Marriage at the Crossroads Aída Besançon Spencer, William David Spencer, Steven Tracy, Celestia Tracy, 2010-02-04 Have you ever wondered how egalitarian and complementarian marriages play out differently on a day to day level In this unique book Aída and William Spencer and Steve and Celestia Tracy two couples from the differing perspectives of egalitarianism and soft complementarianism share a constructive dialogue about marriage in practice They cover a variety of topics like marriage discipleship headship and submission roles and decision making and intimacy in marriage Also included are responses from three additional cultural frameworks North American Hispanic Korean American and African American Whether you're still working out your views on marriage or have found an approach you're comfortable with this book will help you better understand the two perspectives on the ground level While the theological starting points are different you may be surprised to see the degree of convergence on practical issues as the dialogue unfolds

Sex Difference in Christian Theology Megan K. DeFranza, 2015-05-08 Charts a faithful theological middle course through complex sexual issues How different are men and women When does it matter to us or to God Are male and female the only two options In Sex Difference in Christian Theology Megan DeFranza explores such questions in light of the Bible theology and science Many Christians entrenched in culture wars over sexual ethics are either ignorant of the existence of intersex persons or avoid the inherent challenge they bring to the assumption that everybody is born after the pattern of either Adam or Eve DeFranza argues from a conservative theological standpoint that all people are made in the image of God male female and intersex and that we must listen to and learn from the voices of the intersexed among us
