Red Danube David Gluck, 2020-06-15 Holocaust survivor Zoltan Zoli Gluck goes from a childhood in rural Hungary through the horrors of World War II to a New York City art dealer with a gallery in Provincetown Massachusetts He follows this unlikely career path to the 1987 ArtExpo at the Javits Center where he reunites with a painter who was in a concentration camp with him as a child Their rekindled friendship propels Zoli into an unintentional investigation of their shared past Through an odyssey that spans decades and crosses continents Zoli uncovers a betrayal that occurred on the day they were both liberated from the concentration camp Mauthausen and finds peace in the answers he didn't know he needed to hear in a place he never thought he'd see again The Red True Story Book Andrew Lang, 1895 The Red True Story Book, Ed Andrew Lang, 1900 The Screen Is Red Bernard F. Dick, 2016-03-14 The Screen Is Red portrays Hollywood's ambivalence toward the former Soviet Union before during and after the Cold War In the 1930s communism combated its alter ego fascism yet both threatened to undermine the capitalist system the movie industry's foundational core value Hollywood portrayed fascism as the greater threat and communism as an aberration embraced by young idealists unaware of its dark side In Ninotchka all a female commissar needs is a trip to Paris to convert her to capitalism and the luxuries it can offer The scenario changed when Nazi Germany invaded the Soviet Union in 1941 making Russia a short lived ally The Soviets were quickly glorified in such films as Song of Russia The North Star Mission to Moscow Days of Glory and Counter Attack But once the Iron Curtain fell on Eastern Europe the scenario changed again America was now swarming with Soviet agents attempting to steal some crucial piece of microfilm On screen the atomic detonations in the Southwest produced mutations in ants locusts and spiders and revived long dead monsters from their watery tombs The movies did not blame the atom bomb specifically but showed what horrors might result in addition to the iconic mushroom cloud Through the lens of Hollywood a nuclear war might leave a handful of survivors Five none On the Beach Dr Strangelove or cities in ruins Fail Safe Today the threat is no longer the Soviet Union but international terrorism Author Bernard F Dick argues however that the Soviet Union has not lost its appeal as evident from the popular and critically acclaimed television series The Americans More than eighty years later the screen is still red The Red True Story Book Andrew Lang, 2021-03-16 The Red True Story Book by Various Published by Good Press Good Press publishes a wide range of titles that encompasses every genre From well known classics literary fiction and non fiction to forgotten or yet undiscovered gems of world literature we issue the books that need to be read Each Good Press edition has been meticulously edited and formatted to boost readability for all e readers and devices Our goal is to produce eBooks that are user friendly and accessible to everyone in a high quality digital format HOLLYWOOD 'B' MOVIES: A Treasury of Spills, Chills & Thrills John Reid, 2005-09-01 By the mid 1930s cinema patrons insisted on value for money Double feature programs became mandatory at all neighborhood cinemas Usually the A feature film figured as the main attraction and the supporting movie the B Sometimes that role was reversed On many occasions picturegoers felt the unheralded B movie had actually proved more entertaining than the widely advertised A attraction More than two hundred of these wonderful B film classics from Hollywood's golden age are described reviewed and detailed in this book It's a must have for all film addicts movie fans and nostalgia connoisseurs The Poetical Works of Mark Akenside and John Dyer Mark Akenside, John Dyer, 1855 The Poetical Works of Mark Akenside and John Dyer. Stephens, 2015-09-02 Often forgotten among the actors directors producers and others associated with filmmaking art directors are responsible for making movies visually appealing to audiences As such they sometimes make the difference between a hit and a bomb This biographical dictionary includes not only the world's great and almost great artists but the unjustly neglected film designers of the past and present Among the more than 300 art directors and designers are pioneers from silent films designers from Hollywood and Europe's Golden Ages Asian figures post Golden Age personalities leaders of the European and American New Waves and many contemporary designers Each entry consists of biographical information an analysis of the director's career and important films and an extensive filmography including mentions of Academy Award nominations and winners Visions of the Apocalypse Wheeler W. Arnold, 2013-04-09 This provocative book reveals how Hollywood films reflect our deepest fears and anxieties as a country often recording our political beliefs and cultural conditions while underscoring the darker side of the American way of life Long before the war in Iraq and the economic crises of the early 21st century Hollywood has depicted a grim view of life in the United States one that belies the prosperity and abundance of the so called American Dream While the country emerged from World War II as a world power collectively our sense of security had been threatened The result is a cinematic body of work that has America's decline and ruin as a central theme The author draws from popular films across all genres and six decades to illustrate how the political climate of the times influenced their creation Projecting the End of the American Dream: Hollywood's Visions of U.S. Decline combines film history, social history and political history to reveal important themes in the unfolding American narrative Discussions focus on a wide variety of films including Rambo, Planet of the Apes and Easy Rider

Policing Show Business Francis MacDonnell, 2024-11-12 In Policing Show Business, Francis MacDonnell explores the starring role played by J. Edgar Hoover in the development of the Hollywood blacklist in the 1940s and 1950s As director of the FBI, Hoover poured resources into scrutinizing show business, a policy choice unjustified by any corresponding threat to public security He detailed agents to write regular reports on actors, screenwriters, lyricists, singers and studio executives His frequent handwritten comments on papers inside the files of film industry personalities demonstrate a level of interest bordering on obsession Policing Show Business is not just another book about the Hollywood blacklist MacDonnell approaches the Red Scare through biography, using FBI records on such luminaries as Marlene Dietrich, Walt Disney, Hedda Hopper, Adolphe Menjou, Lena Horne, Fredric March, Cecil B. DeMille and Burl Ives to present in unexpected, surprising and sometimes poignant ways the rich human dramas experienced by both targets of the bureau and its collaborators MacDonnell's meticulously researched account, drawing on many newly available FBI files, evokes the passions and resentments, the courageous acts and calculated evasions and the petty tyrannies and self-interested campaigns of an ignominious episode in the annals of American freedom

Casting Might-Have-Beens Eila Mell, 2015-01-24 Some acting careers are made by one great role and some fall into obscurity when one is declined Would Al Pacino be the star he is today if Robert Redford had accepted the role of Michael Corleone in The Godfather? Imagine Tom Hanks rejecting Uma Thurman, saying that she acted like someone in a high school play when she auditioned to play opposite him in The Bonfire of the Vanities. Picture Danny Thomas as The Godfather or Marilyn Monroe as Cleopatra This reference work lists hundreds of such stories: actors who didn't get cast or who turned down certain parts Each entry, organized alphabetically by film title, gives the character and actor cast, a list of other actors considered for that role and the details of the casting decision Information is drawn from extensive research and interviews From About Last Night, which John Belushi turned down at his brother's urging to Zulu, in which Michael Caine was not cast because he didn't look Cockney enough, this book lets you imagine how
