Marxism Joseph Ton,1976 Christianity and Marxism Worldwide Mark R. Elliott,1988 Missions in Context of Violence Keith E. Eitel,2007-09-15 This volume deals with the contexts of violence In an age of increasing concern for this type of missionary work the missions community needs to hear from those that have reflected on the multifaceted elements involved in understanding the phenomenon of martyrdom persecution violence as it relates to telling the age old Gospel story The place to begin is with Biblical and theological analysis followed by the grounding provided by constructing consequent lifestyles strategies and practices in physically risky settings Finally insights from the live settings of violence are warranted

The British Library General Catalogue of Printed Books, 1986 to 1987 British Library,1988 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,1968 Marxism, Orientalism, Cosmopolitanism Gilbert Achcar,2013-08-08 In this collection of essays Gilbert Achcar examines the controversial relationship of Marxism to religion to Orientalism and its critique by Edward Said and to the concept of cosmopolitanism A compelling range of issues is discussed within these pages including a comparative assessment of Christian liberation theology and Islamic fundamentalism Orientalism in reverse which can take the form of an apology for Islamic fundamentalism the evolution of Marx s appraisal of non Western societies and the vagaries of cosmopolitanism up to our present era of globalisation Erudite and incisive these essays provide a major contribution to the critical discussion of Marxism Orientalism and cosmopolitanism and illuminate the relationships between all three The Christian Union Henry Ward Beecher,1888 A History of Philosophy in the Twentieth Century Christian Delacampagne,2001-11-05 In A History of Philosophy in the Twentieth Century Christian Delacampagne reviews the discipline s divergent and dramatic course and shows that its greatest figures even the most unworldly among them were deeply affected by events of their time From Ludwig Wittgenstein whose famous Tractatus was actually composed in the trenches during World War I to Edmund Husserl and Martin Heidegger one who found himself barred from public life with Hitler s coming to power the other a member of the Nazi party who later refused to repudiate German war crimes From Bertrand Russell whose lifelong pacifism led him to turn from logic and mathematics to social and moral questions and Jean Paul Sartre who made philosophy an occasion for direct and personal political engagement to Rudolf Carnap a committed socialist and Karl Popper a resolute opponent of Communism From the Vienna Circle and the Frankfurt School to the contemporary work of philosophers as variously minded as Jacques Derrida J rgen Habermas and Hilary Putnam The thinking of these philosophers and scores of others cannot be understood without being placed in the context of the times in which they lived The Christian Union ,1888 The Oxford Encyclopedia of British Literature David Scott Kastan,2006-03-03 From folk ballads to film scripts this new five volume encyclopedia covers the entire history of British literature from the seventh century to the present focusing on the writers and the major texts of what are now the United Kingdom and the Republic of Ireland In five hundred substantial essays written by major scholars the Encyclopedia of British Literature includes biographies of nearly four hundred individual authors and a hundred topical essays with detailed analyses of particular themes movements genres and institutions whose impact upon the writing or the reading of literature was significant An ideal companion to The Oxford Encyclopedia of American Literature this set will prove invaluable for students scholars and general readers For more information including a complete table of contents and list of contributors please visit www.oup.com/us/eb1
