Reconciliation And Conflict Church Controversy Over Social Involvement:

Reconciliation and Conflict Dieter T. Hessel, 1969 The Great Reversal David Moberg, 2007-01-01 Why did the evangelical church which had been the leader in social welfare and reform prior to the twentieth century discontinue its involvement in social concerns Is a commitment to personal evangelism incompatible with an interest in social issues In this provocative book Dr Moberg analyzes the Great Reversal of the early twentieth century and discusses its causes and effects all in the context of seeing the Bible as the guide to faith and conduct The importance of recognizing and coping with social evil as well as personal sin is emphasized and the author concludes with a summary of developments that are helping to reverse the Great Reversal and restore evangelical Christianity to its rightful place of leadership Interreligious Curriculum for Peace Education in Nigeria Isaiah Ekundayo Dada, 2019-04-18 Nigeria a country under a military regime for several years transitioned to a civilian regime in May 1999 Since this change violent conflicts between Christians and Muslims have continued to erupt They constitute one of the gravest dangers facing Nigeria a country with a population of 189 million people What have Nigerian religious leaders done about this situation especially in educational circles Have they received formal educational training to understand the causes of this violence and especially how to provide alternatives for more peaceful relations within Nigeria Does the current educational system in Nigeria provide the main ingredients for the promotion of a culture of peace The absence and neglect of interreligious peace education as part of a peace education core program and the lack of an interreligious curriculum for peace education in the training of religious leaders are the two problems contributing towards the lack of effectiveness of religious leaders in promoting less violent and more peaceful living The solution to the problem is proposed in this book entitled Interreligious Curriculum for Peace Education in Nigeria The book develops a one year curriculum building on Yoruba Islamic Christian conceptions of peace and teaches how to create safe caring spiritual peaceful and successful interfaith relationships between all Nigerian religious communities In the long term the book helps to educate religious leaders to contribute in themselves and with the help of their respective religious communities to reducing the growing religious violence in Nigeria Embattled Ecumenism Jill Gill, 2011-09-01 The Vietnam War and its polarizing era challenged splintered and changed The National Council of the Churches of Christ in the U S A NCC which was motivated by its ecumenical Christian vision to oppose that war and unify people The NCC s efforts on the war exposed its strengths and imploded its weaknesses in ways instructive for religious institutions that bring their faith into politics Embattled Ecumenism explores the ecumenical vision anti Vietnam War efforts and legacy of the NCC Gill s monumental study serves as a window into the mainline Protestant manner of engaging political issues at a unique time of national crisis and religious transformation In vibrant prose Gill illuminates an ecumenical institution vision and movement that has been largely misrepresented by the religious right dismissed by the secular left misunderstood by laity and ignored by scholars outside of ecumenical circles At a time when the majority of scholarly work is committed to looking at the religious right Gill's groundbreaking study of the Protestant Left is a welcome addition. Embattled Ecumenism will appeal to scholars of U.S. religion, politics and culture as well as historians of evangelicalism and general readers interested in U.S. history and religion.

Social Ministry Dieter T. Hessel, 1992-01-01 This work challenges pastors, seminarians and active members of the laity to rethink the social character of their ministry. Dieter Hessel calls on parish communities to meet human need with good Samaritan love while acting for justice with prophetic boldness. In this updated edition Hessel assesses major new developments that have occurred in both church and society since the first publication of Social Ministry. He gives special attention to the uncertainty that churches face today in regard to their public role.

Get Out There and Do Something about Injustice Maggie Kuhn, 1972 Healing Wounds of Ethnic Conflicts Through Feet-Washing Endy (Endalkachew) Kidanewold, 2022-09-13 This book is about reconciliation. It is about winning forgiveness and healing for self and others at a price. That price in this book is foot washing. The research based on descriptions and stories told shed light on the depth of foot washing as a powerful alternative tool that can break the cycle of conflict and facilitate dialogue. Stories tell that foot washing generated emotions of tears and joy, eliciting trust, forgiveness, reconciliation and restoration of lost relationships in the process of mediation and conflict resolution. Endy and his wife are small business owners in travel and commercial cleaning trades since 1995. Endy is currently a certified mediator in Superior Court Civil Actions in the state of North Carolina. Love, let live and live partly a World War II saying.

Essays in Public Theology Dirkie Smit, 2007-04-01 What is the role of the church in society? What role did the church play in South Africa during apartheid in the struggle against apartheid and during the period of transformation? The essays collected and published in this volume deal with questions such as these. They are all occasional pieces. They were written over two decades and reflect the times in which they originated, always intended for specific audiences, always addressing issues of the particular moment.

Mediation in Political Conflicts Jacques Faget, 2011-04-28 This book provides a vivid reader on experiences of mediation throughout history and in many different regional, cultural and legal contexts. For experts in the field of mediation and legal anthropology it provides a series of fascinating case studies not previously reported on. For those not familiar with the field it provides a window on an alternative possibility for peacemaking in political conflicts. The book is held together by the editor's introduction which defines political mediation, the research methodologies employed, the relationship of mediation to participatory democracy and the growth of mediation in the past twenty years. The chapters which follow provide the anatomy of successful and unsuccessful mediations in contexts as widely diverse as the 30 Years War 1618-1648 which was ended following the intercession of the future Pope Alexander VII. Three further chapters examine the role of the Catholic Church in other mediations in the Basque conflict in Burundi and in Chiapas while a further group of chapters looks at conflicts in Ethiopia, Northern Ireland, Central America and Congo.

From Cape to Congo Mwesiga Laurent Baregu, Chris Landsberg, 2003 From the ongoing war in Angola to sporadic instability in Zimbabwe and Lesotho to the conflict in Congo to issues of land reform and the ravages of AIDS southern Africa faces varied and complex threats to its peace and security The authors of From Cape to Congo assess the region's major security challenges as well as the roles of local regional and external actors in managing them Their theoretically informed but practical approach encompasses the political economic and military arenas

Christian-Muslim Relations in Syria Andrew W. H. Ashdown, 2020-11-25 Offering an authoritative study of the plural religious landscape in modern Syria and of the diverse Christian and Muslim communities that have cohabited the country for centuries this volume considers a wide range of cultural religious and political issues that have impacted the interreligious dynamic putting them in their local and wider context Combining fieldwork undertaken within government held areas during the Syrian conflict with critical historical and Christian theological reflection this research makes a significant contribution to understanding Syria's diverse religious landscape and the multi layered expressions of Christian Muslim relations It discusses the concept of sectarianism and how communal dynamics are crucial to understanding Syrian society The complex wider issues that underlie the relationship are examined including the roles of culture and religious leadership and it questions whether the analytical concept of sectarianism is adequate to describe the complex communal frameworks in the Middle Eastern context Finally the study examines the contributions of contemporary Eastern Christian leaders to interreligious discourse concluding that the theology and spirituality of Eastern Christianity inhabiting the same cultural environment as Islam is uniquely placed to play a major role in interreligious dialogue and in peace making The book offers an original contribution to knowledge and understanding of the changing Christian Muslim dynamic in Syria and the region It should be a key resource to students scholars and readers interested in religion current affairs and the Middle East

Buddhist and Protestant Korean Immigrants Okyun Kwon, 2003 Kwon explores how Korea's two major religious groups Buddhists and Protestants have emigrated and how their religious beliefs affect their adjustments after immigration Kwon bases his study on a survey of 114 Korean congregations participatory observation of a Buddhist temple and a Protestant church and in depth interviews with 109 devout immigrants He finds that non religious variables urban background educational level and social class have a greater effect on adjustment to the host society than religion does Religious congregations promote members social capital for adjustment but at the same religious participation serves as a barrier to assimilation

Civil Society and Transitional

Justice in Asia and the Pacific Claire Cronin, Lia Kent, JoAnne Wallis, 2019-01-01 Over the last two decades civil society has helped catalyse responses to the legacies of violent conflicts and oppressive political regimes in Asia and the Pacific Civil society has advocated for the establishment of criminal trials and truth commissions monitored their operations and pushed for take up of their recommendations It has also initiated community based transitional justice responses Yet there has been little in depth examination of the breadth and diversity of these roles This book addresses this gap by analysing the heterogeneity of civil society transitional justice activity in Asia and the Pacific Based upon empirically grounded case studies of Timor Leste Indonesia Cambodia Myanmar Bougainville Solomon Islands and Fiji this book illustrates that civil society actors can have different and sometimes competing priorities resources and approaches to transitional justice Their work is also underpinned by diverse understandings of justice By reflecting on the richness of this activity this book advances contemporary debates about transitional justice and civil society It will also be a valuable resource for scholars and practitioners working on Asia and the Pacific
