How Poems Think Reginald Gibbons, 2015-09-23 Reginald Gibbons collects here a lifetime's worth of thoughts on composing and translating poetry Not a manifesto or a general theory of the lyric rather the book explores how a poem thinks that is what results from the circumstances of a poet's native language choice of words and topics the mentality that the poet shares with other writers and the range of poetic possibilities and limitations in a given language Through exemplary case studies taken from his own experience in writing poetry as well as in translating poetry from languages ranging from Sophocles's and Pindar's ancient Greek to their contemporary French Italian Portuguese Russian and Spanish successors Gibbons traces the curious persistence of classical modes and images into the twenty-first century He shows how the very language used in composing a poem be it ancient Greek Renaissance English or contemporary Russian both limits and enables how a poet thinks and what the poet can say Even in describing difficult poetic concepts and operations Gibbons writes in a clear companionable style entirely accessible not just to practicing poets but also to general readers interested in poetry and to writers of various stripes interested in the way our native language can often circumscribe what and how we think poetically and affect how we compose poetry and prose This book joins other titles by this award winning writer on the Press s list The Poets and Poetry of the Bible George Gilfillan,2014-03-30 This Is A New Release Of The Original 1853 Edition Poetry 180 Billy Collins,2003 A dazzling new anthology of 180 contemporary poems selected and introduced by America s Poet Laureate Billy Collins Inspired by Billy Collins s poem a day program with the Library of Congress Poetry 180 is the perfect anthology for readers who appreciate engaging thoughtful poems that are an immediate pleasure A 180 degree turn implies a turning back in this case to poetry A collection of 180 poems by the most exciting poets at work today Poetry 180 represents the richness and diversity of the form and is designed to beckon readers with a selection of poems that are impossible not to love at first glance Open the anthology to any page and discover a new poem to cherish or savor all the poems one at a time to feel the full measure of contemporary poetry s vibrance and abundance With poems by Catherine Bowman Lucille Clifton Billy Collins Dana Gioia Edward Hirsch Galway Kinnell Kenneth Koch Philip Levine Thomas Lux William Matthews Frances Mayes Paul Muldoon Naomi Shihab Nye Sharon Olds Katha Pollitt Mary Jo Salter Charles Simic David Wojahn Paul Zimmer and many more
