Animal and Human Health and Welfare Lennart Nordenfelt, 2006-08-14 For many years scientists within human and animal science have extensively discussed the philosophy of medicine but never have both sides communicated on their concepts of health quality of life and welfare with each other This book helps clarify the difficult but central notions of health and welfare by comparing the human and animal variants of these concepts Split into three parts this book starts by presenting a background of some of the major theories of human health and welfare among these are the bio statistical theory classical theories such as Aristotle and Bentham as well as objectivist and subjectivist contemporary theories This is followed by a detailed discussion of theories on animal welfare and health these include coping feeling and preference theories The final part of the book tests a comprehensive conceptual framework of a holistic kind which focuses on the individual's ability to achieve its vital goals

Impossible God Hugh Rayment-Pickard, 2018-12-07 Impossible God introduces Derrida's theology for a new generation interested in Derrida's writings and in the future of theology and clarifies Derrida's theology for those already familiar with his writings Derrida's theological concerns are now widely recognised but Impossible God shows how Derrida's theology takes its shape from his earliest writings on Edmund Husserl and from explorations into Husserl's unpublished manuscripts on time and theology Rayment Pickard argues that Derrida goes beyond both the nihilism of the death of God and the denials of negative theology to affirm a theology of God's impossibility Derrida's impossible God is not another God of the philosophers but a powerful deity capable of wakening us into faith ethical responsibility and love Showing how central theology has been to Derrida's philosophy since the beginning of his career Impossible God presents an accessible study of a neglected area of Derrida's writing which students of philosophy and theology will find invaluable
