What Do You Do with the Yolks? Carol Devlin,2008-12 Carol Devlin started her journey as a storyteller by making up stories to tell her sisters after they'd gone to bed at night. Many of the stories became often requested favorites and her sisters still have fond memories of the peace the stories and the sound of her voice brought them at the end of the day. Devlin brings those stories to life in What Do You Do With The Yolks. This collection of personal memories portrays what life was like in rural Kansas in the 1940s. The stories travel from Devlin's first memories of choking on a nickel to the final years spent on the family farm before moving to the city. One of five daughters, Devlin tells of surviving nature's threats such as a devastating tornado, ferocious blizzards, the pestilence of grasshoppers, and the fury of dust storms. From starting kindergarten to getting her first job at an ice cream shop, Devlin shares her fondest memories. With accompanying photos, What Do You Do With The Yolks is a heartwarming look at the joys and sorrows and the hard work and the rewards of growing up in rural America.

Don't Look Behind You! Peter Allison, 2009-09-01. Incredible true tales from a world renowned safari guide and celebrated author. Romantic notions aside, being a safari guide isn't always particularly enjoyable or glamorous. Quite often it is beset with challenges like having to spend a night in a thorn tree with marauding hyenas below. But safari guide Peter Allison lives for such moments. Here the author of the widely praised Whatever You Do Don't Run details his time spent in safari camps not only in Botswana but also in South Africa, Mozambique, and Namibia, places he loves despite how much it feels like they might just be trying to kill him. In Don't Look Behind You, Allison recounts adventures few would live to tell. Like the time he and a group of bored guides launched a makeshift raft into a foaming, flooded river teeming with hippos and crocodiles. Or the afternoon he heard monkeys telling him that a leopard was walking around the camp and then realized the leopard was in his tent with him in it. In addition to relating his encounters with animals, Allison shares the stories of those tourists who have long been pushing him toward early retirement. Normally respectful of all his fellow creatures, no matter how many feet they have, Allison fantasizes about leaving one in particular behind on the Skeleton Coast, a place that receives less than half an inch of rain a year and is patrolled by lions and hyenas. Join Peter Allison for another riveting rollicking behind the scenes dose of everyone's dream experience going on safari and come through amazed but thankfully without a scratch.
