Reconstructing Architecture:

Reconstructing Architecture Thomas A. Dutton, Lian Hurst Mann, 1996 Reconstructing Architecture was first published in 1996 Minnesota Archive Editions uses digital technology to make long unavailable books once again accessible and are published unaltered from the original University of Minnesota Press editions To create architecture is an inherently political act yet its nature as a social practice is often obscured beneath layers of wealth and privilege The contributors to this volume question architecture's complicity with the status quo moving beyond critique to outline the part architects are playing in building radical social movements and challenging dominant forms of power The making of architecture is instrumental in the construction of our identities our differences the world around us much of what we know of institutions the distribution of power social relations and cultural values is mediated by the built environment Historically architecture has constructed the environments that house the dominant culture Yet as the essays in Reconstructing Architecture demonstrate there exists a strong tradition of critical practice in the field one that attempts to alter existing social power relations Engaging the gap between modernism and postmodernism each chapter addresses an oppositional discourse that has developed within the field and then reconstructs it in terms of a new social project feminism social theory environmentalism cultural studies race and ethnic studies and critical theory The activists and scholars writing here provide a clarion call to architects and other producers of culture challenging them to renegotiate their political allegiances and to help reconstruct a viable democratic life in the face of inexorable forces driving economic growth destroying global ecology homogenizing culture and privatizing the public realm Reconstructing Architecture reformulates the role of architecture in society as well as its capacity to further a progressive social transformation Contributors Sherry Ahrentzen U of Wisconsin Milwaukee Bradford C Grant California Polytechnic State U San Luis Obispo Richard Ingersoll Rice U Margaret Soltan George Washington U Anthony Ward U of Auckland New Zealand Thomas A Dutton is an architect and professor of architecture at Miami University Ohio He is editor of Voices in Architectural Education 1991 and is associate editor of the Journal of Architectural Education Lian Hurst Mann is an architect and editor of Architecture California A founding member of the Labor Community Strategy Center in Los Angeles she is editor of its bilingual quarterly Ahora Now and a coauthor of Reconstructing Los Angeles from the Bottom Up 1993

Reconstructing Architecture Thomas A. Dutton, Lian Hurst Mann, Reconstructing Architecture for the Twenty-first Century Anthony Jackson, 1995-01-01 Jackson exposes the inadequacies of old conceptions of architecture as embodying metaphysical properties and of architects as the sole keepers of this esoteric knowledge He challenges architects to acknowledge and celebrate building as an expression of the ideals and values of the broader based classless communities to which they now belong Reconstructing Architecture for the Twenty-first Century Anthony Jackson, 1995 Software Technologies Hans-Georg Fill, Francisco José Domínguez Mayo, Marten van Sinderen, Leszek A. Maciaszek, 2024-05-23 This book constitutes the refereed post proceedings of the 18th International Conference on Software Technologies ICSoft 2023 held in Rome Italy during July 10 12 2023 The 7 full papers included in this book were carefully reviewed and selected from 129 submissions They focus on Software Engineering and Systems Development Software Systems and Applications and Foundational and Trigger Technologies      Recoding Architecture Pedagogy Nathaniel Coleman,2025-03-25 Disabled by chasing curricular criteria required for accreditation and professional registration architecture schools are mostly compliance and reproduction machines serving the building industry As a corrective Recoding Architecture Pedagogy Insurgency and Invention asserts disciplinary knowledge over professional skills as the proper aim and focus of architecture education The insurgent pedagogy introduced subverts architecture and its teaching s capture by capitalism s dominant modes of production and consumption to reveal unexpected tactics for enlarging possibilities Grounded in architecture histories and theories philosophy and anarchism s emphasis on use and dissensus combined with PUNK s DIY ethos design studio emphasis on technicity is upended to reveal the subversive aim of intensifying tensions between doomed desires for artistic autonomy and intrinsic burdens of use constituting architecture as a discipline instead of seeking resolution some neutral middle ground or escape into banal practice or paper palaces By concentrating on what architecture education suppresses tensions disavows its capture within the building industry or affirms commercial practice over disciplinary knowledge Recoding Architecture Pedagogy Insurgency and Invention cracks open horizons of possibility by showing how intensifying agonistic relationships between the myriad binaries that characterize architecture and its teaching is generative in ways conciliatory synthesis cathartic resolution and uncritical affirmation are not      Architecture RePerformed: The Politics of Reconstruction Tino Mager,2016-03-09 First emerging at the beginning of the twentieth century architectural reconstruction has increasingly become an instrument to visually revive a long bygone past This book deals with the phenomenon of meticulous reconstruction in architecture It argues that the politics of reconstruction go far beyond aesthetic considerations Taking architecture as a major source of history and regional identity the impact of large scale reconstruction is deeply intertwined with political and social factors Furthermore memories and associations correlated with lost buildings of a bygone era are heavily influenced by their re appearance something which often contradicts historical events Reconstruction has become an established way of building and dealing with the past yet so far there is no comprehensive scientific study on it By bringing together eight case studies from Eastern Europe France Spain China Japan Israel and Brazil it provides valuable insights into this topic The chapters analyse the political background of the reconstructions and identify the protagonists In doing so this volume adds to our understanding of the impact of reconstruction to memory and oblivion as well as the critical power of reconstruction regarding contemporary architecture and urbanism      Queering Architecture Marko Jobst,Naomi Stead,2023-01-26 Featuring contributions from a range of significant voices in the field this volume renews the conversation around what it means to speak of the queer in the context of architecture and offers a fresh take on the methodological and epistemological challenges this poses to the discipline of architectural theory Architecture as a discipline a profession and an applied practice is always subordinate to its own conceptual framework which is one of orderliness It refers to buildings but also to infrastructures of thought and knowledge to conventions and taxonomies to structures of governance hierarchies of power and systems of administration How then can one look at queering architectural discourse when the very term queer celebrated for its elusive nature resists and attacks such order Divided into four subsections the essays in this anthology each pursue a distinct line of inquiry methods practices spaces and pedagogies in order to help particularize the proposed queering of architecture They demonstrate the paradoxical nature of the endeavour from a diverse range of perspectives from questions of mapping queer theory in architecture to issues of queer architectural archives or lack thereof to non Western challenges to the very term queer and the queering of basic assumptions across affiliated disciplines Queering Architecture not only provides a bold challenge to the normative methods employed in architectural discourse but also addresses how establishing queer methodologies is a paradox in itself

Feminist Visual Culture Fiona Carson, Claire Pajackowska, 2016-05-06 Visual culture is all around us television dance film fashion painting sculpture installation and fine art are only a few of its many faces Feminist Visual Culture looks at feminist theory the role of women and the contribution of women artists to the world of visual culture This substantial introduction provides an overview of visual culture and of the origins of feminist practice In the volume s three sections Fine Art Design and Mass Media the authors discuss the visual media specific to that area incorporating wider issues such as class culture and ethnicity Each chapter is written by a woman working in a different field of visual culture A topical and comprehensive introduction Feminist Visual Culture will be a valuable tool for readers and students in women s studies visual studies and media studies

Reconstructing Conflict Dr Colin Flint, Dr Scott Kirsch, 2012-11-28 Reconstruction the rebuilding of state economy culture and society in the wake of war is a powerful idea and a profoundly transformative one From the refashioning of new landscapes in bombed out cities and towns to the reframing of national identities to accommodate changed historical narratives the term has become synonymous with notions of post conflict society it draws much of its rhetorical power from the neat demarcation both spatially and temporally between war and peace The reality is far more complex In this volume reconstruction is identified as a process of conflict and of militarized power not something that clearly demarcates a post war period of peace Kirsch and Flint bring together an internationally diverse range of studies by leading scholars to examine how periods of war and other forms of political violence have been justified as processes of necessary and valid reconstruction as well as the role of war in catalyzing the construction of new political institutions and destroying old regimes Challenging the false dichotomy between war and peace this book explores instead the ways that war and peace are mutually constituted in the creation of historically specific geographies and geographical knowledges

Women, Practice, Architecture Naomi Stead, 2016-01-08 The image of the architect is undeniably gendered While the male architect might be celebrated as the ideal man in Hollywood romantic comedies blessed with practicality and creativity in equal measure to impeccable taste and an enviable lifestyle the image of the woman architect is not so clear cut While women have been practicing and excelling in architecture for more than a hundred years their professional identity as constructed in the media is complex and sometimes contradictory This book explores the working lives and aspirations of women in architectural practice but more than this it explores how popular media newspapers magazines and websites serve to define and describe who a woman architect should be what she should look like and how she should behave Looking further into the way that professional characteristics are reinforced through awards like the Pritzker Prize the book demonstrates how idealised characteristics such as sensitivity and vision are seen to be neither entirely masculine nor feminine but instead a complex hybrid owing much to historic concepts of genius Drawing on history sociology media analysis and feminist theories of architectural practice the book will be of interest to all of those who seek to better understand the image and identity of the architect This book was published as a double special issue of Architectural Theory Review

The Role of Architects in Informal Settlements Nastaran Sedehi, Seyed Hossein Iradj Moeini, 2024-10-17
With over one billion people worldwide living in informal settlements and enduring substandard housing conditions these areas present one of the greatest urban challenges of our time The existence of informal settlements is deeply intertwined with global issues such as climate change war induced displacement and colonialism As sustainability becomes a central focus in various disciplines including architecture the path to sustainable urban development lies in addressing the problems of informal settlements Architecture's relevance to this discourse is paradoxically highlighted by its perceived irrelevance Informal settlements are often overlooked as legitimate sites for architectural practice This neglect stems from two assumptions first architecture's traditional dependence on power and capital isolating the marginalised who rarely have the chance to receive architectural services and second architecture's perceived incapability to address urban scale infrastructural problems and thereby its reduction to aesthetic creativity and form making This book challenges architecture's focus on the centre and its lack of ambition for creating a pervasive impact on cities Instead it highlights the profession's potential to serve the common good and address urban scale infrastructural issues and proposes the effective engagement of architects in informal settlements Drawing on Henri Lefebvre's dichotomy of margin versus centre in urban spaces informal settlements are interpreted as spaces on the city's periphery created by the marginalised with limited access to power capital and authority By revisiting interrelated concepts such as the production of space the right to the city social architecture and spatial agency within the context of informal settlements the book claims a space for architectural practice in these areas It incorporates discussions on insurgent citizenship and critiques of the self help approach contextualising its arguments with architectural intervention precedents from around the world The book concludes with a brief manifesto on practising architecture in informal settlements The book aspires to inspire architecture students practitioners and researchers to explore the profession's potential in social problem solving and to push the boundaries of practice towards inclusiveness for all urban inhabitants      Teaching and Designing in Detroit Stephen Vogel, Libby Blume, 2019-11-18 This book provides a compelling and insightful portrait of ten female architects artists and designers who explored unique approaches to teaching practice and research in the postindustrial city of Detroit These women explored the phenomenon of a new ecological urbanism through their own work in art architecture design planning landscape architecture and installation as well as the work of their students Teaching and Designing in Detroit provides an eighteen year snapshot of this work how it affected the women s practice how they influenced student relationships to design and community development and how their visions are now being carried out in Detroit This book is organized into sections that group stories according to their focus on practice pedagogy and community engagement Included in the book is a foreword by Leslie Kanes Weisman the only female architecture professor at the University of Detroit Mercy in the 1970s and an afterword by Sharon Egretta Sutton reflecting on how working and practicing in Detroit foreshadowed the future vision now being carried out in the rebounding city of Detroit An intriguing read for students and professionals this book will illustrate how these lessons learned can be applied by universities and communities in other postindustrial cities      Defining Landscape Democracy Shelley Egoz, Karsten Jørgensen, Deni Ruggeri, 2018-06-29 This stimulating book explores theories conceptual frameworks and cultural approaches with the purpose of uncovering a cross cultural understanding of landscape democracy a concept at the intersection of landscape democracy and spatial justice The authors of Defining Landscape Democracy address a number of questions that are critical to the contemporary discourse on the right to landscape Why is democracy relevant to landscape How do we democratise landscape How might we achieve landscape and spatial justice      Architectural Research Addressing Societal Challenges Volume 2 Manuel Jorge Rodrigues Couceiro da Costa, Filipa Roseta, Susana Couceiro da Costa, Joana Pestana Lages, 2017-09-19 The EAAE ARCC International Conference held under the aegis of the EAAE European Association for Architectural Education and of the ARCC Architectural Research Centers Consortium is a conference organized every other year in collaboration with one of the member schools universities of those associations alternatively in North America or in Europe The EAAE ARCC Conferences began at the North Carolina State University College of Design Raleigh with a conference on Research in Design Education 1998 followed by conferences in Paris 2000 Montreal 2002 Dublin 2004 Philadelphia 2006 Copenhagen 2008 Washington 2010 Milan 2012 and Honolulu 2014 The conference discussions focus on research experiences in the field of architecture and architectural education providing a critical forum for the dissemination and engagement of current ideas from around the world      Design and Feminism Joan Rothschild, Alethea Cheng, 1999 The distinction between the spaces considered public and private or work and home is becoming more blurred Our streets parks dwellings and tools are designed to a one size fits all standard and the responses of the design community to meet diverse needs have been mixed at best Design and Feminism offers feminist critiques of these inadequate design standards and suggest ideas projects and programs for change      From Craft to Profession Mary N. Woods, 2023-04-28 This is the first in depth study of how the architectural profession emerged in early American history Mary Woods dispels the prevailing notion that the profession developed under the leadership of men formally schooled in architecture as an art during the late nineteenth century Instead she cites several instances in the early 1800s of craftsmen builders who shifted their identity to that of professional architects While struggling to survive as designers and supervisors of construction projects these men organized professional societies and worked for architectural education appropriate compensation and accreditation In such leading architectural practitioners as B Henry Latrobe Alexander J Davis H H Richardson Louis Sullivan and Stanford White Woods sees collaborators partners merchandisers educators and lobbyists rather than inspired creators She documents their contributions as well as those far less familiar of women architects and people of color in the profession s early days Woods s extensive research yields a remarkable range of archival materials correspondence among carpenters 200 year old lawsuits architect client spats the organization of craft guilds apprenticeships university programs and correspondence schools and the structure of architectural practices labor unions and the building industry In presenting a more accurate composite of the architectural profession s history Woods lays a foundation for reclaiming the profession s past and recasting its future Her study will appeal not only to architects but also to historians sociologists and readers with an interest in architecture s place in America today This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1999 This is the first in depth study of how the architectural profession emerged in early American history Mary Woods dispels the prevailing notion that the profession developed under the leadership of men formally schooled in architecture as an art during t

The SAGE Handbook of Architectural Theory C. Greig Crysler, Stephen Cairns, Hilde Heynen, 2012-01-20 Offers an intense scholarly experience in its comprehensiveness its variety of voices and its formal organization the editors took a risk experimented and have delivered a much needed resource that upends the status quo Architectural Histories journal of the European Architectural History Network Architectural theory interweaves interdisciplinary understandings with different practices intentions and ways of knowing This handbook provides a lucid and comprehensive introduction to this challenging and shifting terrain and will be of great interest to students academics and practitioners alike Professor Iain Borden UCL Bartlett School of Architecture In this collection architectural theory expands outward to interact with adjacent discourses such as sustainability conservation spatial practices virtual technologies and more We have in The Handbook of Architectural Theory an example of the extreme generosity of architectural theory It is a volume that designers and scholars of many stripes will welcome K Michael Hays Eliot Noyes Professor of Architectural Theory Harvard University The SAGE Handbook of Architectural Theory documents and builds upon the most innovative developments in architectural theory over the last two decades Bringing into dialogue a range of geographically institutionally and historically competing positions it examines and explores parallel debates in related fields The book is divided into eight sections Power Difference Embodiment Aesthetics Pleasure Excess Nation World Spectacle History Memory Tradition Design Production Practice Science Technology Virtuality Nature Ecology Sustainability City Metropolis Territory Creating openings for future lines of inquiry and establishing the basis for new directions for education research and practice the book is organized around specific case studies to provide a critical interpretive and speculative enquiry into the relevant debates in architectural theory

Professing Rhetoric Frederick J. Antczak, Cinda Coggins, Geoffrey D. Klinger, 2005-04-11 Representing current theory and research in rhetoric this volume brings together scholarship from a variety of orientations theoretical critical historical and pedagogical Some contributions cover work that has previously been silenced or unrecognized including Native American African American Latino and women's rhetorics Others explore rhetoric's relationship to performance and to the body or to revising canons stases topoi and pisteis Still others are reworking the rhetorical lexicon to comprise contemporary theory Among these diverse interests rhetoricians find common themes and share intellectual and pedagogical enterprises that hold them together even as their institutional situations keep them apart Topics discussed in this collection include Rhetoric as figurality comparative and contrastive rhetorics rhetoric and gender and rhetorics of science and technology Rhetoric and reconceptions of the public sphere rhetoric and public memory and rhetorics of globalization and social change including issues of race ethnicity and nationalism Rhetoric's institutionalized place in the academy in relation to other humanities and to the interpretive social sciences and The place of rhetoric in the formation of departments and the development of pedagogy With its origins in the 2000 Rhetoric Society of America RSA conference this volume represents the range and vitality of current scholarship in rhetoric The conversations contained herein indicate that professing rhetoric is at the turn of the millennium an intellectual activity that engages with and helps formulate the most important public and scholarly questions of today As such it will be engaging reading for scholars and students and is certain to provoke further thought discussion and exploration

Unplanned Visitors Olivier Vallerand, 2022-03-30 Sexuality and gender have long been influential in understanding the construction of domestic space its meanings often revealing a binary division of private and public female and male By reconstructing the foundation of queer critiques of space and by analyzing the representation of domesticity in contemporary art and architecture Unplanned Visitors shows the blurring of private and public that can occur in any domestic space and explores the potential of queer theory for understanding and designing the built environment Olivier Vallerand investigates how queer critiques building on pioneering feminist work question the relation between identity and architecture and highlight normative constructs underlying domestic spaces He draws out a genealogy of queer space in theoretical discourse in architecture studying projects by Mark Robbins Joel Sanders J Mayer H Elmgreen Dragset Andr's Jaque and MYCKET among others These works blur the traditional borders between architecture and art to emphasize the tensions between private and public and their impact on assumptions about domestic space and family structure The challenges in moving from experimental installations to built environments suggest how designers must acknowledge and respond to the social contexts that shape architecture rethinking how domestic spaces can be designed to allow everyone to better manage the expression of their self identification through their living environments Unplanned Visitors poses a challenge to traditional architectural theory and history but also suggests a renewed and more inclusive ethics whereby designers explicitly address social and political power structures The potential of a queer approach to architectural design history theory and education is precisely to enact a method that creates more inclusive buildings and safer neighbourhoods for everyone
