The Oxford Handbook of Italian Politics Erik Jones, Gianfranco Pasquino, 2015 The Oxford Handbook of Italian Politics provides a comprehensive look at the political life of one of Europe's most exciting and turbulent democracies Under the hegemonic influence of Christian Democracy in the early post World War II decades Italy went through a period of rapid growth and political transformation In part this resulted in tumult and a crisis of governability however it also gave rise to innovation in the form of Eurocommunism and new forms of political accommodation The great strength of Italy lay in its constitution its great weakness lay in certain legacies of the past Organized crime popularly but not exclusively associated with the mafia is one example A self contained and well entrenched caste of political and economic elites is another These weaknesses became apparent in the breakdown of political order in the late 1980s and early 1990s This ushered in a combination of populist political mobilization and experimentation with electoral systems design and the result has been more evolutionary than transformative Italian politics today is different from what it was during the immediate post World War II period but it still shows many of the influences of the past

Grzymała-Busse,2015-04-27 Why churches in some democratic nations wield enormous political power while churches in other democracies don't In some religious countries churches have drafted constitutions restricted abortion and controlled education In others church influence on public policy is far weaker Why Nations under God argues that where religious and national identities have historically fused churches gain enormous moral authority and covert institutional access These powerful churches then shape policy in backrooms and secret meetings instead of through open democratic channels such as political parties or the ballot box Through an in depth historical analysis of six Christian democracies that share similar religious profiles yet differ in their policy outcomes Ireland and Italy Poland and Croatia and the United States and Canada Anna Grzymała-Busse examines how churches influenced education abortion divorce stem cell research and same sex marriage She argues that churches gain the greatest political advantage when they appear to be above politics Because institutional access is covert they retain their moral authority and their reputation as defenders of the national interest and the common good Nations under God shows how powerful church officials in Ireland Canada and Poland have directly written legislation vetoed policies and vetted high ranking officials It demonstrates that religiosity itself is not enough for churches to influence politics churches in Italy and Croatia for example are not as influential as we might think and that churches allied to political parties such as in the United States have less influence than their notoriety suggests Balderdash Antti P. author asserts that ethics is balderdash      The Legal Treatment of Muslim Minorities in Italy Andrea Pin, 2017-05-15 Islam is a growing presence practically everywhere in Europe In Italy however Islam has met a unique model of state neutrality religious freedom and church and state collaboration This book gives a detailed description of the legal treatment of Muslims in Italy contrasting it with other European states and jurisprudence and with wider global tendencies that characterize the treatment of Islam Through focusing on a series of case studies the author argues that the relationship between church and state in Italy and more broadly in Europe should be reconsidered both to secure religious freedom and general welfare Working on the concepts of religious freedom state neutrality and relationship between church and state Andrea Pin develops a theoretical framework that combines the state level with the supranational level in the form of the European Convention of Human Rights which ultimately shapes a unitary but flexible understanding of pluralism This approach should better accommodate not just Muslims needs but religious needs in general in Italy and elsewhere      Public Affairs Information Service Bulletin ,1929      Bulletin of the Public Affairs Information Service Public Affairs Information Service,1929
