely regarded as passe or irrelevant But these parties still exist act and sometimes thrive in various corners of the world This comprehensive history describes how the South African Communist Party has not only survived but flourished in a harsh political environment Formed in 1921 as an umbrella organization of leftist groups the SACP for decades fought against the racist Apartheid regime ascending to power in 1994 with its senior alliance partner the African National Congress Approaching its centennial the SACP now faces possibly its greatest challenge working towards a socialist future for South Africa while governing a diverse and complex capitalist country Twentieth-Century Marxism Daryl Glaser, David M. Walker, 2007-09-12 Divided into three parts examining Marxism historically geographically and thematically this book outlines and assesses the Marxist tradition as it developed in the twentieth century and considers its place and standing as we move into the twenty first century Sweden and National Liberation in Southern Africa Tor Sellström, 1999 In 1969 the Swedish parliament endorsed a policy of direct assistance to the liberation movements in Southern Africa Sweden thus became the first Western country to enter into a relationship with organizations that elsewhere in the West were shunned as Communist or terrorist This book the first in a two volume study on Sweden the regional struggles for majority rule national independence traces the background to the relationship Presenting the actors factors behind the support to MPLA of Angola FRELIMO of Mozambique SWAPO of Namibia ZANU ZAPU of Zimbabwe ANC of South Africa it addresses the question why Sweden established close relations with the very movements that eventually would assume state power in their respective countries The second volume later this year will discuss how the support was expressed covering the period from 1970 until the democratic elections in South Africa in 1994 Laws and Societies in Global Contexts Eve Darian-Smith, 2013-01-31 This text promotes a more global sociolegal perspective that engages with multiple laws and societies and diverse sociolegal systems based on very different historical and cultural traditions interacting on multiple local national and global levels The approach to global legal pluralism seeks to provide a framework for envisioning new global governance regimes that move beyond state based solutions to deal with trenchant transnational challenges Dams, Displacement, and the Delusion of Development Allen F. Isaacman, Barbara S. Isaacman, 2013-04-10 Cahora Bassa Dam on the Zambezi River built in the early 1970s during the final years of Portuguese rule was the last major infrastructure project constructed in Africa during the turbulent era of decolonization Engineers and hydrologists praised the dam for its technical complexity and the skills required to construct what was then the world's fifth largest mega dam Portuguese colonial officials cited benefits they expected from the dam from expansion of irrigated farming and European settlement to improved transportation throughout the Zambezi River Valley to reduced flooding in this area of unpredictable rainfall The project however actually resulted in cascading layers of human displacement violence and environmental destruction Its electricity benefited few Mozambicans even after the former guerrillas of FRELIMO Frente de Libertação de Moçambique came to power instead it fed industrialization in apartheid South Africa Richard Roberts This in depth study of the region examines the dominant developmentalist narrative that has surrounded the dam chronicles the continual violence that has accompanied its existence and gives voice to previously unheard narratives of forced labor displacement and historical and contemporary life in the dam s shadow
