Michael Douglas emerged from the long shadow cast by his movie legend father Kirk Douglas to become his own man and one of the film industry's most formidable players. Overcoming the curse of failure that haunts the sons and daughters of Hollywood celebrities, Michael became a sensation when he successfully brought One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest starring his friend Jack Nicholson to the screen after numerous setbacks, including his father's own failed attempts to make it happen. This 1975 box office phenomenon won Michael his first Oscar; the film won five total, including Best Picture, an award Kirk hadn't won at the time and solidified the turbulent competitive father-son relationship that would shape Michael's career and personal life. In the decades that followed, Michael established a reputation for taking chances on new talent and projects by producing and starring in the hugely successful Romancing the Stone and Jewel of the Nile movies while cultivating a multifaceted acting persona: edgy, rebellious, and a little dark in such films as Wall Street, Fatal Attraction, Basic Instinct, and Disclosure. Yet as his career thrived, Michael's personal life floundered with an unhappy and tumultuous first marriage, rumors of infidelity, especially with leading ladies such as Kathleen Turner, and a headline-grabbing stint in rehab. Rocked by a series of tragedies, including Kirk's strokes, his son Cameron's incarceration, and his own fight against throat cancer, Michael has emerged triumphant, healthy, and happy in his marriage to Catherine Zeta Jones, a Welsh actress twenty-five years his junior, and their new young family. In Michael Douglas: Marc Eliot brings into sharp focus this incredible career, complicated personal life, and legendary Hollywood family, Eliot's fascinating portrait of the lows and remarkable highs in Michael's life, including the thorny yet influential relationship with his father, breaks boundaries in understanding the life and work of a true American film star.

From MTV to Mecca by Mereo Books Kristiane Backer, 2016 In the early 1990s Kristiane Backer was one of the very first presenters of MTV Europe. For some years she lived and breathed the international music scene, quickly gaining a cult following amongst viewers and becoming a darling of European press. As she reached the pinnacle of her success, she realised that despite having all she could have wished for, she was never truly satisfied. Something very important was missing. A fateful meeting with Pakistani cricket hero Imran Khan changed her life. He invited her to his country where she encountered a completely different world from the one she knew: the religion and culture of Islam. Instead of pop and rock stars, she was meeting men and women whose lives were dominated by the love of God and who cared very little for the brief glories of this world. She began to read the Quran and to study books about the Faith. A few years later, after travelling more widely in the Islamic world and knowing that she had discovered her spiritual path, she embraced Islam in a London mosque. And then her real adventures began. In this very personal memoir, Kristiane Backer tells the story of her conversion and explains how faith, despite the many challenges she faced, has given her inner peace and the meaning she sought.
