Above the Best Major Dick Hale,2012-07-11 It was 1950 the converted LSI was plowing the waters of the Pacific heading towards Korea when Robert Baker an enlisted man aboard the ship was summoned by a Chief Petty Officer to deliver messages to the Signal Officer in the ships ward room And it was a moment of truth for Baker When ushered into the ships ward room Robert became painfully aware that he had somehow been assigned to the wrong part of the ship The officers that he was only hazily aware of during his day to day duties were actually sitting at tables covered with linen table clothes drinking their coffee from china cups while being served by a Philippine stewards mate Baker on the other hand was eating off of a tin tray one deck below and under very different circumstances Different enough that he decided to change his circumstances for the better That afternoon Baker submitted his application for flight training with the U S Navy He had always wanted to fly anyway Baker had actually logged four or five hours a couple of years earlier during his assignment at the Naval Air Station in Jacksonville Florida He had only quit then because he could no longer afford it After a lot of pain blood and about ten days in the hospital wearing a kotex under his nose he was finished with all the formalities Now it was just a question of waiting for the orders to arrive The U S Navy like any other military organization moves slowly In this case they didnt move fast enough After months of waiting with no answer to the application frustration set in along with the end of his enlistment in the Navy Not easily deterred Baker felt it was the Navys loss and some other services gain

Appy,2000-11-09 No one can understand the complete tragedy of the American experience in Vietnam without reading this book Nothing so underscores the ambivalence and confusion of the American commitment as does the composition of our fighting forces The rich and the powerful may have supported the war initially but they contributed little of themselves That responsibility fell to the poor and the working class of America Senator George McGovern Reminds us of the disturbing truth that some 80 percent of the 2 5 million enlisted men who served in Vietnam out of 27 million men who reached draft age during the war came from working class and impoverished backgrounds Deals especially well with the apparent paradox that the working class soldiers families back home mainly opposed the antiwar movement and for that matter so with few exceptions did the soldiers themselves New York Times Book Review Appy s treatment of the subject makes it clear to his readers almost as clear as it became for the soldiers in Vietnam that class remains the tragic dividing wall between Americans Boston Globe

Red Thunder, Tropic Lightning Eric M Bergerud, 2019-08-16 T his BOOK EXAMINES the world confronted by the men of an American combat division during the Vietnam War Although the unit in question is the 25th Infantry Division this is not a unit history or standard military chronology Instead I try to view all of the major parts of the soldiers world including subjects as diverse as climate living conditions deadly combat and morale The world inhabited by the soldiers of the 25th Division was not theirs alone the men and women who served with other frontline units in Vietnam will immediately recognize the major landmarks Using the 25th Division as a focal point I hope to help the people of today better understand what the Vietnam War was like in fact not fiction This work is based on a variety of sources The documentary foundations come from a great number of 25th Division records generated during the war the most important of which are the large quarterly Division reports They in turn are complemented by the quarterly reports that came from II Field Force Vietnam the Army headquarters for the units operating in the provinces near Saigon The Center of Military History Department of the Army provided these documents to me while I was doing research on the village war in a Vietnamese province I used this research to write The Dynamics of Defeat The Vietnam War in Hau Nghia Province Westview Press 1991 which deals with the political and military struggle waged by both sides in an important part of the 25th Division s area of operations

Air Cav J.D. Coleman, 2011-06-08 Air Cav History of the 1st Cavalry Division in Vietnam 1965 1969 is the story of the small close world of fighting men in action told in their own words and supplemented with vivid photographs of the First Cavalry Division s experience in the war and a history of the division This volume can be many things to many people a book of memories a souvenir a pictorial essay on airmobility or simply a story of gallant men at war It can be many things but one thing it is not nor does it pretend to be a complete history of the 1st Air Cavalry Division in Vietnam The task and burden of history must lie with the objectivity of future generations far removed from current pressures and restraints It is true of course that much research for this book has been done from available official records the ultimate source of written history But even more has been drawn from the vivid recollections of the Cavalrymen who fought tasted the brassy bile of fear shared the fierce exultation of victory or were drenched in the dark despair of death This volume contains the memoirs of a fighting team the FIRST TEAM It is a memory of combat no doubt it is imperfect as all memory is but nonetheless it is real for those who were there for those who can fill in the inevitable gaps
