Marot Rabelais Montaigne Lecriture Comme Presence:

Montaigne and the Ethics of Skepticism Zahi Anbra Zalloua, 2005 As one of the 16th century's most brilliant writers Montaigne formed his ethical self and his eventual theories of physical and spiritual skepticism Zalloua explores this enlightened thinker's mind Literary Criticism Montaigne and the Low Countries (1580-1700), 2007-04-30 Montaigne 1533-1592 is known as the inventor of the essay His relativism his craving for self-knowledge and his taste for freedom and tolerance have had a long-lasting influence in Europe It is therefore surprising that until present no substantial study has been devoted to the multiple relationships between Montaigne and the Low Countries This volume aims to fill this gap It studies the Netherlandish presence in Montaigne's Essays represented by Erasmus and Lipsius and by contemporary history the Dutch Revolt against Spain It also deals with Montaigne's translations and editions in the Dutch Golden Age as well as his readership which included humanists such as Scaliger and Vulcanius the poets Hooft and Cats and a painter Pieter van Veen who illustrated the Essays Contributors include Frans R. E. Blom Warren Boutcher Jeanine De Landtsheer Philippe Desan Karl A. E. Enenkel Ton Harmsen Jeroen Jansen Johan Koppenol Anton van der Lem Michel Magnien Kees Meerhoff Olivier Millet Alicia C. Montoya Marringje Rikken and Paul J. Smith Virgilian Identities in the French Renaissance Phillip John Usher, Isabelle Fernbach, 2012 Virgil's works principally the Bucolics the Georgics and above all the Aeneid were frequently read translated and rewritten by authors of the French Renaissance The contributors to this volume show how readers and writers entered into a dialogue with the texts using them to grapple with such difficult questions as authorial political and communitarian identities It is demonstrated how Virgil's works are more than Ancient models to be imitated They reveal themselves instead to be part of a vibrant moment of exchange central to the definition of literature at the time Back cover

Lyric Humanity from Virgil to Flaubert Ullrich Langer, 2023-02-16 Ullrich Langer investigates why lyric representation holds a particular power to address our humanity from Virgil to Flaubert Montaigne's Unruly Brood Richard L. Regosin, 2023-04-28 Perhaps as old as writing itself the metaphor of the book as child has depicted textuality as an only son conceived to represent its father uniformly and to assure the integrity of his name Richard L. Regosin demonstrates how Montaigne's Essais both departs from and challenges this conventional figure of textuality He argues that Montaigne's writing is best described as a corpus of siblings with multiple faces and competing voices a hybrid textuality inclined both to truth and dissimulation to faithfulness and betrayal to form and deformation And he analyzes how this unruly mixed brood also discloses a sexuality and gender dynamic in the Essais that is more conflicted than the traditional metaphor of literary paternity allows Regosin challenges traditional critics by showing how the logic of a faithful filial text is disrupted and how the writing self displaces the author's desire for mastery and totalization He approaches the Essais from diverse critical and theoretical perspectives that provide new ground for understanding both Montaigne's complex textuality and the obtrusive reading that it simultaneously invites and resists His analysis is informed by poststructuralist criticism by reception theory and by gender and feminist studies yet at the same time he treats the Essais as a child of sixteenth century Humanism and late Renaissance France Regosin also examines Montaigne's self-proclaimed taste for Ovid and the role played by the seminal texts of self-representation and aesthetic conception Narcissus and Pygmalion and the myth of sexual metamorphosis Iphis This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer-reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1966

The Site of Petrarchism William J. Kennedy, 2003-08-15 Drawing upon poststructuralist theories of nationalism and national identity developed by such writers as Etienne Balibar Emmanuel Levinas Julia Kristeva Antonio Negri and Slavoj Žižek noted Renaissance scholar William J. Kennedy argues that the Petrarchan sonnet serves as a site for early modern expressions of national sentiment in Italy France England Spain and Germany Kennedy pursues this argument through historical research into Renaissance commentaries on Petrarch's poetry and critical studies of such poets as Lorenzo de' Medici Joachim du Bellay and the Pléiade brigade Philip and Mary Sidney and Mary Wroth Kennedy begins with a survey of Petrarch's poetry and its citation in Italy explaining how major commentators tried to present Petrarch as a spokesperson for competing versions of national identity He then shows how Petrarch's model helped define social class political power and national identity in mid-sixteenth century France particularly in the nationalistic sonnet cycles of Joachim du Bellay Finally Kennedy discusses how Philip Sidney and his sister Mary and niece Mary Wroth reworked Petrarch's model to secure their family's involvement in forging a national policy under Elizabeth I and James I Treating the subject of early modern national expression from a broad comparative perspective The Site of Petrarchism will be of interest to scholars of late medieval and early modern literature in Europe historians of culture and critical theorists Richard Helgerson

Spectacular Science, Technology and Superstition in the Age of Shakespeare Sophie Chiari, 2017-09-01 To the readers who ask themselves What is science this volume provides an answer from an early modern perspective whereby science included such various intellectual pursuits as history poetry occultism and philosophy

The Poetics of Literary Transfer in Early Modern France and England Hassan Melehy, 2016-02-24 Examining both familiar and underappreciated texts Hassan Melehy foregrounds the relationships that early modern French and English writers conceived with both their classical predecessors and authors from flourishing literary traditions in neighboring countries In order to present their own avowedly national literatures as successfully surpassing others they engaged in a paradoxical strategy of presenting other traditions as both inspiring and dead Each of the book's four sections focuses on one early modern author Joachim du Bellay Edmund Spenser Michel de Montaigne and William Shakespeare Melehy details the elaborate strategies that each author uses to rewrite and overcome the work of predecessors His book touches on issues highly pertinent to current early modern studies among these are translation the relationship between classicism and writing in the vernacular the role of literature in the consolidation of the state attitudes toward colonial expansion and the New World and definitions of modernity and the past
