

Irish Eulogy Poem

Raise your glass one final time, For one who lived so well, Let stories flow like finest wine, And tales of triumph tell. For Irish hearts don't break, they say, They simply overflow, With love that lasts beyond the day, When loved ones have to go. So drink deep to memories sweet, And laugh through misty eyes, For somewhere down some golden street, Love never truly dies.
