West African Soldiers in Britain's Colonial Army (1860-1960) Timothy Stapleton, 2022 West African Soldiers in Britain s Colonial Army 1860 1960 explores the history of Britain s West African colonial army based in Nigeria Ghana Sierra Leone and the Gambia placing it within a broader social context and emphasizing as far as possible the experience of the ordinary soldier The aim is not to describe the many battles and campaigns fought by this force but to look at the development of the West African colonial army as an institution over the course of about a century In pursuing this goal it is sometimes useful to employ the lens of military culture defined differently by scholars but essentially meaning a set of shared ideas and behaviors that inform daily life in the military While other locally recruited colonial militaries in Africa have attracted considerable attention from historians as they served as an essential pillar supporting European rule this book represents the first comprehensive scholarly study of Britain s West African army which was the largest such British led force south of the Sahara The study is based on extensive archival research conducted in nine archives located in five countries

The Fante and the Transatlantic Slave Trade Rebecca Shumway, 2011 The history of Ghana attracts popular interest out of proportion to its small size and marginal importance to the global economy Ghana is the land of Kwame Nkrumah and the Pan Africanist movement of the 1960s it has been a temporary home to famous African Americans like W E B DuBois and Maya Angelou and its Asante Kingdom and signature kente cloth global symbols of African culture and pride are well known Ghana also attracts a continuous flow of international tourists because of two historical sites that are among the most notorious monuments of the transatlantic slave trade Cape Coast and Elmina Castles These looming structures are a vivid reminder of the horrific trade that gave birth to the black population of the Americas The Fante and the Transatlantic Slave Trade explores the fascinating history of the transatlantic slave trade on Ghana s coast between 1700 and 1807 Here author Rebecca Shumway brings to life the survival experiences of southern Ghanaians as they became both victims of continuous violence and successful brokers of enslaved human beings The era of the slave trade gave birth to a new culture in this part of West Africa just as it was giving birth to new cultures across the Americas The Fante and the Transatlantic Slave Trade pushes Asante scholarship to the forefront of African diaspora and Atlantic World studies by showing the integral role of Fante middlemen and transatlantic trade in the development of the Asante economy prior to 1807 Rebecca Shumway is Assistant Professor of History at the University of Pittsburgh Afro-European Trade in the Atlantic World Silke Strickrodt, 2015 A uniquely detailed account of the dynamics of Afro European trade in two states on the western Slave Coast over three centuries and the transition from slave trade to legitimate commerce From Slave Trade to 'Legitimate' Commerce Robin Law, 2002-08-08 This edited collection written by eleven leading specialists examines the nineteenth century commercial transition in West Africa the ending of the Atlantic slave trade and the development of alternative forms of legitimate trade mainly in vegetable products Approaching the subject from an African rather than a European or American perspective the case studies consider the effects of transition on the African societies involved They offer significant insights into the history of pre colonial Africa and the slave trade the origins of European imperialism and longer term issues of economic development in Africa The War Against Smallpox Michael Bennett, 2020-06-18 A history of the global spread of vaccination during the Napoleonic Wars when millions of children were saved from smallpox The Oxford History of the British Empire: Historiography Robin W. Winks, 1999 This volume investigates the shape and the development of scholarly and popular opinion about the British Empire over the centuries Sources for the Mutual History of Ghana and the Netherlands Michel René Doortmont, Jinna Smit, 2007 Annotated guide to the Dutch archives on Ghana and West Africa in the Nationaal Archief offering a comprehensive overview of available sources Part I description of archival materials Part II historical overview of the Dutch in Ghana and selected themes from Ghana's history With bibliography and index Britain and International Law in West Africa Inge Van Hulle, 2020 In the past few decades the understanding of the relationship between nations has undergone a radical transformation The role of the traditional nation state is diminishing along with many of the traditional vocabularies which were once used to describe what has been called ever since Jeremy Bentham coined the phrase in 1780 international law The older boundaries between states are growing evermore fluid new conceptions and new languages have emerged which are slowly coming to replace the image of a world of sovereign independent nation states which has dominated the study of international relations since the early nineteenth century This redefinition of the international arena demands a new understanding of classical and contemporary questions in international and legal theory It is the editors conviction that the best way to achieve this is by bridging the traditional divide between international legal theory intellectual history and legal and political history The aim of the series therefore is to provide a forum for historical studies from classical antiquity to the twenty first century that are theoretically informed and for philosophical work that is historically conscious in the hope that a new vision of the rapidly evolving international world its past and its possible future may emerge Book jacket

Slave Traders by Invitation Finn Fuglestad, 2018-07-01 The Slave Coast situated in what is now the West African state of Benin was the epicentre of the Atlantic Slave Trade But it was also an inhospitable surf ridden coastline subject to crashing breakers and devoid of permanent human settlement Nor was it easily accessible from the interior due to a lagoon which ran parallel to the coast The local inhabitants were not only sheltered against incursions from the sea but were also locked off from it Yet paradoxically it was this coastline that witnessed a thriving long term commercial relation ship between Europeans and Africans based on the trans Atlantic slave trade How did it come about How was it all organised And how did the locals react to the opportunities these new trading relations offered them The Kingdom of Dahomey is usually cited as the Slave Coast s archetypical slave raiding and slave trading polity An inland realm it was a latecomer to the slave trade and simply incorporated a pre existing system by dint of military prowess which ultimately was to prove radically counterproductive Fuglestad s book seeks to explain the Dahomean anomaly and its impact on the Slave Coast s societies and polities

Sharing the Burden of Sickness Jonathan Roberts, 2021-11-09 A medical history of Accra that accounts for plural medical traditions and multiple notions of health and healing

Amoako-Gyampah: Education in Ghana Akwasi Kwarteng Amoako-Gyampah, 2023-03-29 This volume arises from a cooperation between Ghanaian and German academics It answers the need to have a more comprehensive and up to date volume which addresses key topics areas and problems of the Ghanaian education system with a focus on history policy and curriculum related issues For many years now there have not been new comprehensive publications in this field and it is necessary to introduce a lot of recent changes in Ghanas education system and reflect about their challenges The information and positions collected in this volume will be of interest to Policy Makers Educators Lecturers Scholars Students Teachers Parents and other interested people of Ghana and other West African countries The book will also be of great interest to international scholars who want to understand the Ghanaian education system or are involved in academic projects such as internship exchange programmes and joint research activities with Ghanaian academics and educational institutions Akwasi Kwarteng Amoako Gyampah PhD is a senior lecturer in the Department of History Education University of Education Winneba Ghana and a senior research associate in the Department of History University of Johannesburg South Africa Bea Lundt is Prof emer of History and still teaches at the Europe University Flensburg Germany She is also Guest Professor at the University of Education Winneba UEW Ghana

State and Society in Pre-colonial Asante T. C. McCaskie, 2003-10-30 Scholarship on the West African kingdom of Asante is at the leading edge of Africanist research In this book T C McCaskie gives a detailed and richly nuanced historical portrait of precolonial Asante His delineation of state and society in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries is centred on an extended analysis of the crucial ritual of the annual Kumase odwira festival It is at once a profound historical reconstruction of an African polity and a deeply informed meditation on key Asante concepts and ideas Throughout the book the Asante experience is consistently discussed in a relation to a broad range of historiography and critical theory
