Tworek, 2023-08-29 The Interwar World collects an international group of over 50 contributors to discuss analyze and interpret this crucial period in twentieth century history A comprehensive understanding of the interwar era has been limited by Euro American approaches and strict adherence to the temporal limits of the world wars The volume s contributors challenge the era s accepted temporal and geographic framings by privileging global processes and interactions Each contribution takes a global thematic approach integrating world regions into a shared narrative Three central questions frame the chapters First when was the interwar Viewed globally the years 1918 and 1939 are arbitrary limits and the volume explicitly engages with the artificiality of the temporal framework while closely examining the specific dynamics of the 1920s and 1930s Second where was the interwar Contributors use global history methodologies and training in varied world regions to decenter Euro American frameworks engaging directly with the usefulness of the interwar as both an era and an analytical category Third how global was the interwar Authors trace accelerating connections in areas such as public health and mass culture counterbalanced by processes of economic protectionism exclusive nationalism and limits to migration By approaching the era thematically the volume disaggregates and interrogates the meaning of the global in this era As a comprehensive guide this volume offers overviews of key themes of the interwar period for undergraduates while offering up to date historiographical insights for postgraduates and scholars interested in this pivotal period in global history

Greece and the Cold War Alexander Kazamias, 2022-08-25 After the proclamation of the Truman Doctrine in 1947 the United States became deeply involved in Greek affairs By 1952 however the pro Western government of Marshal Papagos began to support the nationalist Enosis movement in Cyprus and called for an end to British colonial rule in the island The opposition of the US Britain and Turkey to these demands brought Greece face to face with its closest allies at the United Nations in 1954 and led to the outbreak of the first major crisis within NATO since its creation Greece and the Cold War examines these developments from the novel perspective of critical international theory and exposes the unexplored connections between dependence and nationalism in Greek foreign policy Drawing on a wide range of American British and Greek archival sources it argues that nationalism and compliance with the collective interests of NATO were two irreconcilable objectives in Greek foreign policy after 1952 At the same time the book tells the story of how the post Civil War governments of Greece for a variety of political cultural and ideological reasons treated these two objectives as essentially compatible resulting in the adoption of a dualist policy This self contradictory diplomatic doctrine which the author refers to as dependent nationalism lies at the heart of Greece's post War failures both to emancipate its politics from US intervention and to peacefully end its regional dispute with Turkey over Cyprus The book deploys an interdisciplinary approach which brings together the diverse perspectives of diplomatic history foreign policy analysis and political sociology

National Power and International Geostructure Daniel Morales Ruvalcaba, Alberto Rocha Valencia, 2024-04-18 This book addresses three innovative aspects for the study of International Relations first proposes a novel theoretical methodological framework for the study of national power and based on this a quantitative analysis technique is formulated that allows us to study the evolution of state power over almost five decades Second states play a fundamental role in the international system which is why the study of their roles in the world cannot be limited to old insufficient and contradictory categorizations Having new categories of states becomes an even more urgent task in the rapidly changing international order than it is today This book proposes nine categories of powers and states that cover all the countries that currently exist Third the international geostructure of world power is proposed which represents a new theoretical notion that helps to explain how the international insertion of states and their possibilities of action are conditioned by the unequal distribution of national power and by their structural positioning in the international system This book is for all students of International Relations academics and people who want to understand national power as a fundamental factor in relations between countries
