Narratives Crossing Boundaries Joachim Friedmann,2023-10-02 As the dominant narrative forms in the age of media convergence films and games call for a transmedial perspective in narratology Games allow a participatory reception of the story bringing the transgression of the ontological boundary between the narrated world and the world of the recipient into focus These diverse transgressions medial and ontological are the subject of this transdisciplinary compendium which covers the subject in an interdisciplinary way from various perspectives game studies and media studies but also sociology and psychology to take into account the great influence of storytelling on social discourses and human behavior Neo-Victorian Humour ,2017-06-06 This volume highlights humour s crucial role in shaping historical re visions of the long nineteenth century through modes ranging from subtle irony camp excess ribald farce and aesthetic parody to blackly comic narrative games It analyses neo Victorian humour s politicisation its ideological functions and ethical implications across varied media including fiction drama film webcomics and fashion Contemporary humour maps the assumed distance between postmodernity and its targeted nineteenth century referents only to repeatedly collapse the same in a seemingly self defeating nihilistic project This collection explores how neo Victorian humour generates empathy and effective socio political critique dispensing symbolic justice but also risks recycling the past s invidious ideologies under the politically correct guise of comic debunking even to the point of negating laughter itself This rich and innovative collection invites us to reflect on the complex and various deployments of humour in neo Victorian texts where its consumers may wish at times that they could swallow back the laughter a scene or event provokes It covers a range of approaches to humour utilised by neo Victorian writers dramatists graphic novelists and filmmakers including the deliberately and pompously unfunny the traumatic the absurd the ribald and the frankly distasteful producing a richly satisfying anthology of innovative readings of canonical neo Victorian texts as well as those which are potential generic outliers The collection explores what is funny in the neo Victorian and who we are laughing at the Victorians as we like to imagine them or ourselves in ways we rarely acknowledge This is a celebration of the parodic playfulness of a wide range of texts from fiction to fashion whilst offering a trenchant critique of the politics of postmodern laughter that will appeal to those working in adaptation studies gender and queer studies as well as literary and cultural studies more generally Prof Imelda Whelehan University of Tasmania Australia
