Mask Of Memory:

The Masks of Mary Renault Caroline Zilboorg, 2013-10-10 Born Eileen Mary Challans in London in 1905 Mary Renault wrote six successful contemporary novels before turning to the historical fiction about ancient Greece for which she is best known While Renault's novels are still highly regarded her life and work have never been completely examined Caroline Zilboorg seeks to remedy this in The Masks of Mary Renault by exploring Renault's identity as a gifted writer and a sexual woman in a society in which neither of these identities was clear or easy Although Renault's life was anything but ordinary this fact has often been obscured by her writing The daughter of a doctor she grew up comfortably and attended a boarding school in Bristol She received a degree in English from St Hugh's College in Oxford in 1928 but she chose not to pursue an academic career Instead she decided to attend the Radcliffe Infirmary in Oxford where she trained to be a nurse With the outbreak of the Second World War she was assigned to the Winford Emergency Hospital in Bristol and briefly worked with Dunkirk evacuees She went on to work in the Radcliffe Infirmary's brain surgery ward and was there until 1945 It was during her nurse's training that Renault met Julie Mullard who became her lifelong companion This important lesbian relationship both resolved and posed many problems for Renault not the least of which was how she was to write about issues at once intensely personal and socially challenging In 1939 Renault published her first novel under a pseudonym in order to mask her identity It was a time when she was struggling not only with her vocation nursing and writing but also with her sexual identity in the social and moral context of English life during the war In 1948 Renault left England with Mullard for South Africa and never returned It was in South Africa that she made the shift from her early contemporary novels of manners to the mature historical novels of Hellenic life The classical settings allowed Renault to mask material too explosive to deal with directly while simultaneously giving her an academic freedom to write about subjects vital to her among them war peace career women's roles female and male homosexuality and bisexuality Renault's reception complicates an understanding of her achievement for she has a special status within the academic community where she is both widely read and little written about Her interest in sexuality and specifically in homosexuality and bisexuality in fluid gender roles and identities warrants a rereading and reevaluation of her work Eloquently written and extensively researched The Masks of Mary Renault will be of special value to anyone interested in women's studies or English literature

The Object of Memory Susan Slyomovics, 1998-06 Well researched and written with passion and elegance International Journal of Middle East Studies

Imaginal Memory and the Place of Hiroshima Michael Perlman, 1988-07-08 Hiroshima claims a crucial yet neglected place in the psychic terrain of our individual and collective memories Drawing on recent work in depth psychology and Jungian thought this study explores the ancient art of remembering by envisioning places and images that are impressed upon the memory Enthusiastically used by ancient medieval and Renaissance explorers of soul and spirit the art of memory became a profound expression of striving for cultural reform and an end to religious cruelty Imaginal Memory and the Place of Hiroshima shows that images arising from the place of Hiroshima reveal with stark exactitude the psychic situation of our world. Specific images are explored that embody unsuspected psychological values beyond their role as reminders of the concrete horror of nuclear war. The process of remembering these images deepens into a commemoration of the fundamental powers at work in the psyche, powers that are critical to the development of a sustained cultural commitment to peace and to the deepening and revitalizing of contemporary psychological life.

The Snares of Memory Juan Marsé, 2019-09-19. In January 1949, on an otherwise unremarkable day in an unremarkable Barcelona neighbourhood cinema, a prostitute is murdered in cold blood in the projection booth by the assistant projectionist, one Fermín Sicart. More than thirty years later, a screenwriter resolves to determine the truth behind her murder and seeks out Fermin, who has served his time. But though Fermin remembers killing his victim and exactly how he did it, he cannot for the life of him recall why. The Snares of Memory by one of the great Spanish men of letters is at once an investigation of memory, motive and murder, and a pointed dig at the Spanish film industry of the second half of the twentieth century.

The Role of Memory in the Poetry of Alfred Lord Tennyson Violet E. Beasley, 2010-09. By analyzing Tennyson's use of memory in his poetry, this study shows Tennyson as the abiding experimentalist in the use of the poetic memory through which he presents his diverse themes in a variety of ways. Discussed in this book are selections from his earliest volumes and Poems 1842, In Memoriam, Maud and Idylls of the King, which are chosen not only for their rich illustrative variety in the use of memory but also because they span the whole of his poetic career and therefore attest to his consistent concern with memory.

Landscapes of Memory and Impunity Annette Levine, Natasha Zaretsky, 2015-05-26. Winner of an Honorable Mention in the Latin American Jewish Studies Association (LAJSA) 2017 Book Award competition for an outstanding book on a Latin American Jewish topic in the social sciences or humanities published in English, Spanish or Portuguese. Landscapes of Memory and Impunity chronicles the aftermath of the most significant terrorist attack in Argentina's history: the 1994 AMIA bombing that killed eighty-five people, wounded hundreds and destroyed the primary Jewish mutual aid society. This volume, edited by Annette H. Levine and Natasha Zaretsky, presents the first comprehensive multidisciplinary work about this decisive turning point in Jewish Argentine history, examining the ongoing impact of this violence and the impunity that followed. representation Jewish belonging citizenship and justice critical fault lines that frame Jewish life after the AMIA attack while also resonating with historical struggles for pluralism in Argentina Babbicombe, Or Visions of Memory Matthew Bridges,1842 On the Wings of Memory Ahmed. Forgeries of Memory and Meaning Cedric J. Robinson,2012-09-01 Cedric J Robinson offers a new understanding of race in America through his analysis of theater and film of the early twentieth century He argues that economic political and cultural forces present in the eras of silent film and the early talkies firmly entrenched limited representations of African Americans Robinson grounds his study in contexts that illuminate the parallel growth of racial beliefs and capitalism beginning with Shakespearean England and the development of international trade He demonstrates how the needs of American commerce determined the construction of successive racial regimes that were publicized in the theater and in motion pictures particularly through plantation and jungle films In addition to providing new depth and complexity to the history of black representation Robinson examines black resistance to these practices Whereas D W Griffith appropriated black minstrelsy and romanticized a national myth of origins Robinson argues that Oscar Micheaux transcended uplift films to create explicitly political critiques of the American national myth Robinson s analysis marks a new way of approaching the intellectual political and media racism present in the beginnings of American narrative cinema The Puppet Show of Memory Maurice Baring,1922 The Puppet Show of Memory by Maurice Baring first published in 1922 is a rare manuscript the original residing in one of the great libraries of the world This book is a reproduction of that original which has been scanned and cleaned by state of the art publishing tools for better readability and enhanced appreciation Restoration Editors mission is to bring long out of print manuscripts back to life Some smudges annotations or unclear text may still exist due to permanent damage to the original work We believe the literary significance of the text justifies offering this reproduction allowing a new generation to appreciate it
