Crusade of Charity Margherita Marchione, 2006 During World War II a powerful system for prisoners of war to communicate with their loved ones and for their loved ones to learn about their imprisonment was developed through the Vatican Information Office which was set up by Pope Pius XII immediately after the war began in 1939 Young and old appealed to Pius XII for help in locating missing sons husbands relatives and friends In turn the office he set up to deal with such requests sought night and day to provide information and comfort To help the effort Vatican Radio broadcast 1 2 million shortwave messages asking for news about missing individuals Not only are there hundreds of thousands of documents regarding this clearinghouse activity in the Vatican Secret Archives but there are also 20 million letters with additional information on file cards for each of these individuals Crusade of Charity reveals this untold story of grief and heroism comfort and support through documents letters telegrams and reports of the apostolic delegates who visited war prisoners in camps around the world as well as through the words of family and friends BOOK JACKET Forgotten Survivors Richard C. Lukas, 2004 Richard Lukas presents the eyewitness accounts of these and other Polish Christians who suffered at the hands of the Germans They bear witness to unspeakable horrors endured by those who were tortured forced into slavery shipped off to concentration camps and even subjected to medical experiments Their stories provide a somber reminder that non Jewish Poles were just as likely as Jews to suffer at the hands of the Nazis who viewed them with nearly equal contempt
