The Literature of Food Nicola Humble, 2020-02-06 Why are so many literary texts preoccupied with food The Literature of Food explores this question by looking at the continually shifting relationship between two sorts of foods the real and the imagined Focusing particularly on Britain and North America from the early 19th century to the present it covers a wide range of issues including the politics of food food as performance and its intersections with gender class fear and disgust Combining the insights of food studies and literary analysis Nicola Humble considers the multifarious ways in which food both works and plays within texts and the variety of functions ideological mimetic symbolic structural affective which it serves Carefully designed and structured for use on the growing number of literature of food courses it examines the food of modernism post modernism the realist novel and children's literature and asks what happens when we treat cook books as literary texts From food memoirs to the changing role of the servant experimental cook books to the cannibalistic fears in infant picture books The Literature of Food demonstrates that food is always richer and stranger than we think

European Gastronomy into the 21st Century Caillein Gillespie, John Cousins, 2012-05-23 Gastronomy is the art and science of good eating and drinking a concept that extends outwards to embrace wider notions of tradition culture society and civilisation This book provides a rigorous well researched and much needed treatment of the subject systematically outlining the development of European gastronomic tradition and the social economic philosophical and geographical contexts of change the experiences philosophies and relative contributions of great gastronomes past and present the interplay of traditional and contemporary influences on modern gastronomy the relationship between gastronomy and travel and tourism salient issues of nutrition food hygiene and health promotion Taking an all encompassing look at the subject of gastronomy past present and future European Gastronomy into the 21st Century uses example menus and case studies to demonstrate the theory It also provides an insight into the business arena using key destination restaurants to illustrate management techniques and marketing issues Accessible and highly structured the book guides the reader through its wide ranging and thought provoking content

Lord Gnome's Literary Companion Francis Wheen, 1994 His review has got to be in by mid day tomorrow at about 9 pm his mind will grow relatively clear and until the small hours he will sit skipping expertly through one book after another and laying each one down with the comment God what tripe Then suddenly he will snap into it All the stale old phrases a book that no one should miss something memorable on every page jump into their places like iron filings obeying the magnet Thus did George Orwell writing forty years ago in Confessions of a Book Reviewer describe the labours of a typical literary hack

Precious little has changed over the intervening decades the servility of the satirical magazine Private Eye Lord Gnome's Literary Companion assembles in thematic order the best of these columns to present an astringent rude and funny survey of publishers and the published

Two Men in a Car (a Businessman, a Chauffeur, and Their Holidays in France) Mike Buchanan, 2017-03-27 A splendid romp Vive la France Peter Mayle author of A Year in Provence and many other bestsellers Mike Buchanan is the best kind of opinionated middle aged middle class Englishman abroad the funny kind Andy Heslop If you have a sense of humour this book will put a big smile on your face I laughed out loud many times A refreshing absence of political correctness The lovely Maureen Padley Political correctness is a curse of the modern era This book is not politically correct And it celebrates la belle France the beautiful ladies the fine food and wine the glorious scenery and weather and more besides If you re offended by the book s contents kindly moan about it to someone else not the author He s had more than his fill of being moaned at over the years Mike Buchanan is a 50 year old overweight diabetic short sighted businessman and published author who lives in Bedford He s been a Francophile for as long as he can remember and is rarely happier than when holidaying in France In August 2007 following the breakdown of his second marriage he took a holiday in France with his chauffeur the equally politically incorrect Thunderin Paul Carrington The two men enjoyed themselves so much that they took a second holiday in France in July 2008 This book relates the story of both holidays in chapters with the following titles 1 Our first week with Anne and Mark Phillips 2 Why my dinner cost 40 times more than Paul s 3 Hobnobbing with Ivana Trump in Monte Carlo 4 Would you like to have sex with my wife 5 We witness a miracle in Lourdes 6 In defence of pate de foie gras 7 Paul worries about becoming a gay icon 8 Nuits St Georges is twinned with Hitchin 9 It s always better if you have a big one
