Red And The Black:

The Red and the Black (1830) Stendhal, 2011-10-15 The little town of Verri res can pass for one of the prettiest in Franche Comt Its white houses with their pointed red tiled roofs stretch along the slope of a hill whose slightest undulations are marked by groups of vigorous chestnuts The Doubs flows to within some hundred feet above its fortifications which were built long ago by the Spaniards and are now in ruins Verri res is sheltered on the north by a high mountain which is one of the branches of the Jura The jagged peaks of the Verra are covered with snow from the beginning of the October frosts A torrent which rushes down from the mountains traverses Verri res before throwing itself into the Doubs and supplies the motive power for a great number of saw mills The industry is very simple and secures a certain prosperity to the majority of the inhabitants who are more peasant than bourgeois It is not however the wood saws which have enriched this little town It is the manufacture of painted tiles called Mulhouse tiles that is responsible for that general affluence which has caused the fates of nearly all the houses in Verri res to be rebuilt since the fall of Napoleon One has scarcely entered the town before one is stunned by the din of a strident machine of terrifying aspect Twenty heavy hammers which fall with a noise that makes the paved floor tremble are lifted up by a wheel set in motion by the torrent Each of these hammers manufactures every day I don t know how many thousands of nails The little pieces of iron which are rapidly transformed into nails by these enormous hammers are put in position by fresh pretty young girls This labour so rough at first sight is one of the industries which most surprises the traveller who penetrates for the first time the mountains which separate France and Helvetia If when he enters Verri res the traveller asks who owns this fine nail factory which deafens everybody who goes up the Grande Rue he is answered in a drawling tone Eh it belongs to M the Mayor

K. Scott-Moncrieff,2014-02-08 The small town of Verrieres may be regarded as one of the most attractive in the Franche Comte Its white houses with their high pitched roofs of red tiles are spread over the slope of a hill the slightest contours of which are indicated by clumps of sturdy chestnuts The Doubs runs some hundreds of feet below its fortifications built in times past by the Spaniards and now in ruins Verrieres is sheltered on the north by a high mountain a spur of the Jura The jagged peaks of the Verra put on a mantle of snow in the first cold days of October A torrent which comes tearing down from the mountain passes through Verrieres before emptying its waters into the Doubs and supplies power to a great number of sawmills this is an extremely simple industry and procures a certain degree of comfort for the majority of the inhabitants who are of the peasant rather than of the burgess class It is not however the sawmills that have made this little town rich It is to the manufacture of printed calicoes known as Mulhouse stuffs that it owes the general prosperity which since the fall of Napoleon has led to the refacing of almost all the houses in Verrieres The Red and the Black Stendhal,2016-10-22 The Red and the BlackA Chronicle of 1830BYStendhalLe Rouge et le Noir French for The Red and the Black is a historical psychological novel in two volumes by Stendhal published in 1830 It chronicles the attempts of a provincial young man to rise socially beyond his modest upbringing through a combination of talent hard work deception and hypocrisy He ultimately allows his passions to betray him Le Rouge et le Noir is the Bildungsroman of Julien Sorel the intelligent and ambitious protagonist He comes from a poor family and fails to understand much about the ways of the world he sets out to conquer He harbours many romantic illusions but becomes mostly a pawn in the political machinations of the ruthless and influential people about him The adventures of the hero satirize early 19th century French society especially the hypocrisy and materialism of the aristocracy and members of the Roman Catholic Church foretelling the coming radical changes that will depose them from their leading role in French society The first volume's epigraph is attributed to Danton La vérité est la plus dure The truth the harsh truth but like most of the chapter epigraphs it is actually fictional The first chapter of each volume repeats the title Le Rouge et le Noir and the Chronique de 1830 sub title The novel's title refers to the contrasting uniforms of the Army and the Church Early in the story Julien Sorel realistically observes that under the Bourbon restoration it is impossible for a man of his plebeian social class to distinguish himself in the army as he might have done under Napoleon hence only a Church career offers social advancement and glory anticipates modern literature The Red and the Black Stendhal, 2018-10-29 The Red and the Black tells the story of Julien Sorel's life in a monarchic society of fixed social class. It is a historical psychological novel which chronicles the attempts of a provincial young man to rise socially beyond his modest upbringing through a combination of talent, hard work, deception, and hypocrisy. He ultimately allows his passions to betray him. The novel has a two-fold literary purpose, being both a psychological portrait of the romantic protagonist Julien Sorel and an analytic sociological satire of the French social order under the Bourbon Restoration.

The Red & the Black Stendhal, 1984 Handsome and ambitious Julien Sorel is determined to rise above his humble peasant origins and make something of his life by adopting the code of hypocrisy by which his society operates. Julien ultimately commits a crime out of passion, principle, or insanity that will bring about his downfall. The Red and the Black is a lively satirical picture of French Restoration society after Waterloo, riddled with corruption, greed, and ennui. The complex sympathetic portrayal of Julien, the cold exploiter whose Machiavellian campaign is undercut by his own emotions, makes him Stendhal's most brilliant and human creation and one of the greatest characters in European literature. Translated with an introduction by Roger Gard.
