The Caretaker Ron Rash,2024-07-16 From award winning author Ron Rash One of the great American authors at work today The New York Times comes a breathtaking love story and a searing examination of the acts we seek to justify in the name of duty family honor and love With each Ron Rash story you expect flawed people trying desperately to survive against the odds and a rich sense of place What you don t always expect is a wicked plot The Caretaker delivers all of the above in a story that becomes a race to the finish John Grisham Blowing Rock North Carolina 1951 Blackburn Gant his life irrevocably altered by a childhood case of polio seems condemned to spend his life among the dead as the sole caretaker of a hilltop cemetery It suits his withdrawn personality and the inexplicable occurrences that happen from time to time rattle him less than interactions with the living But when his only friend the kind but impulsive Jacob Hampton is conscripted to serve overseas Blackburn is charged with caring for Jacob s wife Naomi as well Jacob and Naomi s elopement has scandalized the community and angered Jacob s parents Shunned by the townsfolk for their differences and equally fearful that Jacob may never come home from the war Blackburn and Naomi grow closer even as a stunning betrayal shatters familial bonds A profound examination of friendship and rivalry as well as a riveting story of unfolding deceit The Caretaker brilliantly depicts the human capacity for empathetic compassion and selfish destruction all justified as acts of love Joe Louis vs. Billy Conn Ed Gruver,2022-07-15 Sports fans had much to occupy themselves with during the memorable summer of 41 including New York Yankees great Joe DiMaggio's record setting consecutive games hit streak and Boston Red Sox star Ted Williams dogged pursuit of batting 400 No sports story however loomed larger that summer than Joe Louis versus Billy Conn the hard hitting heavyweight champion Detroit's Brown Bomber battling the stylish and cocky Pittsburgh Kid Considered one of the greatest matches in boxing history the fight saw the underdog Conn well ahead on points until Louis knocked him out in the 13th round Ed Gruver captures the high drama of that sultry night at the Polo Grounds the brash confidence of the challenger from Pittsburgh and the quiet dignity of the Black champion Louis who personified the memory of every injustice practiced upon his people and the memory of every triumph The Bob Hope Memorial Book Xulon Press, Incorporated,2003-08 Nostalgia, Religion and Popular Culture Chris Deacy,2025-01-09 Drawing on the event of Queen Elizabeth II's death in 2022 as a central case study this book explores the way we navigate the relationship between nostalgia and religion Focusing on the lived experiences of ordinary people and in tandem with the turn to the self discourse Deacy suggests that our relationship with nostalgia illustrates the shift from objective and transcendent value systems towards the domain of everyday experience love and loss This book revisits the way we understand religion and the secular using the medium of popular culture such as radio film TV and music to interrogate the nostalgia as religion narrative The interpersonal and social elements of nostalgia are explored such as through the way radio fostered virtual communities and played a key role regarding national religious and cultural memory during the mourning of the Queen Attention is given to how nostalgia has evolved over time and how it can be understood as a religious process which transforms our lives at a time of loss and contributes to an eschatological future Blackburn College, Fall of '42 to Spring '44 Lora Ward Wilhite,2013* Recollections and anecdotes of 16 Blackburn College alumni from the years 1942-1944 Remembering the Second World War Patrick Finney,2017-07-14 Remembering the Second World War brings together an international and interdisciplinary cast of leading scholars to explore the remembrance of this conflict on a global scale Conceptually it is premised on the need to challenge nation centric approaches in memory studies drawing strength from recent transcultural affective and multidirectional turns Divided into four thematic parts this book largely focuses on the post Cold War period which has seen a notable upsurge in commemorative activity relating to the Second World War and significant qualitative changes in its character The first part explores the enduring utility and the limitations of the national frame in France Germany and China The second explores transnational transactions in remembrance looking at memories of the British Empire at war contested memories in East Central Europe and the transnational campaign on behalf of Japan's former comfort women A third section considers local and sectional memories of the war and the fourth analyses innovative practices of memory including re enactment video gaming and Holocaust tourism Offering insightful contributions on intriguing topics and illuminating the current state of the art in this growing field this book will be essential reading for all students and scholars of the history and memory of the Second World War The Englishwoman's Review of Social and Industrial Questions Janet Murray, Myra Stark, 2017-01-06 The Englishwoman's Review which published from 1866 to 1910 participated in and recorded a great change in the range of possibilities open to women The ideal of the magazine was the idea of the emerging emancipated middle class woman economic independence from men choice of occupation participation in the male enterprises of commerce and government access to higher education admittance to the male professions particularly medicine and of course the power of suffrage equal to that of men First published in 1984 this thirty fifth volume contains issues from 1903 With an informative introduction by Janet Horowitz Murray and Myra Stark and an index compiled by Anna Clark this set is an invaluable resource to those studying nineteenth and early twentieth century feminism and the women's movement in Britain To the Gates of Hell David Nix, 2022-08-23 Fans of William Johnstone and Ralph Compton will love this action packed historical western featuring a lone gunman and the people he's tasked with protecting Jake Paynter escaped the noose but the price of salvation is pain Since reluctantly accepting the marshal's job at South Pass City Jake's life has become an unending run of solving other people's problems When outlaw boss Dutch van Zandt and his ruthless band mount a campaign of mayhem in Jake's corner of the Wyoming Territory Jake learns that Lucien Ashley his persistent adversary may be aiding the criminals to expand his burgeoning cattle fortune The fact that Lucien is the brother of Rosalyn a woman Jake admires complicates matters Determined to thwart van Zandt and Lucien Jake recruits a posse of old friends and former platoon mates that puts the outlaw gang on the run When Lucien betrays van Zandt the outlaw leader loots Jake's town and takes Rosalyn and four children captive With friends few and enemies in abundance Jake must thread a harrowing needle to run down van Zandt in the rugged Wyoming wilderness and save Rosalyn and the children without ending up in a shallow grave Blue Is My Colour , Bread Winner Emma Griffin, 2020-04-14 The overlooked story of how ordinary women and their husbands managed financially in the Victorian era and why so many struggled despite increasing national prosperity Nineteenth century Britain saw remarkable economic growth and a rise in real wages But not everyone shared in the nation's wealth Unable to earn a sufficient income themselves working class women were reliant on the breadwinner wage of their husbands When income failed or was denied or squandered by errant men families could be plunged into desperate poverty from which there was no escape Emma Griffin unlocks the homes of Victorian England to examine the lives and finances of the people who lived there Drawing on over 600 working class autobiographies including more than 200 written by women Bread Winner changes our understanding of daily life in Victorian Britain
