Reconstruction Of Warriors:

The Reconstruction of Warriors E. R. Mayhew, 2004 It has been described as the most exclusive Club in the world but the entrance fee is something most men would not care to pay and the conditions of membership are arduous in the extreme Sir Archibald McIndoe

Beyond Trauma: Hope and Healing for Warriors Dean Bonura, 2016-03-03 It is estimated that well over 250 000 military veterans from Iraq and Afghanistan are suffering today from PTSD and even more from post traumatic stress or PTS Clinical interventions alone do not adequately address all the issues associated with PTSD There is also a profound spiritual dimension to trauma and it is frequently manifested in post trauma symptoms such as guilt grief and shame and in various forms of loss including loss of meaning loss of faith and loss of peace Pastors chaplains and Christian counselors have a legitimate healing role alongside clinicians in addressing the spiritual aspects of trauma through spiritual interventions that are based on Scripture and leverage new ways of viewing trauma and assumptions about its meaning

Beyond Trauma Hope Healing for Warriors equips pastors chaplains and other pastoral caregivers with the knowledge and resources to not only understand the spiritual effects of trauma but to make appropriate interventions that will lead veterans in their churches and communities to healing and growth

Ancient Germanic Warriors Michael P. Speidel, 2004-08-02 Presenting a range of evidence for these diverse styles from Roman art to early medieval bracteate amulets and from classical texts to Beowulf the Edda and Icelandic sagas Professor Speidel here details seventeen different Germanic warriors styles including berserks wolf warriors club wielders long hairs ghost warriors and horse stabbers and how they indicate an unbroken continuity of customs beliefs and battle field tactics Ancient Germanic warriors played a decisive role in historical events from 200 BC when Germanic culture first became identifiable to AD 1000 when Christianity swept through the Nordic countries Arising from beliefs and states of mind a variety of warrior styles manifested themselves in differences of dress weaponry and fighting technique Fully illustrated with over fifty photographs this vivid and fascinating survey adds a colourful new dimension to our understanding of the history of Europe

The Visual Poetics of Power Athanasios Christou Papalexandrou,2005-01-01 This book is a focused study on the Greek tripod cauldron the most revered religious symbol in Greek culture and its multiple dimensions At the core of its analysis is the visual apparatus of the early bronze tripods which as early as the 8th century take the form of spear brandishing warriors and later in the 7th century as handle holding youths Traditional interpretations of these bronze images have neglected their original function on top of tripods This study examines for the first time the iconography of these attachments in light of two considerations first the function of the tripod as symbol of authoritative discourse and political power in Early Greek culture and second the communicative role of images in the preliterate contexts of Early Greek sanctuaries the specification of which informs the analysis in the last three chapters The Visual Poetics of Power Warriors Youths and Tripods in Early Greece has far reaching implications for contemporary scholarship of early Greek culture the performative contexts of epic poetry the social function of early Greek works of art and the communicative function of figurative art in preliterate contexts

Between Jesus and the Market Linda Kintz,1997-07-23 Between Jesus and the Market looks at the appeal of the Christian right wing movement in contemporary American politics and culture In her discussions of books and videotapes that are widely distributed by the Christian right but little known by mainstream Americans Linda Kintz makes explicit the crucial need to understand the psychological makeup of born again Christians as well as the sociopolitical dynamics involved in their cause She focuses on the role of religious women in right wing Christianity and asks for example why so many women are attracted to what is often seen as an antiwoman philosophy The result a telling analysis of the complexity and appeal of the emotions that matter to many Americans highlights how these emotions now determine public policy in ways that are increasingly dangerous for those outside familiarity s circle With texts from such organizations as the Christian Coalition the Heritage Foundation and Concerned Women for America and writings by Elizabeth Dole Newt Gingrich Pat Robertson and Rush Limbaugh Kintz traces the usefulness of this activism for the secular claim that conservative political economy is in fact simply an expression of the deepest and most admirable elements of human nature itself The discussion of Limbaugh shows how he draws on the skepticism of contemporary culture to create a sense of absolute truth within his own media performance its truth guaranteed by the market Kintz also describes how conservative interpretations of the Holy Scriptures the U S Constitution and the Declaration of Independence have been used to challenge causes such as feminism women s reproductive rights and gay and lesbian rights In addition to critiquing the intellectual and political left for underestimating the power of right wing grassroots organizing corporate interests and postmodern media sophistication Between Jesus and the Market discusses the proliferation of militia groups Christian entrepreneurship and the explosive growth and selling of the Promise Keepers

Twin Tollans Cynthia Kristan-Graham, 2007. This volume had its beginnings in the two-day colloquium Rethinking Chichén Itzá and Tula that was held at Dumbarton Oaks. The selected essays revisit long-standing questions regarding the nature of the relationship between Chichén Itzá and Tula. Rather than approaching these questions through the notions of migrations and conquests, these essays place the cities in the context of the emerging social, political, and economic relationships that took shape during the transition from the Epiclassic period in Central Mexico, the Terminal Classic period in the Maya region, and the succeeding Early Postclassic period.

Martial Culture and Historical Martial Arts in Europe and Asia Hing Chao, Daniel Jaquet, Loretta Kim, 2022-11-11. This open access book is the first publication to provide a comparative framework for the study of martial culture and historical martial arts in Europe and Asia, in particular in Italy and China. Due to the interdisciplinary nature of martial studies, contributors to this volume include historians, archaeologists, art historians, scholars of fencing literature, metallurgists, as well as contemporary master swordsmiths and masters of arms in historical martial arts. Assembling researchers from these diverse fields, this book offers a multi-perspectival and dynamic view of martial culture across time and space. The cross-cultural and interdisciplinary significance of this book cannot be overemphasized. Whereas a number of contributors are internationally recognized and indeed leading authorities in their respective fields, for example, Jeffrey Shaw has been a world-leading new media artist and scholar since the 1970s, while Ma Mingda is a well-known historian and the contemporary founder of Chinese martial studies, and while there are significant overlaps in their research interests, this book brings their research within a single volume for the first time. Equally significant, the book is structured in such a way to reflect the various core aspects of martial studies, particularly in relation to the study of historic sword culture, including history, culture, philosophy, literature, and knowledge transmission, material culture, as well as the technical aspects of historical fencing. As one of the first titles on martial studies, this book becomes a reference not only for scholars taking an interest in this subject but also for historians, scholars with interest in Chinese and/or Italian history, particularly of the Medieval or early modern periods, the history of international relations in Asia, Far East anthropologists, scholars of martial arts studies, and researchers in sword making and/or historic metallurgy.

Hellenistic Sculpture Brunilde Sismondo Ridgway, 1990. This is the final volume in Brunilde Sismondo Ridgway's series of books covering the entire range of Greek sculpture from its inception to its virtual end as it merged into the production of the Roman Imperial world. Volume III discusses sculptural works, both architectural and free-standing, from approximately 100 B.C. to the Battle of Actium, 31 B.C., which removed from power the last Hellenistic ruler. Although some monuments may belong to the years just before or just after this timespan, Ridgway's aim is to concentrate on works plausibly dated to the first century B C even those with highly controversial chronologies Famous sculptures the Laocoon the epic groups from the Sperlonga cave the Belvedere Torso the bronze Boxer in the Terme Museum and many others are discussed together with less well known pieces Ridgway gives special emphasis to the finds from two shipwrecks the Mahdia and the Antikythera wrecks that provide a reasonable terminus ante quem and argues that many of the stylistic trends and decorative objects usually considered typically Roman instead have their roots in the Greek world This last Hellenistic phase is perhaps the most interesting of the three because it documents to a great extent the transformation of the products of one culture into those of another with different interests and priorities Far from being an unimaginative inferior output driven by commercial considerations the statuary of the first century B C is vibrant and inventive drawing from many sources in a stylistic eclecticism Colburn's United Service Magazine and Naval and Military Journal ,1861
