And They All Sang Studs Terkel, 2011-05-10 The Pulitzer Prize winning historian talks with some of twentieth century's most iconic musicians Riveting Just about every interview has a revelation San Francisco Chronicle Through the second half of the twentieth century Studs Terkel hosted the legendary radio show The Wax Museum presenting Chicago's music fans with his inimitable take on music of all kinds from classical opera and jazz to gospel blues folk and rock Featuring more than forty of Terkel's conversations with some of the greatest musicians of the past century And They All Sang is a tribute to music's universality and power Philadelphia Inquirer Included here are fascinating conversations with Louis Armstrong Leonard Bernstein Big Bill Broonzy Bob Dylan Dizzy Gillespie Mahalia Jackson Janis Joplin Rosa Raisa Pete Seeger and many others As the esteemed music critic Anthony DeCurtis wrote in the Chicago Tribune the terms interview or oral history don't begin to do justice to what Terkel achieves in these conversations which are at once wildly ambitious and as casual as can be Whether discussing Enrico Caruso's nervousness on stage with opera diva Edith Mason or the Beatles 1966

encounter in London with revered Indian sitar player Ravi Shankar Terkel's singular gift for bringing his subjects to life in their own words should strike a chord with any music fan old enough to have replaced a worn out record needle The New York Times Whether diva or dustbowl balladeer Studs treats them all alike with deep knowledge and an intimate conversational approach as this often remarkable book shows Studs Terkel has remained mesmerized by great music throughout his life The Guardian Terkel's expertise is evident on every page whether debating the harmonic structure of the spirituals or discerning the subtleties of Keith Jarrett's piano technique As ever he is the most skillful of interviewers The Independent What makes And They All Sang a rousing success isn't just Terkel's phenomenal range and broad knowledge it's his passionate love of the music and his deep humanity San Francisco Chronicle Deems Taylor James

Pegolotti,2020-10-28 Deems Taylor 1885-1966 was a composer music critic author commentator translator and artist He was the first American composer commissioned to write an opera by New York's Metropolitan Opera and composed orchestral and solo works that remain part of the repertoire He gained fame initially introducing the regular radio broadcasts of the New York Philharmonic in the mid 30s his fame was so great that animator Walt Disney invited him to be the on screen host of Fantasia Taylor wrote for many popular journals including Vanity Fair and the New Yorker as well as the daily press and his work was collecting in many best selling books Taylor's biographer James Pegolotti has made a fresh selection of the best of Taylor's writings on music for this new volume Divided into parts reflecting a chronological look at Taylor's entire career the work exposes the reader to Taylor's wit and keen intellect Pegolotti has written brief introductions for each section placing Taylor's work in the context of its time Deems Taylor Selected Writings brings into full view a forgotten important music reviewer and social commentator of the first half of the twentieth century Music after Hitler, 1945-1955 Toby

Thacker,2017-07-05 The political control of music in the Third Reich has been analysed from several perspectives and with ever increasing sophistication However music in Germany after 1945 has not received anything like the same treatment Rather there is an assumption that two separate musical cultures emerged in East and West alongside the division of Germany into two states with differing economic and political systems There is a widely accepted view of music in West Germany as free and in the East subject to party control Toby Thacker challenges these assumptions asking how and why music was controlled in Germany under Allied Occupation from 1945-1949 and in the early years of semi sovereignty between 1949 and 1955 The re education of Germany after the Hitler years was a unique historical experiment and the place of music within this is explored here for the first time While emphasizing political economic and broader social structures that influenced the production and reception of different musical forms the book is informed by a sense of human agency and explores the role of salient individuals in the reconstruction of music in post war Germany The focus is not restricted to any one kind of music but concentrates on those aspects of music professional and amateur live and recorded which appeared to be the mostly highly charged politically to contemporaries Particular attention is given to denazification and to the introduction of international music Thacker traces the development of a divide between Communist and liberal democratic understandings of the place of music in society The contested celebrations of the Bach Year in 1950 are used to highlight the role of music in the broader cultural confrontation between East and West Thacker examines the ways in which central governments in East and West Germany sought to control and influence music through mechanisms of censorship and positive support The book will therefore be of interest not only Singing ,1926 The Infinite Variety of Music Leonard Bernstein,2007-12 Amadeus With style wit and expertise Leonard Bernstein shares his love and appreciation for music in all its varied forms in The Infinite Variety of Music illuminating the deep pleasure and sometimes subtle beauty it offers He begins with an imaginary conversation with George Washington entitled The Muzak Muse in which he argues the values of actively listening to music by learning how to read notes as opposed to simply hearing music in a concert hall The book also features the reproduction of five television scripts from Bernstein on the influence of jazz the timeless appeal of Mozart musical romanticism and the complexities of rhythmic innovation Also included are Bernstein s analyses of symphonies by Dvorak Tchaikovsky Beethoven and Brahms a rare reproduction of a 1957 lecture on the nature of composing and a report on the musical scene written for the New York Times after his sabbatical leave from directorship of the New York Philharmonic during the 1964 65 season
