Jones,2014-02-04 Between the disciplines of art history and the history of science lies a growing field of inquiry into what science and art share as both image making and knowledge producing activities The contributors of Picturing Science Producing Art occupy this intermediate zone to analyze both scientific and aesthetic representations utilizing disciplinary perspectives that range from art history to sociology history and philosophy of science to gender studies cultural history to the philosophy of mind Organized in five sites Styles The Body Seeing Wonders Objectivity Subjectivity and Cultures of Vision their topics extend from Cinquecento theories of female reproduction to the technologies of cloning from medieval depictions of the stigmata to electrical metaphors for sex from astronomical drawings to radioencephalography from Phoenician griffons carved in ivory to factories cast in concrete The internationally renowned contributors go beyond both science wars and culture wars by exploring substantive links between systems of visual representation and knowledge in science and art Contributors include Svetlana Alpers Jonathan Crary Arnold Davidson Carlo Ginzburg Donna Haraway Bruno Latour and Simon Schaffer      Ordinary Oralities Josephine Hoegaerts,Janice Schroeder,2023-08-07 Histories of voice are often written as accounts of greatness great statesmen notable rebels grands discours and famous exceptional speakers and singers populate our shelves This focus on the great and exceptional has not only led to disproportionate attention to a small subset of historical actors powerful white western men and the occasional token woman but also obscures the broad range of vocal practices that have informed co created and given meaning to human lives and interactions in the past For most historical actors life did not consist of grand public speeches but of private conversations intimate whispers hot gossip or interminable quarrels This volume suggests an extended practice of eavesdropping rather than listening out for exceptional voices it listens in on the more mundane aspects of vocality including speech and song but also less formalized shouts hisses noises and silences Ranging from the Scottish highlands to China from the bedroom to the platform and from the 18th until the 20th century contributions to this volume seek out spaces and moments that have been documented idiosyncratically or with difficulty and where the voice and its sounds can be of particular salience In doing so the volume argues for a heightened attention to who speaks and whose voices resound in history but refuses to take the modern equation between speech and presence representation for granted
