Liverpool Biennial of Contemporary Art ,2004 Red Empty (Chicago 2003) Carl Michael von Hausswolff,2005
Light and darkness transform city buildings into surreal structures an ordinary gray concrete building in plain daylight changes at night into a mysterious monolith or under a blue tinted lens into an ethereal edifice Swedish artist Carl Michael von Hausswolff harnessed these transformative powers of light to create a powerful spectacle that presents Chicago architecture from a wholly original perspective in this collection of striking photographs Red Empty Chicago 2003 is the latest in a series of urban centered works spanning from Bangkok to Santa Fe in which von Hausswolff set 1000 watt red spotlights against the architecture of run down abandoned buildings to generate spectral real world monochromes His images explore intermediate realms through these otherworldly images worlds traced by psychic residue that rewrite the history of particular sites Red Empty is a compelling visual work that transforms Chicago architecture into sculptures of light shadow and stone *Art ... Seeing Red Suzanne Hindmarch, Michael Orsini, Marilou Gagnon, 2018-06-01 What does it mean to think of HIV/AIDS policy in a critical manner Seeing Red offers the first critical analysis of HIV/AIDS policy in Canada Featuring the diverse experiences of people living with HIV this collection highlights various perspectives from academics activists and community workers who look ahead to the new and complex challenges associated with HIV/AIDS and Canadian society In addition to representing a diversity of voices and perspectives Seeing Red reflects on historical responses to HIV/AIDS in Canada Among the specific issues addressed are the over representation of Indigenous peoples among those living with HIV the criminalization of HIV and barriers to health and support services particularly as experienced by vulnerable and marginalized populations The editors and contributors seek to show that Canada has been neither uniquely compassionate nor proactive when it comes to supporting those living with HIV/AIDS Instead this remains a critical area of public policy one fraught with challenges as well as possibilities Community Self-Determination John J. Laukaitis, 2015-09-11 After World War II American Indians began relocating to urban areas in large numbers in search of employment Partly influenced by the Bureau of Indian Affairs this migration from rural reservations to metropolitan centers presented both challenges and opportunities This history examines the educational programs American Indians developed in Chicago and gives particular attention to how the American Indian community chose its own distinct path within and outside of the larger American Indian self determination movement In what John J Laukaitis terms community self determination American Indians in Chicago demonstrated considerable agency as they developed their own programs and worked within already existent institutions The community based initiatives included youth programs at the American Indian Center and St Augustine s Center for American Indians the Native American Committee s Adult Learning Center Little Big Horn High School O Wai Ya Wa Elementary School Native American Educational Services College and the Institute for Native American Development at Truman College Community Self Determination presents the first major examination of these initiatives and programs and provides an understanding of how education functioned as a form of activism for Chicago s American Indian community Screening the Red Army Faction Christina Gerhardt,2018-07-12 Screening the Red Army Faction Historical and Cultural Memory explores representations of the Red Army Faction RAF in print media film and art locating an analysis of these texts in the historical and political context of unfolding events In this way the book contributes both a new history and a new cultural history of post fascist era West Germany that grapples with the fledgling republic s most pivotal debates about the nature of democracy and authority about violence its motivations and regulation and about its cultural afterlife Looking back at the history of representations of the RAF in various media this book considers how our understanding of the Cold War era of the long sixties and of the RAF is created and re created through cultural texts Gould's St. Louis Red-blue Book ,1921

Red and Blue Nation? Pietro S. Nivola,David W. Brady,2008-04-01 A Brookings Institution Press and the Hoover Institution publication America s polarized politics are largely disconnected from mainstream public preferences This disconnect poses fundamental dangers for the representativeness and accountability of government as well as the already withering public trust in it As the 2008 presidential race kicks into gear the political climate certainly will not become less polarized With important issues to address including immigration policy health care and the funding of the Iraq war it is critical that essential policies not be hostage to partisan political battles Building upon the findings of the first volume of Red and Blue Nation Brookings 2006 which explored the extent of political polarization and its potential causes this new volume delves into the consequences of the gulf between red states and blue states The authors examine the impact of these political divisions on voter behavior Congressional law making judicial selection and foreign policy formation They shed light on hotly debated institutional reform proposals including changes to the electoral system and the congressional rules of engagement and ultimately present research supported policies and reforms for alleviating the underlying causes of political polarization While most discussion of polarization takes place in separate spheres of journalism and academia Red and Blue Nation brings together a unique set of voices with a wide variety of perspectives to enrich our understanding of the issue Written in a broad accessible style it is a resource for anyone interested in the future of electoral politics in America Contributors include Marc
