The Reconstruction of the Church--on what Pattern? Eli Stanley Jones,1970      The Reconstruction of the Church, on what Pattern? E. Stanley Jones,1970      Patterns of Peacemaking A. Briggs,E. Meyer,David Thomson,2013-10-08 This is Volume XIII of eighteen in a series on Political Sociology Originally published in 1945 this books makes a systematic survey and analysis as objective as possible of the tendencies most likely to govern peace making The authors intended to avoid making any specific recommendations of their own as to how the labours of peace making should be undertaken and to confine themselves to a study of how they were likely to be undertaken in the light of past experience contemporary proposals and the present alignment of political powers in the world In the process of study discussion and writing all three authors arrived at certain more definite conclusions At the same time the course of events and the increasingly clear trend of official policies seemed to justify more positive assertions and more constructive suggestions than had at first been thought possible The book therefore takes its present hybrid form of systematic analysis carried forward to certain statements and even recommendations      Patterns of Re-use Nicholas Doggett,2002 Doggett s dissertation on the re use and adaptation of monastic buildings in Hertfordshire is based on a systematic analysis of each building that survived until the Dissolution and an examination of contemporary and antiquarian records      Computer Analysis of Images and Patterns George Azzopardi,Nicolai Petkov,2015-08-25 The two volume set LNCS 9256 and 9257 constitutes the refereed proceedings of the 16th International Conference on Computer Analysis of Images and Patterns CAIP 2015 held in Valletta Malta in September 2015 The 138 papers presented were carefully reviewed and selected from numerous submissions CAIP 2015 is the sixteenth in the CAIP series of biennial international conferences devoted to all aspects of computer vision image analysis and processing pattern recognition and related fields      American Book Publishing Record Cumulative, 1950-1977: Title index R.R. Bowker Company. Department of Bibliography,1978      Wooden Church Architecture of the Russian North Evgeny Khodakovsky,2015-08-11 The book presents a broad panoramic overview of church architecture in the Russian North between the fourteenth and nineteenth centuries While it is inevitably overshadowed by the imperial splendour of the country s capital cities this unique phenomenon is regarded as the most distinctive national expression of traditional Russian artistic culture and at the same time as a significant part of humanity s worldwide architectural heritage The chief intention of the book is to present the regionally specific features of the wooden churches of the Russian North which vary from area to area for local natural or historical reasons This approach touches upon the very important questions of the typology and classification of the multiplicity of architectural forms The regional view entails giving clear definitions of the ambiguous terms architectural school and tradition explaining the origins and shaping impulses for the different regional clusters of objects Structurally the book presents a history of the development of wooden church architecture in the Russian North and then follows the key points of the mediaeval Russian expansion along the waterways from Novgorod into the North he Svir

River Lake Onego the town of Kargopol and the River Onega the White Sea the Rivers Dvina Pinega and Mezen those areas that still retain the most splendid pieces of Russian regional wooden church architecture The study is based on field research and provides an up to date multi faceted view of Russian wooden architecture The Purpose, Pattern, and Character of Worship L. Edward Phillips, 2020-10-06 Within the broad range of Christianity we find diverse understandings of what makes for good worship The Purpose Pattern and Character of Worship develops a typology of Christian worship to provide a method of assessing the decisions of congregations and leaders in forming and changing the orders of their worship Among contemporary western Protestants we identify at least six discrete characteristics of worship the Revival the Sunday School the Aesthetic Revival the Pentecostal holiness movement the Prayer Meeting the twentieth century Catholic Liturgical Renewal These patterns define contemporary expression as Seeker Worship Creative Worship Traditional Worship Praise Worship House Church Worship Word and Table Worship Absent an overall authority for the structure of worship such as the Episcopal Book of Common Prayer many Protestant congregations have developed a conflation of patterns which often creates incoherent worship This book helps leaders define the purpose character and pattern of their community s worship

War-time Agencies of the Churches General War-Time Commission of the Churches, 1919 No man is alien J. Robert Nelson, 2023-08-28 A Listening Church Elochukwu Eugene Uzukwu, 2006-12-05 AIDS Famine Ethnic strife Refugees Poverty Debt Environmental degradation These form the wounded face of Africa today the reality confronting the church of Africa To heal Africa Spiritan Father Elochukwu Uzukwu argues that the church in Africa must become a credible and effective agent of change by making full use of African resources natural and sociohistorical including traditional patterns of social organization In order to renew itself the church must remember that it does not exist for itself but for the people to bear witness in Africa to the risen Lord Focusing on the Catholic Church in Africa today A Listening Church proposes a fresh approach to ecclesiology Following closely on the African Synod of Bishops Uzukwu proposes the initiation of serious theological discussion on the structure of the Church in Africa that came out of that historic occasion Simply speaking the African churches must listen to their people and the Church in Rome must listen to the churches in Africa The Enclosed Garden Jean E. Friedman, 2017-10-06 The southern women s reform movement emerged late in the nineteenth century several decades behind the formation of the northern feminist movement The Enclosed Garden explains this delay by examining the subtle and complex roots of women s identity to disclose the structures that defined and limited female autonomy in the South Jean Friedman demonstrates how the evangelical communities a church directed kin dominated society linked plantation farm and town in the predominantly rural South Family networks and the rural church were the principle influences on social relationships defining sexual domestic marital and work roles Friedman argues that the church and family more than the institution of slavery inhibited the formation of an antebellum feminist movement The Civil War had little effect on the role of southern women because the family system regrouped and returned to the traditional social structure Only with the onset of modernization in the late nineteenth century did conditions allow for the beginnings of feminist reform and it began as an urban movement that did not challenge the family system Friedman arrives at a new understanding of the evolution of Victorian southern women s identity by comparing the experiences of black women and white women as revealed in church records personal letters and slave narratives Through a unique use of dream analysis Friedman also shows that the dreams women described in their diaries reveal their struggle to resolve internal conflicts about their families and the church community This original study provides a new perspective on nineteenth century southern social structure its consequences for women s identity and role and the ways in which the rural evangelical kinship system resisted change     Patterns of Piety Christine Peters,2003-05-15 This book offers a new interpretation of the transition from Catholicism to Protestantism in the English Reformation and explores its implications for an understanding of women and gender It argues that late medieval Christocentric piety shaped the nature of the Reformation and reassesses assumptions that the loss of the Virgin Mary and the saints was detrimental to women In defining the representative frail Christian as a woman devoted to Christ the Reformation could not be an alien environment for women while the Christocentric tradition encouraged the questioning of gender stereotypes     Evangelicalism and the Emerging Church Cory E. Labanow,2016-04-22 With the Christian church in the west in decline some churches are undergoing difficult transitions as they seek to become relevant to both themselves and their surrounding cultures Evangelicalism and the Emerging Church details an ethnographic study of a Vineyard congregation making sense of their Vineyard roots and their growing relationship with the self proclaimed emerging church network Through a rich account of congregational life and tensions universal issues are raised such as relating to religious parentage creating safe places for spirituality Christian growth and maturity communication with contemporary culture and the challenges of identity reconstruction This book is the first to conduct an academic study of a Vineyard congregation in the United Kingdom     Corporate Decision-Making in the Church of the New Testament Jeff Brown,2014-08-28 Debate about church order has gone on for centuries within Christianity and an end is nowhere in sight Perhaps that is good since the debate shows the weaknesses of many ideas that need correction Corporate Decision Making in the Church of the New Testament examines church order from a careful exegetical perspective with particular attention to the social world of the New Testament While most works about church government address structure and qualities of leadership Jeff Brown deals with the interaction of the people of the church both with their leaders and with one another in setting policy In brief though all believers in the young church of the New Testament revered Christ and his Word as authoritative not all church decisions were from the top down from earthly leaders On the contrary many were from the bottom up This should come as no surprise to those familiar with Jesus admonition in the Gospels You have one teacher and you are all brothers     Dictionary of the Apostolic Church James Hastings,John Alexander Selbie,John Chisholm Lambert,1915     The Psychoanalytic Study of Society, V. 14 L. Bryce Boyer,Simon A.

Little,2000 Further it examines the attitudes of ordinary elders and laypersons showing that they closely followed current events and demonstrating that AME leadership also was exercised from the bottom up A century ago the AME Church recognized that prejudice at home was also a reflection of imperialism abroad By focusing on the theme of liberty Little s study offers new insights into that era and shows how African Americans developed a stand on universal human rights and self determination BOOK JACKET Crusade Or Conspiracy? Catholics and the Anti-Communist Struggle in Australia Bruce Duncan,2001 Bitterness over the 1950s split between Catholics and anti Communists has never gone away The importance of this book in defining Labor politics for the last 50 years is crucial and all those interested in either Labor history or history of organised religion in Australia will find it useful
