Nathan Kernan, 2025-08-05 The long awaited biography of the mercurial troubled brilliant poet James Schuyler the Pulitzer Prize winner who helped shape the New York School of poetry in the 1960s Nathan Kernan's A Day Like Any Other The Life of James Schuyler is the definitive biography of the great American poet who along with Frank O'Hara Barbara Guest John Ashbery and Kenneth Koch was an original member of the so called New York School of poetry Opening with Schuyler's legendary first public reading in 1988 Kernan goes back to trace the tumultuous arc of the poet's life and work Born in

Chicago in 1923 James Schuyler grew up in Washington DC and upstate New York before moving to New York City in 1944 where he fell into the social orbit of the poet W H Auden After two years in Italy he returned to New York in 1949 and began to publish his first poems There he met fellow poets O Hara Ashbery Guest and Koch For many years he lived outside the city in Southampton Long Island in a close relationship with the painter Fairfield Porter and his family and spent his summers in Maine Schuyler s subsequent years in New York City were marked by poverty and mental illness yet it was during this time that he wrote some of his greatest poems After his move to the Chelsea Hotel in 1979 the poet s circumstances began to turn around and when he died much too soon at sixty seven his life was stable and fulfilled In praise of Schuyler s poetry John Ashbery wrote To reread him is to live as though life were an experience one had just forgotten and been newly awakened to Schuyler s work embodies the quiet beauties of the natural world and the mundane stuff of everyday existence even as his own life was often messy and troubled A Day Like Any Other Kernan s absorbing biographical study explores this and other paradoxes of Schuyler s singular life within the vibrant milieu of mid century New York s poets and painters Essays for Richard Ellmann Richard Ellmann,1989 Richard Ellmann s scholarly work is notable for its striking liveliness and clarity and its genuine illumination of the writers and works with which he dealt His life of James Joyce published in 1959 received more commendation and critical praise than any previous literary biography The Fugitive Poets William Pratt,1991 Anthology of the finest modern Southern poets including Warren Ransom Tate Davidson The African American Experience Arvarh E. Strickland,Robert E. Weems Jr.,2000-11-30 Compared to the early decades of the 20th century when scholarly writing on African Americans was limited to a few titles on slavery Reconstruction and African American migration the last thirty years have witnessed an explosion of works on the African American experience With the Civil Rights and Black Power movements of the 1960s came an increasing demand for the study and teaching of African American history followed by the publication of increasing numbers of titles on African American life and history This volume provides a comprehensive bibliographical and analytical guide to this growing body of literature as well as an analysis of how the study of African Americans has changed Subject Catalog, 1976 Library of Congress,1976 A History of Twentieth-Century British Women's Poetry Jane Dowson,Alice Entwistle,2005-05-19 Publisher Description Encyclopedia of German Literature Matthias Konzett,2015-05-11 Designed to provide English readers of German literature the opportunity to familiarize themselves with both the established canon and newly emerging literatures that reflect the concerns of women and ethnic minorities the Encyclopedia of German Literature includes more than 500 entries on writers individual work and topics essential to an understanding of this rich literary tradition Drawing on the expertise of an international group of experts the essays in the encyclopedia reflect developments of the latest scholarship in German literature culture and history and society In addition to the essays author entries include biographies and works lists and works entries provide information about first editions selected critical editions and English language translations All entries conclude with a list of further readings Mama

The Poem and the Insect David Spooner, 1999 This book is an extension of Dr Spooner's previous work on the interplay of insect processes and human culture as discussed in The Metaphysics of Insect Life ISP 1995 It continues the application of the literary philosophical and scientific methods employed there to the main currents in the evolution of modern Hispanic literature On one level it is part of the new cultural ecological criticism Assessing the incursion of South American rainforest ecology into the poetry of Silva Dario and later Eguren this study considers their impact on Rueda Aleixandre Jimenez Lorca and Valente among others balancing this with a recognition of Spain's indigenous post-romantic modernism Then while taking account of the insects in Juan Goytisolo's novels Spooner will throw more light on the books of Marquez Cortazar and Fuentes where the striking of the medieval across the modern is interpreted as related to the metamorphoses of insects and indeed the processes of literary development itself The book concludes with a consideration of the metaphysical and scientific implications of this analysis
