Monograph of Azaleas Ernest Henry Wilson, Alfred Rehder, 1921 Tell This Silence Patti Duncan, 2009-05 Tell This Silence by Patti Duncan explores multiple meanings of speech and silence in Asian American women's writings in order to explore relationships among race gender sexuality and national identity Duncan argues that contemporary definitions of U S feminism must be expanded to recognize the ways in which Asian American women have resisted and continue to challenge the various forms of oppression in their lives There has not yet been adequate discussion of the multiple meanings of silence and speech especially in relation to activism and social justice movements in the U S In particular the very notion of silence continues to invoke assumptions of passivity submissiveness and avoidance while speech is equated with action and empowerment However as the writers discussed in Tell This Silence suggest silence too has multiple meanings especially in contexts like the U S where speech has never been a guaranteed right for all citizens Duncan argues that writers such as Maxine Hong Kingston Mitsuye Yamada Joy Kogawa Theresa Hak Kyung Cha Nora Okja Keller and Anchee Min deploy silence as a means of resistance Juxtaposing their unofficial narratives against other histories official U S histories that have excluded them and American feminist narratives that have stereotyped them or distorted their participation they argue for recognition of their cultural participation and offer analyses of the intersections among gender race nation and sexuality Tell This Silence offers innovative ways to consider Asian American gender politics feminism and issues of immigration and language This exciting new study will be of interest to literary theorists and scholars in women s American and Asian American studies     Hortus Kewensis William Aiton,1789     Henderson's Wholesale Catalogue for Market Growers and Florists Peter Henderson & Co,1903     Memory, Subjectivity and Independent Chinese Cinema Qi Wang,2014-09-19 Memory Subjectivity and Independent Chinese Cinema provides a historically informed examination of independent moving image works made between 1990 and 2010 in China Showcasing an evolving personal mode of narrating memory documenting reality and inscribing subjectivity in over sixteen selected works that range from narrative film and documentary to experimental video and digital media even including a multimedia avant garde play this book presents a provocative portrait of the independent filmmakers as a peculiarly pained yet active group of historical subjects of the transitional post socialist era Through a connected investigation of cultural and cinematic concepts including historical consciousness personal memory narrative performance subjectivity spatiality and the body Wang weaves a critical narrative of the formation of a unique post socialist cultural consciousness that enables independent cinema and media to become a highly significant and effective conduit for historical thinking in contemporary China Covering directors such as Zhang Yimou Chen Kaige Jia Zhangke Jiang Wen Lou Ye Meng Jinghui Wang Bing Wang Guangli Duan Jinchuan Cui Zi en Shi Tou and Tang Danhong this book is essential reading for all students and scholars in Chinese film     The American Short-horn Herd Book Lewis Falley Allen,William T.
