The Articles of Faith: A Series of Lectures of Christ of Latter-Day Saints James E. Talmage, 2016-09-07 The lectures herewith presented have been prepared in accordance with the request and appointment of the First Presidency of the Church The greater number of the addresses were delivered before the Theology Class of the Church University and after the close of the class sessions the lectures were continued before other Church organizations engaged in the study of theology To meet the desire expressed by the Church authorities that the lectures be published for use in the various educational institutions of the Church the matter has been revised and is now presented in this form In anticipation of probable question or criticism regarding the disparity of length of the several lectures it may be stated that each of the addresses occupied two or more class sessions and that the present arrangement of the matter in separate lectures is rather one of compilation than of original presentation The author's thanks are due and are heartily rendered to the members of the committee appointed by the First Presidency whose painstaking and efficient examination of the manuscript prior to the delivery of the lectures has inspired some approach to confidence in the prospective value of the book among members of the Church The committee here referred to consisted of Elders Francis M Lyman Abraham H Cannon and Anthon H Lund of the Quorum of the Twelve Apostles Elder George Reynolds iv one of the Presidents of the Presiding Quorum of Seventy Elder John Nicholson and Dr Karl G Maeser The lectures are now published by the Church and with them goes the hope of the author that they may prove of some service to the many students of the scriptures among our people and to other earnest inquirers into the doctrines and practices of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter day Saints James E Talmage

Popular Visual Shows 1800-1914 Joe Kember, John Plunkett, 2025-04-23 This book tells the story of the growth of picturegoing as a popular habit between 1800 and 1914 Encouraged by urbanisation and changes in transportation education and leisure patterns the regular and widespread provision of exhibitions and shows became a defining characteristic of cultural life Painted panoramas and dioramas awed with enormous tableaux the stereoscope immersed viewers in a 3D world the many varieties of peepshow promised a marvellously garish experience of patriotic battles gruesome murders and far off places If that was not enough the ever versatile magic lantern projected hundreds of thousands of slides of every imaginable subject from travelogues and temperance tales to illustrated hymns and adaptations of popular fiction Then after 1896 audiences experienced the cinematograph and were able to enjoy film at the many fixed venue cinemas that emerged from around 1908 Moving and projected images were displayed not only in town halls theatres and other large exhibition spaces but also in workhouses schools churches empty shops and fairgrounds Picturegoing in all its variety became a national pastime integrating itself more and more pervasively into the structures of everyday life as the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries progressed Drawing on a wealth of new evidence this book details the shows that were on offer where and what they were the networks and infrastructure they existed within and above all how their audiences experienced them
