Seoul Development Institute Forum No 27 Vol 4 No 3 March 1996:

Pacific Asia? Melvin Gurtov, 2002 Emphasizing human and environmental security over traditional power politics Mel Gurtov offers a provocative reinterpretation of security in the Asia Pacific region The author questions a number of prevailing assumptions such as the China threat a U S centered balance of power and the necessity of a greater Japanese security role He argues instead for a cooperative framework for future security that focuses on people s basic needs is sensitive to Asian nationalism and gradually replaces military power with developmental priorities With its concise appraisals of the security policies of the United States China Japan the two Koreas and the ASEAN countries this work will be a valued reference for policymakers scholars and students alike Regional Organisations and Security Stephen Aris, Andreas Wenger, 2013-10-30 This book aims to examine the conceptions and practices of security adopted by Regional Organisations ROs across the globe Since the end of the Cold War there has been an increased focus on regions as a relevant realm for security with actors within regional contexts identifying a significant degree of interdependency between one another As a consequence international security has taken on a distinct regionally institutionalised character as seen by the increase in calls for greater utilisation of Chapter VIII Regional Arrangements of the UN in order to create a devolved UN led system of global security management However the idea of a system of global security management is a remote prospect because divergence seems to be as important as commonality in terms of regional security In light of the above Regional Organisations and Security analyses the primary ROs that are active in Africa Asia Eurasia the Middle East and South America The findings of individual case studies are compiled to highlight disparities and similarities in how security is seen prioritised understood practised managed and implemented across regions On this basis the authors reach conclusions about whether we live in an increasingly globalised or regionally distinct world and go on to assess the prospects for a globalised system of security management and consider how this might be developed and organised This book will be of interest to students of comparative regionalism international organisations international security and IR Index of Conference Proceedings British Library. Document Supply Centre, 2003 Bibliographic Guide to East Asian Studies 1996 G K HALL, G. K. Hall and Co. Staff, 1997-07 One Korea Tae-Hwan Kwak, Seung-Ho Joo, 2016-11-10 On the Korean peninsula there exist two sovereign states the Republic of Korea ROK or South Korea and the Democratic People s Republic of Korea DPRK or North Korea both of whom hold separate membership at the United Nations This book discusses the construction of one Korea and highlights the potential benefits of unification for the Koreans and the international community Arguing that Korean unification is intrinsically international in nature the authors outline how the process and outcome would impact upon the policies of the four major powers the U S China Russia and Japan In addition the authors highlight the possible far reaching repercussions of unification on the political and economic dynamics of Northeast Asia Making a case for the two Koreas and interested powers to plan and orchestrate their acts for sustained peace and gradual unification on the Korean peninsula this book examines the Korean question and the related issue of peace building in Northeast Asia from a global perspective It will be of interest to students and scholars researching politics and international relations

Naval Strategy in Northeast Asia Duk-Ki Kim,2012-10-12 Over the past decade Northeast Asia has been dominated by quite significant strategic change which is ongoing and brings with it many uncertainties naval capabilities in Northwest Asia are instrumental in promoting maritime security interests helping to build a stable security environment through active participation in regional naval co operation This landmark book explores the region s maritime peace and stability and examines in depth the strategic military and apolitical issues that underpin any effort to develop maritime co operation

World Resources 1998-99 World Resources Institute,1998 This is the 8th edition in a series which provides an authoritative assessment of the world s natural resource base This edition focuses on the relationship between environmental change and human health Drawing on the latest scientific data it explores how environmental conditions contribute to death and disease around the world and how that may change in the coming decades

Seeking Transformation Through Information Technology Nagy K. Hanna,Peter T. Knight,2011-07-25 The ability to harness Information Communication Technologies ICTs is increasingly at the heart of national competitiveness and sustainable development As countries seek a way out of the present period of economic contraction they are trying to weave ICT into their development strategies in the same way enterprises have learned to use ICT to transform their business models and strategies This integration offers a new path to development that is responsive to the challenges of our times In Seeking Transformation Through Information Technology Nagy Hanna and Peter Knight provide a framework for assessing the opportunities challenges and prospects for e transformation Featuring contributions from country experts the editors and authors provide in depth case studies of ICT deployment in Brazil China Canada and Sri Lanka and asses the progress of such efforts The result is an essential resource for academic researchers policy analysts policymakers and industry leaders interested in the role of ICT in national development innovation and economic growth

Corporate Power, Corruption & the Destruction of the World's Forests ,1996 Regionalism in East Asia Fu-kuo Liu,Philippe Regnier,2013-10-18 Regional cooperation and integration have emerged as key issues for East Asia following the financial crisis This book explores these issues and examines the degree to which a new paradigm is emerging It reviews the evolution of the concepts and practices of regionalism in East Asia and considers the factors which are shaping new patterns of regional co operation and integration It includes discussions of historical developments economic co operation socio political factors and defence and security It considers the role of those states including China and Japan which have distinctive approaches to international relations and assesses the role of regional international bodies such as ASEAN

The Anti-Dumping Agreement and Developing Countries Aradhna Aggarwal,2006-10-20 In the era of globalization trade policy has become a key development tool and expanding exports a major policy objective for developing countries However pressures for protectionism are threatening to reverse the gains The surge of anti dumping practices in the 1990s in many countries have triggered an intense debate on the anti dumping agreement and its implementation This volume analyses the importance of anti dumping from a developing country s perspective The author investigates the use of anti dumping in a comparative framework and reviews the genesis and evolution of the Agreement and its legal provisions She further discusses the economic and non economic justifications of anti dumping use and empirically analyses the macro economic factors motivating countries to use anti dumping Finally she examines the wide ranging proposals to reform the WTO anti dumping code The analysis brings out a bias against developing countries and stresses the need for fundamental reform of current anti dumping rules The author also reflects on plausible approaches to refine existing provisions and explores the possibility of reform by including a Public Interest Test She suggests updating the special and differential treatment provisions to remedy existing imbalances Design & Applied Arts Index ,1998 China's Multilateral

Co-operation in Asia and the Pacific Chien-peng Chung,2010-06-24 Explores the meaning scope and repercussion in the drive that a rising China has for institutionalizing multilateral cooperative processes in the Asia Pacific region the extent to which its actions are motivated by concerns of politics economics or security and the obstacles it faces for so doing U.S. Geological Survey Circular ,1984 International Strategic Mineral Issues Summary Report--tungsten Antony B. T. Werner,W. D. Sinclair,Earle B. Amey,1998 Northeast Asian Regionalism Christopher M. Dent,David W. F.
