Perrin,2022-06-08 This book addresses the making and transforming of regions and territorial organisation which are significant activities for policy makers and planners It focuses on the regional intermediate scale and gathers contributions by researchers from various European universities especially at a time when there is a renewed interest for regions regionalisation and regional planning The different chapters in this edited volume deliver insightful theoretical approaches and documented empirical case studies The recent reform that redrew and reorganized regions in France is of particular interest Other contributions enrich the reflection about territorial reforms and changes by analysing situations in Italy Poland United Kingdom notably the issue of planning city regions or metropolitan areas This volume provides a comparative view of the impact of territorial reforms on planning policies and explores the evolution of regional settings in Europe It also confirms region as a fundamental scale and an essential instrument to organise and develop societies and territories The chapters in this book were originally published in the journal European Planning Studies Europe ,1956 Årsbok ,1981
