Recreation Integration Peggy Hutchison, 1979 Recreation Integration [braille] : Issues and Alternatives in Leisure Services and Community Involvement Peggy Hutchison, John Lord, 197? Recreation Integration Peggy Hutchison, John Lord, 1979 Leisure Education, Community Development, and Populations with Special Needs Atara Sivan, Hillel Ruskin, 2000-01-01 The results are presented of a Commission of the World Leisure and Recreation Association WLRA to examine the role of leisure and education for leisure activities among people with special needs living in the community requiring social or health services outside hospital A conceptual and practical framework for understanding the process of leisure education is provided and its role for community development and populations with special needs discussed A total of 17 chapters serve as a foundation for developing models and programmes for leisure education within community settings and will be of interest to those working and researching in the area of education leisure studies and community development Community Recreation and Persons with Disabilities Stuart J. Schleien, M. Tipton Ray, 1988 Delivery of Community Leisure Services James Frederick Murphy, Dennis R. Howard, 1977 Common-unity in the Community University of Oregon. Center of Leisure Studies, 1975 Recreation and Leisure Service James Frederick Murphy, 1975 Inclusive and Special Recreation Ralph W. Smith, 1996 Take a closer look at recreation issues for persons with disabilities in the book By focusing on inclusive recreation the authors offer concrete suggestions for integrating people with and without disabilities into the same recreational activities An early introduction to related legislation including the Americans with Disabilities Act makes legal issues clear and helps you understand the implications these laws will have for your career whether or not you ll be working in the recreation industry The book looks beyond the therapeutic nature of recreation by demonstrating that persons with disabilities should be considered leisure service consumers Back cover This textbook was written primarily for undergraduate students especially those in their first two years of study As such it is appropriate for use in community or junior college courses as well as within four year baccalaureate programs Pref Inclusive Leisure Services John Dattilo, 2002 CD ROM contains Interactive learning activities to accompany chapters in text Community Leisure and Recreation Planning Ken Marriott, John Tower, Katie McDonald, 2020-11-01 Community Leisure and Recreation Planning offers an up to date evidence based approach to planning community leisure and recreation facilities programs and services It introduces readers to key theory and best practice in the planning of effective leisure and recreation projects The book defines planning leisure recreation and other key concepts and explains why a thorough planning process is essential to achieving effective outcomes It presents a comprehensive integrative four phase model for undertaking leisure and recreation planning including pre planning planning research preparing a plan and implementing monitoring and evaluating the outputs and outcomes of a plan It provides a conceptual rationale for each component of the planning process a detailed explanation of the tools and techniques that can be used and extensive examples and international case study materials to demonstrate their use The principles and techniques explained in the book are applicable at a range of community levels from small individual sites to regions states and even countries This is an essential course text for all leisure and recreation courses and invaluable reading for academics practitioners stakeholders and students working in leisure and recreation planning events culture and sport Leisure B. Perrin,1989

The purpose of this study was to document the need and context for leisure for persons with disabilities and to present a plan for action The report presents a proposed vision for the future of leisure for persons with disabilities as well as what is needed in order to turn this vision into a reality It identifies primary roles and responsibilities regarding leisure services for persons with disabilities for the Ministry of Tourism and Recreation and its community clients and for the Ministry of Community and Social Services MCSS It also identifies some initial steps for MCSS to take in order to move toward the recommended vision Recreation and Leisure Programming Christopher R. Edginton,Rodney B. Dieser,Samuel V. Lankford,Christopher L. Kowalski,2018-03-07 In the 21st century recreation and leisure programmers will face many social cultural economic and environmental changes that affect the recreation and leisure needs interests and attitudes of the people they serve These changes require recreation and leisure programmers who are highly skilled knowledgeable and competent in planning organizing implementing and evaluating recreation and leisure programs and services with the goal of creating high quality high impact leisure experiences Recreation and Leisure Programming A 21st Century Perspective provides key insights into the strategies practices procedures and methods for recreation and leisure programmers to employ to fulfill their responsibility successfully Leisure Services ,1970 Programming for Parks, Recreation, and Leisure Services Donald G. DeGraaf,Debra Jean Jordan,Kathy H. DeGraaf,1999 Meeting the needs of customers through effective recreation programs is imperative for leisure service organizations to survive and prosper in the twenty first century The authors of this book break new ground for recreation programming by interpreting it within the servant leadership approach Servant leadership is based on the premise that all recreation providers serve their customers through programs The servant leadership approach simultaneously enhances the personal growth of workers and improves the quality and caring of our many institutions through a combination of teamwork and community personal involvement in decision making and ethical and caring behavior Whether a leisure services professional works for a municipal recreation department providing recreational sports leagues for adults or for a nonprofit organization providing special events or as a commercial tour operator offering wilderness backpacking trips Programming for Parks Recreation and Leisure Services A Servant Leadership Approach provides both cutting edge concepts and practical knowledge for successful programming Leisure Programming Christopher R. Edginton,2004 This comprehensive text addresses all three levels of leisure programming direct service delivery program planning and program management It focuses on issues related to customer service and benefits such as providing leisure experiences assessing customer needs evaluating program impact promoting positive customer and leader interactions analyzing and implementing policies and supervising staff Kraus' Recreation and Leisure in Modern Society Daniel D. McLean, Amy R. Hurd, Nancy Brattain Rogers, 2005 Dr Jan Louise Jones Southern Connecticut State University Book Jacket Community Coordination for Recreation Services Pennsylvania. Bureau of Recreation and Conservation, 1981 Kraus' Recreation and Leisure in Modern Society Daniel McLean, Amy Hurd, 2011-02-09 Focusing on ten different types of organizations ranging from nonprofit community organizations and armed forces recreation to sports management and travel and tourism sponsors this classic text is an invaluable resource for students considering a career in the recreation and leisure industry Introduction to Recreation Services for People with Disabilities, 4th Ed Charles C. Bullock, Michael J. Mahon, 2017-03 Introduction to Recreation Services for People With Disabilities continues to reflect a broad based explanation of the role of practitioners in the interrelated fields of therapeutic recreation inclusive recreation and special recreation This fourth edition represents a major revision including the most current research and thinking about the interdisciplinary fields of recreation and disability studies This book is intended to be an introductory text for all students in parks and recreation leisure studies departments Every student whether she or he intends to work in a provincial park or a state hospital a community recreation center or a community mental health center a public school or a cruise ship needs a basic level of knowledge about people with disabilities The central theme of this book is that people with disabilities are people who have the same needs and wants as anyone else and deserve the right to be at the center of their services Each person with a disability is a person first not a disability Recreation services must be centered around the person who is being served That is whether treatment oriented recreation therapy goal oriented special recreation or activity oriented inclusive recreation it is the person and not the professional or even the activity that must be at the center of service delivery It is our hope that you will begin to see people with disabilities as people as you learn about recreation and therapeutic recreation services If you emerge from this book or your class with this person centered knowledge then you will have learned a lot about how to provide recreation services to people with disabilities Whether or not you happen to be a person with a disability our more earnest hope is that you will emerge with a commitment to ensure that people with disabilities are treated as people who are at the center of their programs and services This means that you will become an advocate maybe even a zealot on behalf of people with disabilities You will encourage friends and colleagues to use people first and respectful language You will refrain from jokes that perpetuate stereotypes You will be part of a new breed of recreation and therapeutic recreation professionals who celebrate differences and strive to provide person centered and responsive services
