Naval Ship Models of World War II in 1/1250 and 1/1200 Scales Robert K. Liu, 2021-02-28 A guide for collectors and modelers packed with photos technical information practical advice and history The origins of 1 1250 and 1 1200 scale models can be traced back to the first years of the twentieth century and their use as identification aids by the military during the First World War When peace came the manufacturers aimed their increasingly sophisticated products at collectors and ever since then acquiring enhancing modifying or scratch building miniature ship models has been an avidly pursued hobby around the world This new book focuses on models of the ships of the Second World War and the author addresses all the practical issues that might confront collectors who like to enhance convert and modify their models or even scratch build models of ships not commercially available The book covers both Allied and Axis warships naval airplanes merchant conversions and even an Italian armed schooner and provides historic and technical information on the ships represented as well as practical advice on modeling them including twenty five chapters covering everything from initial production techniques such as spin casting silicon mold casting resin casting die casting plastic mold injection and 3D printing through techniques for enhancing and modifying models to eventually researching and scratch building an uncommon ship or type The focus is always on particular vessels and the vast array covered builds into a fascinating panorama of the vessels that fought across the world's oceans in that era The combination of intriguing background and historical information combined with detailed practical information and more than 300 stunning photographs makes this book irresistible to collectors modelers or anyone with an interest in the navies of the Second World War

Flyers Far Away Michael Enright, 2025-06-06 First one volume history covering Australian airmen in World War II

Their Finest Hour Nick Thomas, 2016-03-15 Their Finest Hour tells the fascinating stories of six of Churchills Few each of whom played an important part in the Battle of Britain Celebrated and much respected on their own squadrons all have since faded into obscurity Their achievements against all odds and the fortunes of their comrades in arms many of whom died during the Battle are told here in detail some for the first time This has been done in an effort to retrieve these stories from obscurity bringing them to a wider audience and ensuring they are not forgotten Featured stories include that of Flying Officer Reginald Peacock DFC the only Blenheim pilot of the Second World War to become a fighter ace Squadron Leader Robert Reid who flew throughout the Battle of Britain having a hand in the destruction of three Bf 109s and the damaging of two more and Pilot Officer Douglas Cyril Winter who flew Spitfires during the defence of the Dunkirk Beaches before taking on the Luftwaffe in the skies over Southern England All these stories offer insights into this dynamic period of aviation history Recorded here they serve as poignant reminders of the efforts of the Few and the contributions that they made to the Allied effort during the Second World War

Viking Boys John Quaife, 2022-02-01 An Australian attack aircraft flies into a ship with guns blazing Both crewmen are killed but does anyone notice At the entrance to Orsta fjord down an overgrown path a granite stone stands on a rocky outcrop at the water's edge Roughly inscribed in English it records the loss of two young Australians The stone was erected in 1947 by parents grieving the loss of their son Each year villagers of Orsta pay homage to the sacrifice of these two young Australians who died to restore their freedom Beaufighter pilot James Hakewill and his navigator Fred Sides died on 5 December 1944 when their aircraft slammed into a German gunboat in a fjord in Norway Official records contain no mention of the aircraft hitting the ship No one in the squadron knew what had happened Neil Smith thought he had shot down his wingman Kurt Heinowicz from Breslau shovelled coal for the German Navy he was on the gunboat Fred's mum believed her son had survived the crash and was lost in Russia James was nominated for the Victoria Cross Viking Boys tells their stories and reveals the experience of young Australians who fought and flew against German shipping in the fjords of Norway and called themselves the Viking Boys The Bulletin ,2002
