Poetic Meditations:

Poetic Meditations on Selected Scripture John P. Davis, 2021-05-07 This devotional of poetic meditations grew out of forty five years of expository preaching and self reflection The author s intermittent attempts at poetry reveal both his best and worst parts These poems reflect experience as a follower of Jesus an inward battle with sin shame sadness defeats yet always the word of God leads to the gospel of Jesus Christ and his victory his forgiveness his power his love and his hope Never without the realization of sinfulness and the sufficiency of the work of Jesus Christ many live daily on a continuum between these two poles of striving by faith to rest in Christ and agonizing over the heart s inclination to wander By God s grace and through his Spirit that movement may be more toward victory than defeat Spiritual Poetic Meditations Martin Michael Martin, Dennis Michael Martin, 2009-09 Spiritual Entrepreneurialism is a story of how one small church aging and in decline experienced renewal and transformation by bridging the power of the Holy Spirit with business development tools from the small business sector This book briefly explores the entrepreneurial drive of the early pioneers of the American Methodist movement and how recapturing the passion of their entrepreneurial spirit and using proven small business development principles a congregation can be changed for Jesus sake As the Church continues its march through the twenty first century it is wise to explore new ways in which we can transition aging and declining small churches into growing centers of vital life changing ministry The approach to small church renewal offered in Spiritual Entrepreneurialism is but one possibility of how small church renewal can take place Wade Martin is pastor of Trinity United Methodist Church in Emmitsburg Maryland As a second career pastor he has served in the U S Navy had leadership roles in small private and public companies and has served as chair of the board of a nonprofit organization He received his undergraduate degree from Excelsior College in New York received his Master of Divinity degree from Wesley Theological Seminary in Washington DC and will receive his Doctor of Ministry degree in May of 2008 from Wesley Theological Seminary with a concentration in Church Leadership Excellence Poetic Meditations From An Anointing Of The Spirit Shea Jubelirer, 2001-05-15 This book written by Shea Jubelirer explores her ideas of spirituality and a relationship with God through devotional poetry It is written so that the writer does demonstrate she has the talent on how to turn a phrase or two Shea also hopes to convey a real experience of what it means to be spiritual and even catholic This work is both artistic and creative the Mind is not an ally: poetic meditations Ayo Deforge, 2025-09-30 Before clarity there is chaos Before peace war abounds In the Mind is not an ally Vol I the Mind in struggle Ayo Deforge invites us into the raw interiority of the battleground that is our thought identity and emotions These poetic meditations were born in the frictional silence of contemplation where the mind turns inward and confronts its own architecture of fear pride and noise This volume draws from the lineage of those who ve charted a path from inner darkness and walked their way toward light It echoes the stoic gravitas of Marcus Aurelius the stark introspection of Ecclesiastes and the existential fire of Nietzsche Yet its voice is distinctly original lyrical intimate and disarmingly clear More than a collection it is a mirror for the soul to reflect beyond the intellect it is a guide through the inner shadows we often silence or deny because we are ashamed or afraid to confront Psalm Songs Maury

Ten Meditations for Catching and Losing

One's Breath Jean-Louis Chretien, 2024-08-23 The deepest words are the most prosaic They are enriched by everybody's voice and only through them are our joys sufferings doubts and choices illuminated and shared This book's brief meditations lend an ear to ten of them from breath to wound from way to abandonment from attention to peace The lesson of poets the wisdom of saints and the teaching of philosophers with these simple words afford innumerable pathways To gather ourselves letting the weight of these essential words sink into us is to catch our breath silently rendering its rhythm fuller and stronger Yet what is the point if we were to stand pat The price of the highest breath can only be to give itself without reserve until we lose our breath A contribution to the venerable tradition of lectio divina Ten Meditations for Catching and Losing One's Breath invites its reader to embark on a contemplative journey led by an author who was one of France's most prolific and profound philosophers in generations

The Pace of Modernity O. Bradley Bassler, 2012 Wittgenstein said that philosophers should greet each other not by saying Hello but rather Take your time But what is time Time is money but this points to an even better answer to this basic question for our modern epoch time is acceleration In a cultural system which stresses economic efficiency the quicker route is always the more prized if not always the better one Wittgenstein's dictum thus constitutes an act of rebellion against the dominant vector of our culture but as such it threatens to become quickly anti-modern We need an approach to reading our information rich culture which is not reactionary but rather meets its accelerated condition In this book O Bradley Bassler develops a toolkit for acute reading of our modern pace not through withdrawal but rather through active engagement with a broad range of disciplines The main characters in this drama comprise a cast of master readers Hannah Arendt Jean Starobinski Harold Bloom Angus Fletcher Hans Blumenberg and John Ashbery with secondary figures drawn from the readers and critics whom this central group suggests We must develop a vocabulary of pacing reflecting our modern distance from classical sources and the concomitant acceleration of our contemporary condition Only in this way can we begin to situate the phenomenon of modernity within the larger scales of human culture and history

Ideology and Desire in Renaissance Poetry Ronald Corthell, 1997 Each chapter explores the interrelationships of representation identification and desire while the book as a whole gradually shifts in emphasis from new historicist concerns with representation and the social realm toward psychoanalytic themes of identification desire and inwardness
