The California Gold Rush and the Coming of the Civil War Leonard L. Richards,2008-02-12 Award winning historian Leonard L Richards gives us an authoritative and revealing portrait of an overlooked harbinger of the terrible battle that was to come When gold was discovered at Sutter s Mill in 1848 Americans of all stripes saw the potential for both wealth and power Among the more calculating were Southern slave owners By making California a slave state they could increase the value of their slaves by 50 percent at least and maybe much more They could also gain additional influence in Congress and expand Southern economic clout abetted by a new transcontinental railroad that would run through the South Yet despite their machinations California entered the union as a free state Disillusioned Southerners would agitate for even more slave territory leading to the Kansas Nebraska Act and ultimately to the Civil War itself Library Bulletin Somerville Public Library (Mass.),1910 Classified Catalogue of the Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh,1926
