Preparedness and Disaster Recovery in School Libraries Christie Kaaland, William Lokey, 2014-12-16 When disaster strikes school librarians can play a key role in keeping kids safe This is the only book written specifically to provide school librarians with emergency preparedness and recovery tools as well as curricular tie ins No school is immune to disaster whether in the form of a natural event like a tornado or a tragedy like the violence that occurred at Sandy Hook Elementary School The key to minimizing injury or death in an emergency is preparedness something the school librarian is uniquely positioned to lead This must have book will show you how to be proactive in getting your school ready for the worst It provides comprehensive preparedness and recovery plans check lists and curricular recommendations on preparedness that can be tailored to your individual library and community Covering natural disasters human made disasters and school violence the book shows you how to conduct drills assess vulnerabilities and risk communicate preparedness plans and use bibliotherapy for disaster recovery It also describes how your library can be a safe haven for students who feel disconnected bullied or otherwise disenfranchised Although the book is primarily intended for school librarians classroom teachers will also find many ideas here for helping students be better prepared for disasters whatever their cause or severity The Aftermath of Hurricane

Katrina Dorothy M. Singleton, 2008 The Aftermath of Hurricane Katrina examines the hurricane s effects on traumatized children s academic progression socialization life opportunities and social consciousness Professor Dorothy Singleton presents improved teaching strategies and methodologies for working with traumatized children in any grade level As writers gathered information for this book several realized the need to better comprehend how this environmental tragedy has disrupted the lives of groups already politically and economically marginalized This study features a range of information about these social groups including history culture family life and the day to day challenges faced by those still suffering from the hurricane s aftermath Book jacket Retired Pacific Hurricanes , Crossing Boundaries with Children's Books Doris Gebel,United States Board on Books for Young People,2006-05-25 This annotated bibliography organized geographically by world region and country describing nearly 700 books representing 73 countries is a valuable resource for librarians teachers and anyone else seeking to promote international understanding through children s literature It is the third volume sponsored by the United States Board on Books for Young People The first Carl M Tomlinson s Children s Books from Other Countries 1998 is a compendium of international children s literature with annotations of both in and out of print books published between 1950 and 1996 Susan Stan s The World Through Children s Books 2002 was the second and it included books published between the years 1997 and 2000 Crossing Boundaries includes international children s books published between 2000 and 2004 as well as selected American books set in countries other than the United States Editor Doris Gebel has compiled an important tool for providing stories that will help children understand our differences while simultaneously demonstrating our common humanity Category 5 Pacific Hurricanes , Storm World Chris Mooney,2008-08-04 An investigation into climate change and increasingly dangerous hurricanes from the New York Times bestselling author of The Republican War on Science A leading science journalist delves into a red hot debate in meteorology whether the increasing ferocity of hurricanes is connected to global warming In the wake of Katrina Chris Mooney follows the careers of leading scientists on either side of the argument through the 2006 hurricane season tracing how the media special interests politics and the weather itself have skewed and amplified what was already a fraught scientific debate As Mooney puts it Scientists like hurricanes do extraordinary things at high wind speeds Mooney a New Orleans native host of the Point of Inquiry podcast and author of The Republican Brain has written a well researched nuanced book that closely examines whether we as a society should be held responsible for making hurricanes even bigger monsters than they already are The New York Times Mooney serves his readers as both an empiricist who gathers data and an analyst who puts it into context The result is an important book whose author succeeds admirably in both his roles The Plain Dealer Engaging and readable Mooney catches real science in the act and in so doing weaves a story as intriguing as it is important Los Angeles Times Book Review Mooney has hit upon an important and controversial topic and attacks it with vigor The Boston Globe An absorbing informed account of the politics behind a pressing contemporary controversy Kirkus Reviews Teaching Young Children Social Studies Gayle Mindes,2006-09-30 By linking theory to practice with an emphasis on national and state standards Head Start Performance Standards No Child Left Behind and IDEA the authors coherently combine principles of child development and social studies content to create a solid program for preschool through grade three The authors maintain the overriding idea throughout the Teaching Young Children series that strategies derived from knowledge of child development are used to teach content knowledge It is this concern that makes this volume an excellent resource for teachers and parents In addition to specific discussions of how to build and conduct a social studies curriculum the work includes vignettes of teachers and children in the classroom graphics illustrating concepts and methods and matrices charts and tables to enhance understanding The authors effectively intertwine social learning in young children and development of self concept with the theme based curriculum of the National Council for Social Studies the principles of multicultural education parent collaboration to support learning and creating connections between classroom and community
