unbelievable true story of Canada's first known spree killer told by a veteran of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police. In June 1966, Matthew Charles Lamb took his uncle's shotgun and wandered down Ford Blvd in Windsor, Ontario. At the end of the bloody night, two teenagers lay dead with multiple others injured after an unprovoked shooting spree. In his investigation into Lamb's story, Will Toffan pieces together the troubled childhood and history of violence that culminated in the young man's dubious distinction as Canada's first known spree killer, at which point the story becomes too strange for fiction. Travelling from the border city streets to the courtroom to the Oak Ridge rehabilitation centre and finally Rhodesia, Watching the Devil Dance is both a thrilling narrative about a shocking true crime and its bizarre aftermath and an insightful analysis of the 1960s criminal justice system.
