Reconceptualizing The Family In A Changing Southern African Environment:

Reconceptualizing the Family in a Changing Southern African Environment Sara C. Mvududu, Patricia McFadden, 2001 This admirable wide ranging study grapples fearlessly with the mammoth topic of the Southern African family and in particular the positions and identities of women within the family and their rights Issues broached include women's access to land and physical resources human resources as a survival strategy the intersection of family law rights and resources methodological perspectives and the family as site for social transformation There is an explicit political and feminist agenda and urgent aim to encourage the reader to rethink the family to reconceptualise its meaning and contribute to the debate that surrounds the next phase of societies in change The narrative propels the reader along in the genuine anticipation that despite difficulties new ground is breaking and new ideas emerging which will interest firstly the Southern African woman but equally anyone interested in the topical and contentious issue of the family and its possibilities
