Marx And The Failure Of Liberation Theology:

Marx and the Failure of Liberation Theology Alistair Kee,1990 In this provocative book Alistair Kee argues that while liberation theology has been regarded as exotic innovative and dangerous because of its commitment to Marx the reverse is the truth Its failure stems from its lack of commitment to Marx and a reluctance to apply his philosophy to the contemporary situation Back cover

Encounter Between Marxian Philosophy and Theology of Humanisation in India Mervin Shinoj Boas,2007

The Encyclodedia of Christianity, Vol. 5 Erwin Fahlbusch,Geoffrey William Bromiley,1999 Written by leading scholars from around the world the articles in this volume range from sin Sufism and terrorism to theology in the 19th and 20th centuries Vatican I and II and the virgin birth

Pastoral Care and Liberation Theology Stephen Pattison,1994-03-10 This is the first book to show how Latin American liberation theology can be applied to and can transform pastoral care in countries such as Britain and the USA Hitherto pastoral care has tended to concentrate on looking after individuals Stephen Pattison suggests that much of the suffering endured by individuals is actually socially and politically caused and so is avoidable if the appropriate action is taken The author argues that what we now require is a socio politically aware and committed pastoral care which makes an option for oppressed and poor people and engages in practical struggle against the forces of injustice and oppression Focussing as it does especially on mentally ill people and on women the book will be of interest to all those who want to broaden their vision and knowledge of liberation theology or pastoral care whether theologians pastors students for ministry members of caring professions or users of the services they provide

Forrester on Christian Ethics and Practical Theology Duncan B. Forrester,2017-05-15 Bringing together articles and chapters from his considerable work in theological ethics India and the social order Duncan Forrester incorporates new writing and introductions to each thematic section to guide readers through this invaluable resource This book offers stimulating studies in three related areas Indian Christianity with particular attention to the caste system contemporary Christian theological ethics and the distinctive and challenging theological approach that Duncan Forrester has developed in relation to public issues such as prisons and punishment welfare provision social justice and poverty

The Rise and Demise of Black Theology Alistair Kee,2017-11-28 Black Theology emerged in the 1960s as a response to black consciousness In South Africa it is a critique of power in the UK it is a political theology of black culture The dominant form of Black Theology has been in the USA originally influenced by Black Power and the critique of white racism Since then it claims to have broadened its perspective to include oppression on the grounds of race gender and class In this book the author contests this claim especially by Womanist black women Theology Black and Womanist Theologies present inadequate analyses of race and gender and no account at all of class economic oppression With a few notable exceptions Black Theology in the USA repeats the mantras of the 1970s the discourse of modernity Content with American capitalism it fails to address the source of the impoverishment of black Americans at home Content with a romantic imaginaire of Africa this African American movement fails to defend contemporary Africa against predatory American global ambitions Criticism of Theology

Roland Boer,2010-12-17 Through a lively and thorough critical commentary Criticism of Theology engages with some of the most significant Marxists who are fascinated by religion Max Horkheimer E P Thompson G E M de Ste Croix Michael L wy Roland Barthes Gilles Deleuze Felix Guattari and Antonio Negri Feminist Ethics and Natural Law Cristina L. H.

Traina,1999-04-28 Heated debates over such issues as abortion contraception ordination and Church hierarchy suggest that feminist and natural law ethics are diametrically opposed Cristina L H Traina now reexamines both Roman Catholic natural law tradition and Anglo American feminist ethics and reconciles the two positions by showing how some of their aims and assumptions complement one another After carefully scrutinizing Aquinas s moral theology she analyzes trends in both contemporary feminist ethics theological as well as secular and twentieth century Roman Catholic moral theology Although feminist ethics reject many of the methods and conclusions of the scholastic and revisionist natural law schools Traina shows that a truly Thomistic natural law ethic nonetheless provides a much needed holistic foundation for contemporary feminist ethics On the other hand she offers new perspectives on the writings of Josef Fuchs Richard McCormick and Gustavo Gutierrez arguing that their failure to catch the full spirit of Thomas s moral vision is due to inadequate attention to feminist critical methods This highly original book proposes an innovative union of two supposedly antagonistic schools of thought a new feminist natural law that would yield more comprehensive moral analysis than either existing tradition alone This is a provocative book not only for students of moral theology but also for feminists who may object to the very notion of natural law ethics suggesting how each might find insight in an unlikely place A Tale of Two Theologians Ambrose

Mong,2017-03-31 In A Tale of Two Theologians Ambrose Mong s observant new work he examines the writings of the Peruvian theologian Gustavo Gutierrez and the Indian theologian Michael Amaladoss and gives fresh attention to their main concerns regarding evangelisation and the poor Why he asks is Gutierrez s liberation theology now accepted and celebrated by the Roman Catholic Church while Amaladoss s Asian theology with a liberation thrust is threatened with censorship Mong argues that the dwindling threat of Communism has made the Marxist overtones of Latin American liberation theology more palatable to the Catholic hierarchy while the challenge of religious pluralism in Asia is as complex and emotive as ever How can the Church learn to balance the need for dialogue between religions with their duty to proclaim the Gospel How can the Church inculturate itself in Asia while maintaining its identity Ambrose Mong tackles these questions with the shrewd clear eyed view of an active priest and scholar exploring the long troubled relationship the Church has with liberation theology and offering guidance for the future Marxism, Religion, and Emancipatory Politics Graeme Kirkpatrick,Peter

McMylor,Simin Fadaee,2022-08-24 This edited collection evaluates the relationship between Marxism and religion in two ways Marxism s treatment of religion and the religious aspects of Marxism Its aim is to complicate the superficial understanding of Marxism as a simple rejection of religion both in theory and practice Divided into two parts Theory and

Praxis this book brings together the three different themes of Marxism religion and emancipation for the first time The first part explores the more theoretical discussions regarding the relationship between Marxism and various themes or currents within religious thought to highlight points of compatibility as well as incompatibilities conflicts The studies in the second part of the collection refer to how Marxist ideas are received in different parts of the world They show that as soon as Marxism arrives in a new place the theory interacts and bonds with a pre existing stock of ideas each changing the other reciprocally
