Sir James Martin John Michael Bennett,2005 Intelligence ambition and self belief took Martin the son of the Governor s Irish groom to the pinnacles of colonial law and politics He is the only man to have been both been Premier and Chief Justice of New South Wales He made his name as a fierce and partisan contributor to the vitriolic political debates of the 1840s A brilliant young lawyer he was in Parliament in 1848 before the age of 30 He stayed there in and out of government until 1873

when he made an honourable exit to the highest judicial office in the colony Knighthood and civil honours followed Self made rich arrogant and married to the wealthy daughter of a former convict Martin attracted enemies so that as Premier he could not always guarantee the passage of his legislation and at times lost his parliamentary seat Through all this he conducted a huge Bar practice and was appointed Chief Justice Remembered as a man springing from the people and educated amongst them he showed every quality which is necessary to a great and good Judge in a career of rare accomplishment The NSW State Set of Lives of Australian Chief Justices which includes Sir Francis Forbes Sir James Dowling Sir Alfred Stephen Sir James Martin and Sir Frederick Darley is available for 210 00 to order the NSW State Set click here A NSW Sesquicentenary of Responsible Government publication Library of Congress Catalogs Library of Congress,1976 Ladies in the Laboratory III Mary R.
