Transnational Working-Class Literatures Wiktor Marzec, Magnus Nilsson, Mike Sanders, 2025-08-26 This book offers a pioneering study of the national transnational and international dimensions of working class literature It explores both the historically and geographically varied nature of the relationship between working class literatures and national canons and the importance of international and transnational exchanges in the development of working class literature Through a series of detailed case studies its sixteen essays analyse working class literatures from the early nineteenth century to the present day and cover thirteen countries across three continents this collection not only analyses the factors which lead to the incorporation or exclusion of working class literature from a given national canon but also traces the various ways in which working class literatures participate in international networks of exchange With its wide historical range extensive geographical coverage and broad definition of working class literature which includes samba poetry as well as socialist realism this collection charts new territory for the study of working class literature

The Poetry of the Americas Harris Feinsod, 2017-09-08 The Poetry of the Americas offers a lively and detailed history of relations among poets in the US and Latin America spanning three decades from the Good Neighbor diplomacy of World War II through the Cold War cultural policies of the late 1960s Connecting works by Martin Amis, Elizabeth Bishop, Paul Blackburn, Jorge Luis Borges, Julia de Burgos, Ernesto Cardenal, Jorge Carrera Andrade, Allen Ginsberg, Langston Hughes, Jos Lezama, Lima Pablo, Neruda, Charles Olson, Octavio Paz, Heberto Padilla, Wallace Stevens, Derek Walcott, William Carlos Williams and many others Feinsod reveals how poets of many nations imagined a poetry of the Americas that linked multiple cultures even as it reflected the inequities of the inter American political system This account offers a rich contextual study of the state sponsored institutions and the countercultural networks that sustained this poetry from Nelson Rockefeller's Office of the Coordinator for Inter American Affairs to the mid 1960s avant garde scene in Mexico City This innovative literary historical project enables new readings of such canonical poems as Stevens's Notes Toward a Supreme Fiction and Neruda's The Heights of Macchu Picchu but it positions these alongside lesser known poetry translations anthologies literary journals and private correspondences culled from library archives across the Americas The Poetry of the Americas thus broadens the horizons of reception and mutual influence and of formal historical and political possibility through which we encounter midcentury American poetry recasting traditional categories of US or Latin American literature within a truly hemispheric vision
