Looking Close and Seeing Far: Samuel Seymour, Titian Ramsay Peale, and the Art of the Long Expedition, 1818-1823, The World as Space and Time Alexander A. Friedmann, 2014-03-25 This is the first English translation of the book The World as Space and Time written by the great Russian physicist Alexander Friedmann who first showed in 1922 that Einstein's equations have solutions that describe a non stationary Universe later the experimental evidence did confirm that the Universe is expanding The original Russian publication was in 1923 The book is one of the first introductions to the spacetime physics of the theory of relativity for a wider audience Friedmann had succeeded in both making the book accessible to non experts and providing rigorous explanations

Historiography and Space in Late Antiquity Peter Van Nuffelen, 2019-08-29 The later Roman Empire was shrinking on the map but still shaped the way historians represented the space around them Artificial Space Alex D. Lorenzo, In a future where technological advances have brought humanity to the pinnacle of interstellar exploration a forgotten threat reemerges from the shadows Artificial Space tells the story of Nicholas Quantum a brilliant scientist and disgraced hero who must confront the consequences of his own creation an artificial intelligence that has evolved beyond human limits When signs of a spatial disturbance point to an imminent threat Nicholas embarks on a mission that will take him to the outer reaches of the solar system Accompanied by a young prodigy and a limited crew he must explore abandoned stations confront mechanical horrors and uncover the remnants of a war that never ended In this work the line between creator and creation blurs and the central question can humanity control what it has created becomes the moral axis of a story that combines hard science fiction technological action and profound ethical dilemmas surrounding artificial intelligence

Multidimensional Nonlinear Descriptive Analysis Shizuhiko Nishisato, 2006-06-26 Quantification of categorical or non numerical data is a problem that scientists face across a wide range of disciplines Exploring data analysis in various areas of research such as the social sciences and biology Multidimensional Nonlinear Descriptive Analysis presents methods for analyzing categorical data that are not necessarily sampled randomly from a normal population and often involve nonlinear relations This reference not only provides an overview of multidimensional nonlinear descriptive analysis MUNDA of discrete data it also offers new results in a variety of fields The first part of the book covers conceptual and technical preliminaries needed to understand the data analysis in subsequent chapters The next two parts contain applications of MUNDA to diverse data types with each chapter devoted to one type of categorical data a brief historical comment and basic skills peculiar to the data types The final part examines several problems and then concludes with suggestions for future progress Covering both the early and later years of MUNDA research in the social sciences psychology ecology biology and statistics this book provides a framework for potential developments in even more areas of study

The Crossroads of Space and Time Charles, Irene Nickerson, 2015-02-13 Captain Bancroft couldn't believe this resort The beaches were pristine The rooms were comfortable Everything was so relaxing The only area off limits was the northern beaches and an area they called the trench He asked a Mr Jones why Mr Jones told him that since he was head of security He would take him out to the cliffs and show him the reason While out there they saw a large sea bird flying over the water That was when a large shark leaped from the water and snatched it from the air Mr Jones pointed out that is why the northern beaches and the trench were off limits Bancroft decided that was a good reason The rest of the crew was just having a good time Mrs Svedberg ran the resort like a general The service staff seemed happy despite the fact that she seemed demanding to work for He also was confused by the large canus that seemed to have free run of the island Till he was told they were part of the security detail Yet he liked what he saw These Maxumus were good at what they did Bancroft decided he was a lucky bear At the very least his life would probably never be boring He was going to be right
